"ACTA SANCTÆ SEDIS IN COMPENDIUM,"

PUBLISHED MONTHLY IN ROME.

This important publication contains a digest of the most important cases on Moral Theology, Canon Law, the Liturgy, &c., daily brought before the various tribunals of Rome, from all parts of the world, with the reasons adduced on both sides and the decisions arrived at. To which is added an abstract of the principles settled by each decision, which in the very nature of the case are at once the most practicable and of difficult application. In order to place this very useful and important work within the means of all the Clergy, we supply it at the very low price of $4.00, U. S. currency, per volume, payable in advance. We can supply the eight back volumes, neatly bound in cloth, at $5 per volume. The ACTA and CATHOLIC MIRROR for one year for $6.

K., P. & Co. are Agents for the Dublin Review—Lamp—Month—London Tablet—Weekly Register, and English and and Continental Periodicals. Prices furnished on application.

IMPORTATION OF FOREIGN BOOKS.

KELLY, PIET & CO. have the pleasure to announce that they are prepared to receive orders for Books, Periodicals, and other articles to be imported to order. Having at hand for reference the latest Catalogues of standard works, full lists of all the leading Periodicals published in PERIODICALS.

THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF THE MEDICAL SCIENCES,

EDITED BY ISAAC HAYS, M.D.,

Is published quarterly, on the first of January, April, July, and October. Each number contains about two hundred and eighty large octavo pages, appropriately illustrated, wherever necessary. It has now been issued regularly for over fifty years, during almost the whole of which time it has been under the control of the present editor. Throughout this long period it has maintained its position in the highest rank of medical periodicals, both at home and abroad, and has received the cordial support of the entire profession in this country.

Price Five Dollars ($5) per annum, in advance.

THE MEDICAL NEWS AND LIBRARY

Is published monthly; each number contains thirty-two large octavo pages. The "NEWS DEPARTMENT" contains the current information of the day, while the "LIBRARY DEPARTMENT" is devoted to publishing standard works on the various branches of medical science, paged separately, so they can be removed and bound on completion.

Price One Dollar ($1) per annum, in advance.

☞ Furnished gratuitously as a premium to advance-paying Subscribers to the American Journal of the Medical Sciences.

THE MONTHLY ABSTRACT OF MEDICAL SCIENCE

Is published monthly, each number containing forty-eight large octavo pages. The aim of the "ABSTRACT" will be to present a careful revision of all that is new and important in the medical journalism of the world, and all the prominent professional periodicals of both hemispheres will be at the disposal of the editors.

Price Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2 50) per annum, in advance.

Guide to Penmanship. A full and exhaustive treatise on the subject of PRACTICAL PENMANSHIP, with ample illustrations in the form of copy-lines and off-hand flourishing; being the most artistic and beautiful work ever produced, This book was intended, primarily, as an accompaniment to Williams & Packard's Copy Books, and affords to teachers a most invaluable hand-book. Aside from the engraved pages, which are full and complete, some seventy-five pages of letter-press matter are given, with thorough analysis of Writing, and ample criticisms on the common faults of learners. Not less than 375 imperfect letters and figures are given, with hints as to their departure from the proper models, and the best methods of guarding against errors. Aside from this, are instructions as to class-drills, and hints upon all the various duties of the teacher. It is a book that every teacher and lover of good writing should possess, and is a beautiful and appropriate present as a reward for improvement in penmanship.
Bound in full cloth, bevelled boards, . 3 00

LINDSAY & BLAKISTON'S

Revised Catalogue

OF THEIR

MEDICAL, DENTAL,

CHEMICAL, AND PHARMACEUTICAL

PUBLICATIONS.

LINDSAY & BLAKISTON, having carefully revised their Catalogue, reducing the prices of many of their publications, so as to meet as far as possible the demand for books at lower prices, desire to call the attention of the MEDICAL PROFESSION and of BOOKSELLERS to this fact, trusting that the liberality of their orders and the increased sales of the books will compensate them for the reduction made. The books of which the prices are reduced are indicated throughout the Catalogue by a star * attached to the price.

☞ A special list of them will also be found on pages 2 and 3.

THE STUDENTS' GUIDE SERIES. Under this title they are issuing a New Series of MEDICAL TEXT-BOOKS, or HAND-BOOKS, for the Practitioner, moderate in size and price, prepared by men of established reputation in the profession, each work to contain a condensed summary of the existing state of the science on the subject which it treats, and to be illustrated by well-executed engravings whenever necessary. See page 4.

ALL THEIR PUBLICATIONS can be had from or through BOOKSELLERS in any of the large cities of the United States or Canada. When, for any reason, it is inconvenient thus to procure them, they will be furnished direct by mail or express upon receipt of a Post-office order, draft, or check for the amount ordered.

IN ADDITION to their own publications, they keep on hand a full and complete assortment of all Medical Books published in the United States; and, by special arrangement with Messrs. J. & A. CHURCHILL, and other Medical Publishers of London, they can supply many important English Medical Works at greatly reduced prices; such as are not on hand they can import promptly to order.

AS SPECIAL AGENTS OF THE SYDENHAM SOCIETY in the United States, they are prepared to receive Subscribers at Ten Dollars per Annum, and supply any of the back years. Complete lists of works published will be furnished upon application.

MEDICAL, DENTAL,
PHARMACEUTICAL AND SCIENTIFIC BOOKS

PUBLISHED BY

LINDSAY & BLAKISTON, Philadelphia.

AITKEN (WILLIAM), M. D.,

Professor of Pathology in the Army Medical School, &c.

THE SCIENCE AND PRACTICE OF MEDICINE. THIRD American, from the Sixth London Edition. Thoroughly Revised, Remodelled, many portions Rewritten, with Additions almost equal to a Third Volume, and numerous additional Illustrations, without any increase in bulk or price. Containing a Colored Map showing the Geographical Distribution of Disease over the Globe, a Lithographic Plate, and nearly 200 Illustrations on Wood.

Two volumes, royal octavo, bound in cloth, price, . . $12.00
" " " " leather, . . 14.00

For eighteen months Dr. Aitken has been engaged in again carefully revising this Great Work, and adding to it many valuable additions and improvements, amounting in the aggregate almost to a volume of new matter, included in which will be found the adoption and incorporation in the text of the "New Nomenclature of the Royal College of Physicians of London;" to which are added the Definitions and the Foreign Equivalents for their English names; the New Classification of Disease as adopted by the Royal College of Physicians, &c.

The American editor, MEREDITH CLYMER, M. D., has also added to it many valuable articles, with special reference to the wants of the AMERICAN PRACTITIONER.

The work is now, by almost universal consent, both in England and the United States, acknowledged to be in advance of all other works on The Science and Practice of Medicine. It is a most thorough and complete TEXT-BOOK for students of medicine, following such a systematic arrangement as will give them a consistent view of the main facts, doctrines, and practice of medicine, in accordance with accurate physiological and pathological principles and the present state of science. For the practitioner it will be found equally acceptable as a work of reference.

ALLINGHAM (WILLIAM), F. R. C. S.,

Surgeon to St. Mark's Hospital for Fistula, &c.

FISTULA, HÆMORRHOIDS, PAINFUL ULCER, STRICTURE, PROLAPSUS, and other Diseases of the Rectum, their Diagnosis and Treatment. Second Edition, Revised and Enlarged by the Author. Price $2.00

This book has been well received by the Profession; the first edition sold rapidly; the present one has been revised by the author, and some additions made chiefly as to the mode of treatment.

The Medical Press and Circular, speaking of it, says: "No book on this special subject can at all approach Mr. Allingham's in precision, clearness, and practical good sense."

The London Lancet: "As a practical guide to the treatment of affections of the lower bowel, this book is worthy of all commendation."

The Edinburgh Monthly: "We cordially recommend it as well deserving the careful study of Physicians and Surgeons."

ATTHILL (LOMBE), M. D.,

Fellow and Examiner in Midwifery, King and Queen's College of Physicians, Dublin.

CLINICAL LECTURES ON DISEASES PECULIAR TO WOMEN. Second Edition, Revised and Enlarged, with Six Lithographic Plates and other Illustrations on Wood. Price . . . . * 2.00

The value and popularity of this book is proved by the rapid sale of the first edition, which was exhausted in less than a year from the time of its publication. It appears to possess three great merits: First, It treats of the diseases very common to females. Second, It treats of them in a thoroughly clinical and practical manner. Third, It is concise, original, and illustrated by numerous cases from the author's own experience. His style is clear and the volume is the result of the author's large and accurate clinical observation recorded in a remarkable, perspicuous, and terse manner, and is conspicuous for the best qualities of a practical guide to the student and practitioner. — British Medical Journal.

ADAMS (WILLIAM), F. R. C. S.,

Surgeon to the Royal Orthopedic and Great Northern Hospitals.

CLUB-FOOT: ITS CAUSES, PATHOLOGY, AND TREATMENT. Being the Jacksonian Prize Essay of the Royal College of Surgeons. A New Revised and Enlarged Edition, with 106 Illustrations engraved on Wood, and Six Lithographic Plates. A large Octavo Volume. Price . . . . . * 5.00

ADAMS (ROBERT), M. D.,

Regius Professor of Surgery in the University of Dublin, &c., &c.

RHEUMATIC GOUT, OR CHRONIC RHEUMATIC ARTHRITIS OF ALL THE JOINTS. The Second Edition. Illustrated by numerous Woodcuts, and a quarto Atlas of Plates. 2 Volumes. Price $8.50

ALTHAUS (JULIUS), M. D.,

Physician to the Infirmary of Epilepsy and Paralysis.

A TREATISE ON MEDICAL ELECTRICITY, Theoretical and Practical, and its Use in the Treatment of Paralysis, Neuralgia, and other Diseases. Third Edition, Enlarged and Revised, with One Hundred and Forty-six Illustrations. In one volume octavo. Price . $6.00

In this work both the scientific and practical aspects of the subject are ably, concisely, and thoroughly treated. It is much the best work treating of the remedial effects of electricity in the English language. — New York Medical Record.

ARNOTT (HENRY), F. R. C. S.

CANCER: its Varieties, their Histology and Diagnosis. With Five Lithographic Plates and Twenty-two Wood Engravings. Price $2.25

AGNEW (D. HAYES), M. D.,

Professor of Surgery in the University of Pennsylvania.

THE LACERATIONS OF THE FEMALE PERINEUM, AND VESICO-VAGINAL FISTULA, their History and Treatment, with numerous Illustrations. Octavo. Price . . . . . * 1.50

Prof. Agnew has been a most indefatigable laborer in this department, and his work stands deservedly high in the estimation of the profession. It is well illustrated, and full descriptions of the operations and instruments employed are given. — Canada Lancet.

ACTON (WILLIAM), M.R.C.S., ETC.

THE FUNCTIONS AND DISORDERS OF THE REPRODUCTIVE ORGANS. In Childhood, Youth, Adult Age, and Advanced Life, considered in their Physiological, Social, and Moral Relations. Fourth American from the Fifth London Edition. Carefully revised by the Author, with additions. . . . . * 2.50

Mr. Acton has done good service to society by grappling manfully with sexual vice, and we trust that others, whose position as men of science and teachers enable them to speak with authority, will assist in combating and arresting the evils which it entails. The spirit which pervades his book is one which does credit equally to the head and to the heart of the author.—British and Foreign Medico-Chirurgical Review.

SAME AUTHOR.

BIDDLE (JOHN B.), M. D.,

Professor of Materia Medica and Therapeutics in the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, &c.

MATERIA MEDICA, FOR THE USE OF STUDENTS. With Illustrations. Seventh Edition, Revised and Enlarged. Price $4.00

This new and thoroughly revised edition of Professor Biddle's work has incorporated in it all the improvements as adopted by the New United States Pharmacopœia just issued. It is designed to present the leading facts and principles usually comprised under this head as set forth by the standard authorities, and to fill a vacuum which seems to exist in the want of an elementary work on the subject. The larger works usually recommended as text-books in our Medical schools are too voluminous for convenient use. This will be found to contain, in a condensed form, all that is most valuable, and will supply students with a reliable guide to the course of lectures on Materia Medica as delivered at the various Medical schools in the United States.

THE DIAGNOSIS, PATHOLOGY, AND TREATMENT OF DISEASES OF WOMEN, including the Diagnosis of Pregnancy. Founded on a Course of Lectures delivered at St. Mary's Hospital Medical School. The Third Edition, Revised and Enlarged, with new Illustrations. Octavo. Price in Cloth *4.00

This new edition of Dr. Hewitt's book has been so much modified, that it may be considered substantially a new book; very much of the matter has been entirely rewritten, and the whole work has been rearranged in such a manner as to present a most decided improvement over previous editions. Dr. Hewitt is the leading clinical teacher on Diseases of Women in London, and the characteristic attention paid to Diagnosis by him has given his work great popularity there. It may unquestionably be considered the most valuable guide to correct Diagnosis to be found in the English language.

HARRIS (CHAPIN A.), M. D., D. D. S.

Late President of and Professor of the Principles and Practice of Dental Surgery in the Baltimore College, &c.

THE PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICE OF DENTISTRY. Tenth Revised Edition. In great part rewritten, rearranged, and with many new and important Illustrations. Including — 1. Dental Anatomy and Physiology. 2. Dental Pathology and Therapeutics. 3. Dental Surgery. 4. Dental Mechanics. Edited by P. H. AUSTEN, M.D., Professor of Dental Science and Mechanism in the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery. With nearly 400 Illustrations, including many new ones made especially for this edition. Royal octavo. Price, in cloth, $6.50; in leather $7.50

This new edition of Dr. Harris's work has been thoroughly revised in all its parts — more so than any previous edition. So great have been the advances in many branches of dentistry, that it was found necessary to rewrite the articles or subjects, and this has been done in the most efficient manner by Professor Austen, for many years an associate and friend of Dr. Harris, assisted by Professor Gorgas and Thomas S. Latimer, M.D. The publishers feel assured that it will now be found the most complete text-book for the student and guide for the practitioner in the English language.

SAME AUTHOR.

A DICTIONARY OF MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY, DENTAL SURGERY, AND THE COLLATERAL SCIENCES. Fourth Edition, Carefully Revised and Enlarged, by FERDINAND J. S. GORGAS, M. D., D.D.S., Professor of Dental Surgery in the Baltimore College, &c., &c. Royal octavo. Price, in cloth, $6.50; in leather . . $7.50

The many advances in Dental Science rendered it necessary that this edition should be thoroughly revised, which has been done in the most satisfactory manner by Professor Gorgas, Dr. Harris's successor in the Baltimore Dental College, he having added nearly three thousand new words, besides making many additions and corrections. The doses of the more prominent medicinal agents have also been added, and in every way the book has been greatly improved, and its value enhanced as a work of reference.

HANDY (WASHINGTON R.), M.D.

The object of the Editor has been to give practical instruction in this fascinating art, and to lead the novice from first principles to the higher branches, impressing him with the value of care and exactness in every operation.

HEADLAND (F. W.), M. D.,

Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, &c., &c.

ON THE ACTION OF MEDICINES IN THE SYSTEM. Sixth American from the Fourth London Edition. Revised and Enlarged. Octavo. Price $3.00

Dr. Headland's work gives the only scientific and satisfactory view of the action of medicine; and this not in the way of idle speculation, but by demonstration and experiments, and inferences almost as indisputable as demonstrations. It is truly a great scientific work in a small compass, and deserves to be the hand-book of every lover of the Profession. It has received the approbation of the Medical Press, both in this country and in Europe, and is pronounced by them to be the most original and practically useful work that has been issued for many years.

PARKES (EDWARD A.), M. D.,

Professor of Military Hygiene in the Army Medical School, &c.

A MANUAL OF PRACTICAL HYGIENE. The Fourth Revised and Enlarged Edition, for Medical Officers of the Army, Civil Medical Officers, Boards of Health, &c., &c. With many Illustrations. One Volume Octavo. Price $6.00

This work, previously unrivalled as a text-book for medical officers of the army, is now equally unrivalled as a text-book for civil medical officers. The first book treats in successive chapters of water, air, ventilation, examination of air, food, quality, choice, and cooking of food, beverages, and condiments; soil, habitations, removal of excreta, warming of houses, exercise, clothing, climate, meteorology, individual hygienic management, disposal of the dead, the prevention of some common diseases, disinfection, and statistics. The second book is devoted to the service of the soldier, but is hardly less instructive to the civil officer of health. It is, in short, a comprehensive and trustworthy text-book of hygiene for the scientific or general reader.— London Lancet.

PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL REPORTS.

EDITED BY A COMMITTEE OF THE HOSPITAL STAFF.

J. M. DA COSTA, M. D., and WILLIAM HUNT, M. D. Vols. 1 and 2; each volume containing upwards of Twenty Original Articles, by former and present Members of the Staff, now eminent in the Profession, with Lithographic and other Illustrations. Price per volume . . * 2.00

The first Reports were so favorably received, on both sides of the Atlantic, that it is hardly necessary to speak for them the universal welcome of which they are deserving. The papers are all valuable contributions to the literature of medicine, reflecting great credit upon their authors. The work is one of which the Pennsylvania Hospital may well be proud. It will do much towards elevating the profession of this country.— American Journal of Obstetrics.

TEXT-BOOK OF PATHOLOGICAL HISTOLOGY. An Introduction to the Study of Pathological Anatomy. Translated from the German, by WM. C. KLOMAN, M.D., assisted by F. T. MILES, M.D., Professor of Anatomy, University of Maryland, &c., &c. Containing Two Hundred and Eight elaborately executed Microscopical Illustrations. Octavo. Price, bound in Cloth, ... * 5.00
" " Leather, ... * 6.00

This is now confessedly the leading book, and the only complete one on the subject in the English language. The London Lancet says of it: "Rindfleisch's work forms a mine which no pathological writer or student can afford to neglect, who desires to interpret aright pathological structural changes, and his book is consequently well known to readers of German medical literature. What makes it especially valuable is the fact that it was originated, as its author himself tells us, more at the microscope than at the writing-table. Altogether the book is the result of honest hard labor. It is admirably as well as profusely illustrated, furnished with a capital Index, and got up in a way that is worthy of what must continue to be the standard book of the kind."

A HAND-BOOK OF THE THEORY AND PRACTICE OF MEDICINE. Second Edition, Revised and Enlarged. Cloth, $5.00
Leather, 6.00

This work has been prepared mainly for the use of Students, and its object is to present in as condensed a form as the present extent of Medical Literature will permit, and in one volume, such information with regard to the Principles and Practice of Medicine, as shall be sufficient not only to enable them to prepare for the various examinations which they may have to undergo, but also to guide them in acquiring that Clinical Knowledge which can alone properly fit them for assuming the active duties of their profession. The work is also adapted to the wants of very many members of the profession who are already busily engaged in general Practice, and consequently have but little leisure and few opportunities for the perusal of the larger works on Practice or of the various special monographs.

Price, in one volume, Cloth, * 6.00; in Leather, * 7.00; or in two volumes, Cloth, * 7.00.

We feel that we cannot recommend this work too highly. To those engaged in physiological work as students or teachers, it is almost indispensable; and to those who are not, a perusal of it will by no means be unprofitable. The execution of the plates leaves nothing to be desired. They are mostly original, and their arrangement in a separate volume has great and obvious advantages. — Dublin Journal of Medical Sciences.

TANNER (THOMAS HAWKES), M.D., F.R.C.P., &c.

THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE. Sixth American from the last London Edition. Revised, much Enlarged, and thoroughly brought up to the present time. With a complete Section on the Diseases Peculiar to Women, an extensive Appendix of Formulæ for Medicines, Baths, &c., &c. Royal Octavo, over 1100 pages. Price, in cloth, $6.00; leather $7.00

There is a common character about the writings of Dr. Tanner—a characteristic which constitutes one of their chief values: they are all essentially and thoroughly practical. Dr. Tanner never, for one moment, allows this utilitarian end to escape his mental view. He aims at teaching how to recognize and how to cure disease, and in this he is thoroughly successful. . . . It is, indeed, a wonderful mine of knowledge.—Medical Times.

A PRACTICAL TREATISE ON OPERATIVE DENTISTRY. Third Edition, thoroughly Revised, with Additions, and fully brought up to the Present State of the Science. Containing over 100 Illustrations. Octavo. Price, in cloth, $4.25. In leather, . . $5.00

Professor Taft has done good service in thus embodying, in a separate volume, a comprehensive view of operative dentistry. This gentleman's position as a teacher must have rendered him familiar with the most recent views which are entertained in America on this matter, while his extensive experience and well-earned reputation in practice must have rendered him a competent judge of their merits. We willingly commend Professor Taft's able and useful work to the profession.—London Dental Review.

Price * 8.00; in Leather . . . . . * 10.00

Trousseau's Lectures have attained a reputation both in England and this country far greater than any work of a similar character heretofore written; and, notwithstanding but few medical men could afford to purchase the expensive edition issued by the Sydenham Society, it has had an extensive sale. In order, however, to bring the work within the reach of all the profession, the publishers now issue this edition, containing all the lectures as contained in the five-volume edition, at one-half the price. The London Lancet, in speaking of the work, says: "It treats of diseases of daily occurrence and of the most vital interest to the practitioner. And we should think any medical library absurdly incomplete now which did not have alongside of Watson, Graves, and Tanner, the 'Clinical Medicine' of Trousseau."

The Sydenham Society's Edition of Trousseau can also be furnished in sets, or in separate volumes, as follows: Volumes I., II., and III., $5.00 each. Volumes IV. and V., $4.00 each.

TILT (EDWARD JOHN), M.D.

THE CHANGE OF LIFE IN HEALTH AND DISEASE. A Practical Treatise on the Nervous and other Affections incidental to Women at the Decline of Life. From the Third London Edition. Price $3.00

The work is rich in personal experience and observation, as well as in ready and sensible reflection on the experience and observation of others. The book is one that no practitioner should be without, as the best we have on a class of diseases that makes a constant demand upon our care, and requires very judicious management on the part of the practitioner.—London Lancet.

PRACTICAL THERAPEUTICS. Considered chiefly with reference to Articles of the Materia Medica. Third American from the last London Edition. Price, in cloth, *4.00; leather . . . *5.00

There are many features in Dr. Waring's Therapeutics which render it especially valuable to the Practitioner and Student of Medicine, much important and reliable information being found in it not contained in similar works; also in its completeness, the convenience of its arrangement, and the greater prominence given to the medicinal application of the various articles of the Materia Medica in the treatment of morbid conditions of the Human Body, &c. It is divided into two parts, the alphabetical arrangement being adopted throughout. It contains also an excellent INDEX OF DISEASES, with a list of the medicines applicable as remedies, and a full INDEX of the medicines and preparations noticed in the work.

SEALING WAX.

Messrs. Lockwood, Brooks & Co. beg to announce to their patrons and the trade generally, that they have made preparations for the manufacture, on their own premises, of all grades of Sealing Wax. It is the purpose of the manufacturers to produce a line of goods unsurpassed by any in the market, and to render their terms satisfactory to all buyers. A complete trade price-list will soon be ready.

LOCKWOOD'S FIELD PORTFOLIO.

This Portfolio is designed for use in gathering ferns, flowers, leaves, and other botanical specimens, and bringing them in perfect condition from the places where they are found. It is 14 by 20 inches in size, and contains 24 pages of heavy white porous paper, with a sheet of gummed paper so perforated as to be easily torn into strips of any desired length. These strips are to be used as confining straps for the specimens, holding them securely in place till the time comes for their removal. This arrangement obviates all necessity for knife or scissors.

The Portfolio is light, can be easily carried by ladies or children, and contains everything that is required. The strong sides are firmly fastened by elastic straps and hooks. It forms a most agreeable substitute for the awkward and clumsy old blank or account books with which gatherers of ferns and flowers have in the past been compelled to burden themselves. Every one who sees it will want it.

Half Cloth, Paper Sides, $1.50. . . . Cloth, $2.00.

CATALOGUE OF PUBLICATIONS

D. LOTHROP & CO., BOSTON.

ANDY LUTTRELL. By Clara Vance. 16mo. ($500 Prize Series.) Illustrated. $1 50

Andy Luttrell is an infidel, fierce, independent, almost desperate; a character of great power and no little genius, and handled so as to make a vivid and yet a healthful impression. This is a book for young men and young women.

AUNT MATTY. By Mabel Hazelton. 16mo. ($500 Prize Series.) Illustrated, ... 1 50

Is a quiet story of domestic life and experiences, in which true Christian sentiments, biblical knowledge, and the working of religious influences upon various types of mind, are pleasantly and impressively set forth.

ARCHIBALD HAMILTON. By E. W. B. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25

By the author of the prize tract, "The Captain and his Orderly." A story of lively incident and thrilling interest for boys.

ANECDOTES OF ANIMALS. 16mo. 1 00

With illustrations by Harrison Weir, Wolf and others.

Interesting and instructive.

The book is handsomely printed in large, clear type, its illustrations are numerous and excellent, its text is of that peculiar anecdotal interest which is always acceptable to the young, and through which a high moral influence is happily exerted.

ADVENTURES OF JAMIE AND JENNIE. By Mrs. L. M. Child. 18mo. Illustrated. 75

Full of tender sentiment, wise lessons, and good counsels.

ALICE BENSON'S TRIALS. 18mo. Illustrated. 75

Alice Benson's trials supply not a little in the way of illustrating the experience of young girls who earnestly endeavor to follow Christ, and who find that faithfulness costs much prayer and patience. Her fidelity brings her a noble victory at last.

AGNES AND HER NEIGHBORS. By Frances Lee Pratt. 16mo. 1 50

The character of Agnes is simply charming, and admirably drawn; the whole influence of the book is elevating, and no one can read it without benefit. — DR. LINCOLN.

ANNA MAYLIE. By Ella Farman. 16mo. . . . 1 50

It gives us the story of faithful, patient, trustful, resolute work in the Sunday School, the home, and in the field of the western religious pioneer. The variety of characters and incidents is large. On its literary side it is more than a creditable, it is a superior product. But the excellence and the charm lie chiefly in the pure, high-toned, gracious, and stimulating religious spirit that pervades the entire work.

AULD SCOTCH MITHER (The), and other Poems, in the Dialect of Burns. By Rev. J. E. Rankin, D. D. Finely illustrated by Herrick and others. 1 25

A beautiful volume of poems, many of which are already familiar to readers of our religious and other papers. Geo. McDonald, LL. D., Dr. Waddell, and others commend them highly.

"The author," writes Rev. Ray Palmer, "seems to have caught the true spirit — the naivette and pathos of the Northern muse."

ARCHITECT OF COLOGNE, and other Poems. By Mary E. Atkinson, author of "Ivy Leaves," &c., &c. Illustrated. 1 00

AFRICAN ADVENTURE AND ADVENTURERS. Edited by Rev. G. T. Day, D. D. 16mo. Very fully Illustrated. $1 50

An epitome of the elaborate works of Bruce, Speke and Grant, Baker and Livingstone. The salient points in the works of each are presented in a clear, comprehensive, and attractive manner.

ANNALS OF A QUIET NEIGHBORHOOD. By Geo. Macdonald, LL. D. Large 16mo. Illustrated. . 1 75

Much of what is especially Scottish, as well as what is widely and profoundly human, comes out in the author's vivid sketchings, and we should be sorry for the heart that remained dull or the eyes that failed to grow moist as this panorama of life unrolled itself.

ACTIVE CHRISTIAN (The). From the Writings of John Harris, D. D. 24mo, plain. 25
24mo, gilt. 40
16mo, red line. 1 00

ALICE SUTHERLAND. By Mrs. Mary C. Bristol. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25
Individual influence for good impressively portrayed.

AMERICAN WOMAN IN CHINA (An), and her Missionary Work there. By Rev. J. B. Jeter, D. D. Large 16mo. 1 25
The style of the author is sedate and perspicuous, such as we might expect from his known piety and learning, his attachment to missions, and his esteem of the amiable lady — Mrs. Henrietta Shuck — whose memory he embalms.

ATTRACTIONS OF HEAVEN (The). Edited by Rev. H. A. Graves. Plain. 25
24mo, gilt. 40
16mo, red line. 1 00

ADVENTURES OF MILTIADES PETERKIN PAUL (The), with 24 Pictures by Hopkins. Large quarto. Illuminated Board Covers. . . . . $. 50
The jolliest book out for boys.

AMERICAN EVANGELISTS (The). Moody and Sankey and their work, with Biographical Sketches of P. P. Bliss and Eben Tourjée. By Rev. Elias Nason. 12mo. Cloth. Steel portraits and fine engravings. 1 50
Many lives of Mr. Moody and his associates in the evangelistic work have been published already, but we do not know of any that is better than the last, by Rev. Elias Nason.—Congregationalist.

D. LOTHROP & CO'S PUBLICATIONS.

BRIGHT DAYS. By Mary Howitt. 16mo. Four Full-page Illustrations. 1 25
Looking at things from the child's point of view.

BIBLE PICTURES. By George B. Ide, D. D. 12mo. 2 00
Large edition, tinted paper, illustrated. 3 00
Portrayed with that richness of thought, and that clearness and strength of style, in which Dr. Ide so remarkably excelled.

BRITISH NOVELISTS AND THEIR STYLES. By David Masson. 16mo. New Edition. 1 25
A critical sketch of the history of prose fiction. It is a keen and searching critique, and will be read with interest by all who can appreciate genuine literary merit.

BARBARA. By the author of "Silent Tom." 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50
It is of superior merit, with characters of high order, and finely drawn. A popular book, one of the author's best. — H. LINCOLN, D. D.

BONNIE ÆRIE. By the author of "Evening Rest." Large 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50
It is admirable. It will encourage and help ministers, Sabbath School teachers, and all who are working in a hard field, and facing formidable obstacles. — H. LINCOLN, D. D.

Shows how sin "makes cowards of us all."

BROWN PONY. By Rev. J. D. Strong. 24mo. Illustrated. 25
Shows the sin of covetousness, and the wickedness of breaking the Sabbath Day.

THE BLACKSMITH. By Rev. J. D. Strong. 24mo. Illustrated. 25
A man used to hard work; he feared nothing, but could not stand against his child's faith in God.

BEAUTY BENSON. By Rev. J. D. Strong. 24mo. Illustrated. 25
A story of the pet of the family, spoiled by indulgence.

BUTLER'S COMMENTARY. By Rev Dr. Butler. 12mo. Cloth binding, clear type (letter press). 495 pp. Illustrated. 2 00
The notes are brief, pithy, always direct, definite in aim, and excellent in spirit.

BLUE-EYED JIMMY; or, The Good Boy. By Sophia Homespun. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 00
A pleasant story from real life, which puts proper honor upon the qualities that grow up from vigorous boyhood into true manliness.

BILL RIGGS, JR. By Olive A. Wadsworth. 18mo. Illustrated. 75
A touching story of the efforts of a motherless boy to care for his little brothers and his intemperate father.

BUILDING STONES. New $500 Prize Series. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25
A successful attempt to teach Bible truths in a manner both interesting and instructive. The curiosity is excited, and the mind kept on the alert, while important lessons are enforced. It is an admirable book for Sunday School Libraries. — REV. DR. LINCOLN.

BLIND JAKEY. By Clara Dotey. 18mo. Illustrated. 60
A little orphan blind boy's story.

D. LOTHROP & CO.'S PUBLICATIONS.

A story of the sea, for boys.

BURIED CITIES OF CAMPANIA. By W. H. Davenport Adams. 12mo. Fully illustrated. 1 50
A book of great interest and value, in which the story of Pompeii and Herculaneum is concisely, but ably and most interestingly, told.

BUD AND BLOSSOM. By Mrs. M. L. Clark. To which is added "BLUE VIOLET." 16mo. Profusely illustrated. 50
A new story book for young children.

BATTLES LOST AND WON. By George E. Merrill. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50
The characters show themselves in words and life; the style is good and full of elasticity; the story is full of interest. A liberal mixture of fun does not blunt at all the moral tone of the book, which is pure and high.

BOYS AND BOYS. To which is added "KINDNESS." 18mo. Illustrated. 50

BRANCHES OF PALM. By the author of "Evening Rest." 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50
It is a continuation of "Evening Rest," and, like that, is excellent in spirit, original in style, admirable in tone, and peculiarly interesting.

BLOUNT FAMILY (The); or, A Widow's Toil, Trust, and Triumph. By Rev. Theron Brown. ($1000 Prize Series.) Large 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50
Good every way. The story is instructive and well sustained, increasing in interest to the end.

BOOK-STALL BOY OF BATHERTON (The). By Edwin Hodder. 16mo. Illustrated. 75
A story which will interest lads of ambitious tendencies, for it shows how, by his own exertions, and by a faithful discharge of the duties set before him, a poor boy may rise to honor and credit.

BEN'S BOYHOOD. By Mrs. C. E. Bowen. To which is added "TRUSTED AND TRIED." 16mo. 75
Industry leads to content and happiness. Six full-page illustrations.

BOOK OF PRAISE (The), from the Best English Hymn-writers. Selected and arranged by Roundell Palmer. 16mo. Vignette Title engraved by Marsh. 1 25
Illustrated Red line edition. 3 00

"The volume before us is an attempt to restore and purify the sacred lyrics of the English language, and to give them without regard to creeds, but only with reference to their poetic excellence and their religious purity. It contains the choicest hymns which have been written, gathered from all sources, whether lay or clerical, — judged only by pure religion and a high poetic standard. In all cases where it is known, the authorship is given. The selections are admirable, the arrangement suggestive, and the mechanical adornments of the book are excellent. It is enriched with copious and valuable notes and indexes of authors, first lines, and subjects." — Commercial Advertiser.

BOURDALOUE AND LOUIS XIV. From the French of L. L. F. Bungener. 12mo. 1 50

This volume presents a phase of French life with which we have never met in any other work. The author is a minister of the Reformed Church in Geneva, where his work has been received with unexampled popularity, having already gone through fourteen editions. The writer has studied not only the divinity and general literature of the age of Louis XIV., but also the memories of that period, until he is able to reproduce a life-like picture of society at the court of the Grand Monarch. — Transcript.

BRAVE BOY (A). 18mo. 25
Bright stories with beautiful pictures.

BIRTHDAY PRESENT. By Mary Latham Clark. 18mo. Illustrated. 75
Embraces twenty distinct tales, each of which has a good moral — not at the end, but all the way through.

BOY'S HEAVEN. By Mrs. L. M. Child. 18mo. Illustrated. 75
Containing Martin Luther's explanation to his son, Hansigen, of a boy's heaven. It is full of beautiful thoughts and fancies, of pathos and poetry, of seriousness and sunshine.

BROTHER AND SISTER. 18mo. Illustrated. . 75
"Brother and Sister" exhibits the struggles, trials, and triumphs of an orphaned boy and girl, who battled bravely with hardship, kept their faith in God, and gained wisdom and strength through their trials. The little volume will do good.

BUNYAN'S HOLY WAR. 24mo. Muslin binding. 30

BLOOMFIELD. By Elizabeth Warren, author of "The Story of Martin Luther," &c. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50
An interesting story, exhibiting piety in its unobtrusive aspects, as "steady, calm, meditative, and trustful," and which does not overlook home work in its devotion to that abroad.

BYE-PATH MEADOW. By E. Paxton Hood, author of "Lamps, Pitchers, and Trumpets." 16mo. . 1 50
"Bye-Path Meadow" is a book having abundance of character. It holds an interesting story of English life, but its great merit is found in the wise counsels and faithful warnings to the young, by one who is at once sympathetic, earnest, and wise.

BETTER THAN GOLD. By Rev. J. D. Strong. 24mo. Illustrated. 30
The story of two little girls thrown out into the world to gain a living; one with the fear of God in her heart, the other with a love for show and gain. The contrast is well drawn.

BESSIE'S TRIALS AT BOARDING SCHOOL. By Nora Perry. 16mo. Illustrated. $1 25

CHRISTMAS MORNING, and other Stories. By Laurie Loring. 16mo. 30 full-page illustrations. 50

CONCERT (The), and other Stories. By Laurie Loring. 16mo. 30 full-page illustrations. 50

Large-print stories for little folks.

CHARLEY LAUREL. By W. H. G. Kingston. Large 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25
While this is one of the most intensely interesting and graphic stories of sea life, it enforces the highest and most practical lessons.

CHAUTAUQUA GIRLS AT HOME (The). By Pansy. 12mo. Cloth. Illustrated. 1 50
This sequel to "Four Girls at Chautauqua," shows most interestingly; the "Four Girls" exemplifying religion in Christian life and work at home.

CINDERS: The fortune that Carl found in the Ashes, and other stories. By Madge Elliot and other Famous Writers. Illuminated cloth binding. Style entirely new. Large 16mo. 40

CLASSICS OF BABYLAND. By Mrs. Clara Doty Bates. Large 4to. Illustrated. Chromo, board covers. 50
Mrs. Clara Doty Bates has "versified" some of the Classics of Babyland, as she calls "Silver Locks and the Bears," &c. Very competent artists have adorned the new versions with profuse and excellent pictures. And our enterprising publishers, D. Lothrop & Co., have put the whole into a nicely printed and prettily bound quarto, the very cover of which will make a child's eyes snap. The remarkably low price puts it easily within reach of a large class of buyers. — The Congregationalist.

CONFESSIONS OF AUGUSTINE (The). Edited with an introduction by Prof. Wm. T. Shedd. 12mo. Cloth. 1 50
A Devotional Book of rare excellence and power. "It is the life of God in the soul of a strong man, rushing and rippling with the freedom of the life of nature."

CHRISTMAS TIME (A). By Pansy. An illustrated Christmas Story. Bound in handsome paper

D. LOTHROP & CO.'S PUBLICATIONS.

EVENING REST. By L. L. ($1000 Prize Series. Large 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50

One of the most original stories in Sabbath School literature. It opens a new vein, and works it with singular success. The characters are novel in conception, and reveal a rare insight in the author, while curious incident and natural dialogue open a succession of surprises to the reader, and keep his interest at high tension. A more beautiful picture of a country pastor leading his flock by force of character, or of a Christian family making religion natural and magnetic, it would be difficult to find.

EVENINGS AT HOME; or, The Juvenile Budget Opened. 18mo. Illustrated. 75

ESOP'S FABLES. 18mo. Illustrated. 75

EASTERN MANNERS AND CUSTOMS. Profusely illustrated. 50

The great truths spoken by the minister, Echoed and Re-echoed by the people. Character, as affected by truth, vividly and delightfully portrayed.

FIRESIDE ANGEL. By T. S. Arthur. 18mo. Illustrated. 75

"The Fireside Angel and other stories, a volume of two hundred pages, by T. S. Arthur, is one of the most charming little books we have seen. The stories take hold of the heart, and leave an excellent moral impression.

FAITHFUL PROMISER (The). By Mrs. J. R. Macduff. 18mo. 50

FOX'S BOOK OF MARTYRS. 32mo edition complete. Illustrated. 25

True heroes were the Martyrs for the Truth. Their sad but splendid memories will ever be cherished with interest and profit by the young and the old.

FALL OF JERUSALEM (The). 18mo. Thirty-four illustrations. 50

One of the most thrilling episodes in the history of the world, the siege and destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans, is, in this volume, very interestingly portrayed for youthful readers.

FAIR PLAY and other Stories. By Rev. J. D. Strong. 24mo. Illustrated. 30

Exhibits the selfishness of Andy, who always wanted his own way, to the annoyance of his playfellows, but by the good example of his friend Joe, is led to see his error.

FLOWER BY THE PRISON. (New $500 Prize Series.) 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25

A book of rare merit. The chief characters are most clearly drawn, the moral and religious lessons conveyed by the story are of the best sort, and they impress themselves strongly upon the mind and heart of the reader as he follows along the course of the story.

FROM NIGHT TO LIGHT. A beautiful and thrilling story of Bible times. 16mo. Illustrated. . . . 1 25

Reverent in spirit, and attractive in style; presents vivid pictures of oriental life, and happily reproduces for modern readers one of the most significant portions of Jewish history.

D. LOTHROP & CO.'S PUBLICATIONS.

FINISHED OR NOT. By the author of "Fabrics." 12mo. Illustrated. 1 50

FAITHFUL, BUT NOT FAMOUS. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25

The scenes and incidents are laid in France during the days of the Protestant persecutions, which culminated in the massacre of St. Bartholomew. It is not easy to write about a dreadful crime, and still to make some of its actors and sufferers take part in a simple narrative of domestic life. But this the author, who may be credited with at least two previous successes, "Soldier Fritz" and "Maggie's Message," has done, and done well.

FERN GLEN; or, Lilian's Prayer. By M. H. Holt. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25

Lilian was what she prayed to be, "A good gift in her uncle's home."

FANNY'S BIBLE TEXT. 16mo. Illustrated. . . 75

Shows how much the truth, counsels, and promises of the Bible are worth, even to the young, who study and treasure them up, and apply them in daily life.

GRANDPA'S DARLINGS. By Pansy. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25

Many a "darling" will be delighted with this charming and instructive book. It is not only a true story from life, but the names given of the real "darlings" are their real names.

GOSPEL LIFE OF JESUS (The). By L. A. Davis. 16mo. 1 25

The fruit of study and labor, carried on with great enthusiasm and fidelity, and the work is well done. — H. LINCOLN, D. D.

GOOD FIGHT (A); or, George Dana Boardman and the Burman Mission. By Rev. A. King. With an Introductory Essay by W. R. Williams, D.D. New edition. Large 16mo. 1 25

One of the brightest luminaries of Burmah. He fell gloriously at the head of his troops — in the arms of victory, — thirty-eight wild Karens having been brought into the camp of King Jesus since the beginning of the year. Disabled by wounds, he was obliged, through the whole of the last expedition, to be carried on a litter; but his presence was a host, and the Holy Spirit accompanied his dying whispers with almighty influence. — Rev. Dr. Judson.

GLAD TIDINGS; or, The Gospel of Peace. A Series of Daily Meditations for Christian Disciples. By Rev. W. K. Tweedie, D. D. With an elegant Illustrated Title-page. Large 16mo. 1 25

It is remarkable for condensation, for a deep evangelical tone, and for putting itself into direct contact with the conscience and the heart.—Alb'y Argus.

GEORGE CLIFFORD'S LOSS AND GAIN. By the author of "Stories and Pictures from Church History." A splendid book for boys. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 00

It most impressively illustrates the important truth that religion is the first and chief concern, that to seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness brings the hundred fold in this life, and that strict integrity and fidelity in all the lesser matters of secular life ultimately shall receive their reward.

GARLAND OF POETRY AND PROSE (The). A companion volume to "The Treasury of Literature and Art." Quarto. Elegantly illustrated 4 50

A delightful volume, tasteful, elegant, and refined. Extracts to suit all tastes, "from grave to gay, from lively to severe."

GOLDEN LINES. ($1000 Prize Series.) Large 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50

It is the journal of a minister's wife, abounding in living incident, and remarkable for truthfulness to life and Christian experience. To any one who loves the Lord Jesus, and wishes to be more like him, this will prove a book of rare interest.

GRACE AVERY'S INFLUENCE. By Mrs. A. K. Dunning. ($1000 Prize Series.) 16mo. Illustrated. . 1 50

It is written with a high aim, and with skill and taste. It follows the career of a young girl, developing a very lovely and sterling Christian character, gaining great victories for herself, and making her fidelity a power to lift many worldly souls about her to a better and truer position. It strongly impresses the always-needed lesson that Christian fidelity, tempered by a loving spirit, is a victorious force wherever it acts. It is a book that will strongly call the reader to a style of life that has both nobility and beauty in it.

GLIMPSES THROUGH. By the author of "Katharine's Experience." ($1000 Prize Series.) Large 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50

With noble views of sickness, death, and the future world, it is tender and comforting, and rich in literary and religious allusions and quotations.

GOLDEN GEMS. From various authors. Compiled by Maria G. Bradley. 12mo. 1 25

A collection of gems in a beautiful casket. Certain it is that it is a work which one cannot open without finding many things that strengthen, please, and comfort.

GRANDMA CROSBY'S HOUSEHOLD. By Ella Farman, author of "Anna Maylie," &c. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 00

The pictures of Western life are pleasing, and the moral, that one of the best ways of getting good is by doing good to others, is instructive. Every reader will enjoy the vigorous life of "The Sunday School in the Woods," and many other scenes.

GOOD WORK. By Mary Dwinell Chellis. 16mo. 1 50

It is a story of earnest and very successful struggles against many obstacles; of Christian self-denial and brave personal services in behalf of the unhappy; of sin and its sad consequences; and of heavenly charity and forgiveness.

HOURS OF CHRISTIAN DEVOTION. 16mo.
By Dr. A. Tholuck. Tinted paper, extra binding. 2 00
Bevelled boards, gilt sides. 1 50
Plain English cloth. 1 00

Rev. Horatius Bonar, D. D., says: "This new volume of Dr. Tholuck will prove that there is no necessity for being flat and monotonous in a work of devotion, and that even in this region there can be found richness of thought and beauty of expression, that tell us we are in the society of a poet, and a thinker, and a critic, as well as of a man of God, and that make us hesitate whether to designate these 'Hours of Devotion' a series of fine expositions, or an assemblage of lofty meditations, or a succession of noble hymns."

HESTER'S HAPPY SUMMER. (New $500 Prize Series.) By Mary E. Atkinson. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25

It is rare to find a story of such sweetness and beauty. The pathos is tender and all pervading, and steals into the heart with a refining power. The tone of the book is most healthy, making the world seem a better place to live in, because good people are found where least expected, and happiness is found in any station by unselfish lives. The influence of religion on different natures, and its ennobling power on all, are finely drawn.

HINTS FOR LIVING. By Rev. O. A. Kingsbury. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25

A book of plain talks and wise counsels to the young, by a man who understands both them and the living world which they inhabit.

It is a very elegant volume, and a reprint from one of the very best issues of the London Religious Tract Society, and will be found most admirably fitted to interest the young, to suggest the high ends of life, and stir the better purposes of the soul.

MRS. THORNE'S GUESTS; or, Salt with Savor and without. By Archie Fell. 16mo. Illustrated. . . 1 50

Showing the power of a consistent Christian example in a circle of young ladies.

MARK CHURCHILL. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25

Mark was a hero indeed, with a fixed purpose to do right. A noble example for boys to follow.

MAGGIE'S MESSAGE. A charming story. By the author of "Soldier Fritz." Illustrated. 75

MABEL LIVINGSTONE; or, Christward Led. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25

Mabel Livingstone is a book born of a high Christian purpose. It exalts every-day heroism, and makes a simple and active piety shine with the steady light of stars, and fructify like the summer sun. The heroine loses her Christian mother at an early age, and taking up the dropped mantle of the sainted woman, toils meekly and patiently on in the household till the younger children, and then the strong-minded father, take her guidance to Christ and salvation.

MY HERO. By Mrs. A. E. Porter, author of "This One Thing I Do." 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50

A good book. The contrast is drawn between a life that is seeking after wealth for its own sake, and a life rich in deeds of practical benevolence.

MYSTERY OF THE LODGE. By Mary Dwinell Chellis. 12mo. 1 50

Exhibits fine insight into character, and admirable common-sense views of religion.

MARBLE PREACHER. By Mrs. Henry Steele Clark. ($1000 Prize Series.) Large 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50

Ingenious, fresh, thoroughly Christian, and yet full of romance and thrilling interest.

MRS. DEANE'S WAY. By Faye Huntington. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25
The value and happiness of trusting in God happily exemplified.

MABEL'S FAITH. 16mo. Illustrated. 75
A practical story.

MOTHER'S BOYS AND GIRLS. By Pansy.
Quarto. Boards. 1 25
Cloth. 1 75
This is Pansy's latest Picture Story Book. It is one grade in advance of "Pansy's Picture Book" published last season. Its hundreds of pictures and stories are charming. No writer for children has a larger or more grateful audience than "Pansy."

MERRY MICE AND OTHER STORIES. 4to. Printed on heavy calendered paper. Large print. Full of fine Illustrations. In illuminated paper covers. . 25

D. LOTHROP & CO'S PUBLICATIONS.

MARGARET WORTHINGTON. By Katharine Provost. ($1000 Prize Series.) Large 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50
It is excellent. Its prominent feature is found in the account it gives of a young, intelligent, vivacious girl, manifesting a genuine and splendid girlhood, and a thoroughly human interest in the innocent pleasures and gayeties of life, a calm, intelligent, and earnest Christian purpose to make her life and influence tell favorably upon a cultivated and pleasant family, whose members truly love each other and admire her, but who seem to give her divine Master no place in home or heart. Her radiant piety, her rational but firm devotion to principle, and her fervent and trustful prayers, bring their reward.

MYTHS AND HEROES; or, The Childhood of the World. Edited by Rev. S. F. Smith, D. D. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50
It abounds in carefully collected information, showing the progressive steps of the human race, and the progress of the mind in attaining ideas of God, of His government, and of the nature and offices of religion. The book is richly worth the attention of intelligent readers, young and old.

MY MATES AND I. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 00
Forcibly exhibits the contrasted results of lives which are and those which are not animated by a Christian faith and purpose.

MARK WOODFORD'S PROMISE; or, A Boy's Obedience. 18mo. Illustrated. 60
A well told story for boys.

MILLIE LEE. By Mrs. A. E. Porter. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50
The heroine of the story enlists one's sympathies throughout. The incidents are so skilfully put that the reader is kept continually on the alert, and the moral is impressive.

MATTIE'S HOME, and Little Dot. 16mo. Illustrated. 75
A beautiful and a touching story.

MISS WEALTHY'S HOPE. By Mrs. C. E. K. Davis. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50

MODERN PROPHETS. Interesting and effective Temperance Stories for the Times. By Pansy, and Faye Huntington. 12mo. Illustrated. 1 50

Faithfulness and piety exemplified.

NOBODY CARES. By Crona Temple. 16mo. Illustrated. 60

A lively and instructive book, by the author of "Wavie the Foundling."

ONE YEAR OF MY LIFE. (New $500 Prize Series.) 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25

The form of a diary is not attractive to lovers of story books, but few can begin this journal without reading to the end. It introduces to the minister's family, and makes one perfectly at home there, as if looking on and mingling with its daily life. The author is a finished writer, with a large knowledge of books and of life, a keen insight into character, a quick sense of the ludicrous, and a style of rare purity and ease.

OLD FRIENDS. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 00

Interesting old stories, with new renderings and valuable moral lessons.

OLD OLD STORY (The). By Mary Latham Clark. A Question Book for Children. 15

OVERCOMING. By Mrs. E. K. Churchill. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25

It is written in an attractive style, and in a very effective way sets forth the struggles through which many young persons pass on to outward success and moral victory. The characters are skilfully drawn, and the whole influence of the book is such as will profit any sympathetic reader.

THE PERFECT MAN; or, Jesus an Example of Godly Life. By Rev. Harry Jones. 1 00
The Christian teaching of a noble, cultured nature has rarely, if ever, been put into such sweet, pure English as runs like a pebbly book through this timely volume. In every chapter there is a wealth of clearly-defined and heart-searching suggestions, put in a natural, direct, and manly way, which is as different from official and technical utterance as a meadow from an album of dried grasses. We hope that the little volume which treats so tenderly and wisely of Jesus as an example of godly life, will win, as it deserves, a large and grateful audience. — Christian Union.

SCHOOL LIFE. Tales and Pictures of School Life. 24mo. Illustrated. 30

SABRINA HACKET. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50
It is one of the freshest, cheeriest, oddest, tenderest, healthiest, sensiblest Sunday school books that we have seen for many a day. It describes school life as one ought to who knows all about it, and the girl or the boy who reads it will lay it down with wet eyelashes, and with new impulses to a better life. — N. Y. Independent.

SHINING HOURS. ($500 Prize Series.) 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50
Is a work of much quiet beauty and artistic merit. Hooffs, the blacksmith, and John Burt, the hunter, are characters from ordinary life, full of freshness, humor, and common sense.

SUSIE'S WATCH. 24mo. Illustrated. 30
Encourages to be up and doing, watching for Jesus, guarding against the entrance of sin into the heart. A simple story for children.

SUNNY SKIES; or, Adventures in Italy. By Barbara H. Channing. 16mo. Six Full-page Illustrations. 1 25
A most instructive and interesting book of travels for young people.

SYBIL'S WAY. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25
Sybil's Way is a book that, while underlain with a Christian purpose, overflows with animal spirits, as a soda bottle effervesces when it is shaken.

SHORT COMINGS AND LONG GOINGS. (New $500 Prize Series.) 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25
Full of sparkle and glow, and throbbing in every paragraph with intense life, it teaches the highest lessons of duty and religion with equal quietude and effect.

STARLIGHT STORIES. 18mo. Illustrated. . . 75
Comprising half a dozen very pleasant, instructive, and well written tales, painting its subjects as they are found in actual life, and teaching and impressing the best lessons. It is sure to be popular, as it deserves to be.

STRAWBERRY HILL. By the author of "Andy Luttrell." 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50
The story especially exalts the settled faith and the working beneficence of the gospel, making the possessor's life beautiful in itself, and the service redeeming to others. The characters are admirably drawn and developed.

SCHOOL DAYS OF BEULAH ROMNEY. By Julia A. Eastman. A companion volume to "The Romneys of Ridgemont." 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50

Is a book of superior excellence in plan, development, style, and moral; the characters are drawn to the life; it has scenes of intense power, both in passion and pathos; its religious tone is as healthy and as all-pervading as the sunlight.

STANIFORDS OF STANIFORD'S FOLLY (The). By Mrs. E. D. Kendall, author of "Judge's Son," "Master and Pupil," &c. 16mo. Illustrated. . . 1 50

Full of fine feeling and sound teaching. The incidents are interesting, and many of them extremely touching. It will be welcomed by a large class of readers, old and young. It is worthy of an honorable place in literature.

SISTER ELEANOR'S BROOD. By Mrs. S. B. Phelps. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50

This is a splendid story for the young people, and will be enjoyed by adults. Eleanor's brood consisted of nine children, and the strength of the story lies in the tact displayed on the part of the mother in protecting and sustaining her brood while having to share the adverse fortunes of her husband. There is enough incident to make the story fascinating, and at the same time it has a fascination in its purity of tone and high moral sentiment.

SURE; or, It Pays. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50

Is especially meant to show how hard-hearted avarice overreaches itself, and that injustice is doomed to exposure and retribution, while, sooner or later, truth, and honor, and generosity find a vindication and reward. The book is every way wholesome in tendency, and ministers naturally and strongly to what is highest in social morals and vital in religion.

STRIKING FOR THE RIGHT. (For which the unequalled premium of $1000 was given.) By Julia A. Eastman. Large 16mo. Illustrated. 1 75

Healthy in tone, rich in incident, abounding in humor, with characters drawn to the life, and with touches of truest pathos.

"A great favorite with the boys."

"Its special aim is to get justice and mercy exalted in the treatment of brutes, and beyond this it is a noble plea for a true domestic and moral training of the young."

Hon. George T. Angell writes: "It may do as much for our dumb servants and companions as 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' did for the slave. It is undoubtedly the best book of the kind in the world."

D. LOTHROP & CO.'S PUBLICATIONS.

SUSIE'S SPECTACLES. ($500 Prize Series.) 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25

The spectacles which it tells of are meant for the eyes of the mind instead of the body, and they help in discovering faults in one's self, and virtues in others, in making duty plain, and in showing how unlovely is selfishness, and how beautiful is a loving heart and a useful life. — The Advance.

The valuable information crowded into it is immense, and it is carefully selected, well arranged, and presented in an attractive way.

TRIED IN THE FIRE. 16mo. Illustrated. . . . 1 25

An excellent story, treating of struggles with sceptics and sceptical tendencies; the logic and instruction admirably infused into the narrative improve to the end.

TALBURY GIRLS (The). By the author of "Andy Luttrell." 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50

It is a very sweet story, with a large variety of characters well drawn and well sustained. The range of the story is broader than usual, with greater fulness of incident and insight into different spheres of life. The moral is not forced, but unfolds itself naturally and with great power.

THIS ONE THING I DO. By Mrs. A. E. Porter. 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50

A very superior book. Its literary merit is of a high order, the story itself is well told, and the moral it teaches healthy. The main lesson of the book is suggested by its title, and is clearly brought out and set home with force and effect.

TRIFLES. By Mrs. A. K. Dunning. (New $500 Prize Series.) 16mo. Illustrated. 1 25

"Trifles" is the brief but significant title of a book, written by one of our well-known and popular authors of juvenile literature. She has here, under the guise of a pleasant and interesting story, set forth the influence exerted upon character by what are often deemed little and unimportant things.

WILLIE GRAHAM. To which is added "AMONG THE MOUNTAINS." 18mo. Illustrated. 50

WADSWORTH BOYS (The). By D. S. Erickson. ($1000 Prize Series.) Large 16mo. Illustrated. . 1 50

The boys exhibit rare vigor and independence of character, and, through hard struggles and some mortifying experiences, reach positions of honor, trust, and usefulness, and do credit to the name which a noble father left them to guard and exalt. The sister, Agnes, who subordinated a strong literary ambition to domestic and moral claims, is a fine character, nobly and beautifully human. The book is not sensational, but thoughtful, pleasant, and wholesome, — truly exalting what is noble, and putting under ban whatever is mean, even though clothed with seeming respectability.

WALTER MACDONALD; or, Aunt Kitty's Legacy. By D. O. T. ($1000 Prize Series.) Large 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50

It traces the career of the principal personage from the time of his rescue from shipwreck, at an early age, till he settles down in London, to study for his chosen profession. Not a few strange and striking events are wrought into the narrative, and quite a variety of characters are grouped around the boy whose life unfolds so providentially. His home life at good Dr. Eaton's, the good fortune which came to him through the quaint and original woman known as Aunt Kitty, the plots of the Catholics to obtain possession of his supposed fortune, his abduction and escape from a Romish institution, — all these have a bit of the marvellous and romantic in them. But the motive underlying all is high and Christian.

WILL PHILLIPS. By C. H. R. Large 16mo. Illustrated. 1 50

A thoroughly good book, full of manly life and the highest good sense, with a fine development of a robust, genuine Christianity for boys. It has character, skill, literary art, and real magnetism.

FREEMAN'S "NORMAN CONQUEST."

THE HISTORY

OF THE

NORMAN CONQUEST OF ENGLAND,

ITS CAUSES AND RESULTS.

BY

EDWARD A. FREEMAN, M.A., Hon. D.C.L.,

LATE FELLOW OF TRINITY COLLEGE, OXFORD.

NEW AND CHEAPER EDITION, SPECIALLY REVISED BY THE AUTHOR FOR THE AMERICAN MARKET, WITH ALL THE MAPS AND PLANS.

VOLS. I.—V. 8vo. CLOTH, GILT TOPS. $20.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS:

Of this Work the London Saturday Review says:—

"It is no slight praise to say that in historical lists like these he has fairly borne down his competitors, that he has added interest to a story which Thierry has handled, and discovered materials for the illustration of the Conquest which had escaped the research of Palgrave. If it is impossible to make the story wholly novel he has at any rate given novelty to almost every part of it by his remarkable use of the details preserved in Domesday, and by his descriptive sketches of English towns, while the lack of military interest is atoned for by constitutional dissertations in which he stands immensely above his two predecessors."

The British Quarterly Review says:—

"Mr. Freeman's real greatness as an historian is shown in the patience with which he collects from all sources the slightest hints of the process, in the artistic skill with which he weaves them into a connected and intelligible narrative; and in the realistic power with which he fires the whole with human and historic interest. He has indeed in these details which make up the bulk of this volume (Vol. IV) achieved a feat of historical genius analogous to that of Homer's poetic genius in his catalogue of the ships. He narrates the events with so pure a perception of their plan and meaning, and so true and noble a conscience, that they are their own moral and lesson, and rarely fail to suggest both their causes and their consequences. A history in which vast and varied learning is combined with indomitable patience, scrupulous accuracy, great literary skill, a fine historical style, and a fire of eloquent enthusiasm; which abundantly justify our estimate of the first volume that it is by far the greatest history of our day."

The Athenæum says:—

"Extensive reading, unwearying industry, apt powers of condensation and critical discernment, leave their impress in happy combination upon its pages; forming altogether what is at once a most pleasing work and a singularly valuable contribution to the early history of England.

The London Spectator says:—

"We may look far before we find another possessing the wide knowledge, historical and antiquarian, and the passionate love of accuracy, which make the book before us, if not a perfect history, a perfect model of historical study."

NATURE,

A Weekly Illustrated Journal of Science.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION, $5. SINGLE NUMBERS OF CURRENT VOLUME, 12 CENTS.

Sent for Two Months as a Trial Subscription on receipt of 75 cents.

It is now nearly seven years since NATURE first appeared, and the Publishers only state the acknowledged truth when they say that it has become the accredited organ of the leading scientific men in both the Old and the New World.

No man can now lay claim to be considered intelligent and well-read, unless he knows something of the principles of Science, and keeps himself au courant with the most recent developments of scientific principles in the various Arts. The all-important part which is being gradually assigned to Science in Education, in the Arts of Manufactures, in Commerce, and in Social Economy, is evident to all; and there is no surer sign of a wide-spread regard for Science than the desire which exists among all classes of intelligent readers for scientific literature which is not beyond the range of those who can read and think.

One of the great aims of the Publishers of NATURE is to satisfy this laudable craving. This, however, is not accomplished by boiling down Science, or by offering to the public articles deprived of all that is characteristically scientific, but by avoiding the minute details of the separate sciences, and by expounding, in a popular and yet authentic manner, the GRAND RESULTS OF SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH, discussing the most recent scientific discoveries, and pointing out the bearing of Science upon civilization and progress, and its claims to a more general recognition, as well as to a higher place in the educational system of this country.

ORIGINAL ARTICLES on all subjects coming within the domain of Science are contributed by the most eminent scientific men belonging to all parts of the world.

REVIEWS, setting forth the nature and value of recent scientific works, are written for NATURE by men who are acknowledged masters in their particular departments.

The CORRESPONDENCE columns of NATURE, while forming a medium of scientific discussion and of intercommunication among the most distinguished men of Science, have become the recognised organ for announcing new discoveries and illustrations of scientific principles among observers of Nature all the world over—from Japan to San Francisco, from New Zealand to Iceland.

The SERIAL columns of NATURE contain the gist of the most important Papers that appear in the numerous Scientific Journals which are now published at home and abroad, in various languages; while longer ABSTRACTS are given of the more valuable Papers which appear in Foreign Journals.

THE PRINCIPAL SCIENTIFIC SOCIETIES and ACADEMIES of the world, British and Foreign, have their transactions regularly recorded in NATURE, the Editor being in correspondence, for this purpose, with representatives of Societies in all parts of the world.

NOTES from the most trustworthy sources appear each week, recording the latest gossip of the scientific world at home and abroad.

NATURE is, moreover, well calculated to be of great service to teachers in any way connected with Science, or who give a place, however small, to Science in their course of instruction. It will keep them informed of all that is most recent and valuable in Science, and enable them to add constant freshness and interest to their instruction.

NOTICE TO THE TRADE.

PHILADELPHIA, JULY, 1877.

Having purchased the copyrights and plates of the Publications of J. P. Skelly & Co., and made arrangements for the use of those of the Leighton Publication Company, I shall shortly issue new editions of the said works. They will be printed in manner creditable to the trade, and bound substantially, in good style. The illustrations are by artists of high merit. I think the trade will find these among the cheapest, neatest and most salable books in the market. They are adapted for Sunday-schools, general reading, and presentation purposes. Special attention will be given to promptness and exactness in filling all orders I may be favored with. I shall also add to my list new and desirable works, from time to time, for which I will be happy to receive standing orders, as they are issued.

EDWARD ARTHUR LITTON.

THE

CHURCH OF CHRIST,

IN

ITS IDEA, ATTRIBUTES and MINISTRY:

WITH A PARTICULAR REFERENCE TO THE CONTROVERSY ON THE SUBJECT BETWEEN ROMANISTS AND PROTESTANTS.

BY

EDWARD ARTHUR LITTON, M. A.,

PERPETUAL CURATE OF STOCKTON HEATH, CHESHIRE, AND LATE FELLOW OF ORIEL COLLEGE, OXFORD.

This Author has handled his subject in a masterly manner, and has evidently left nothing unsaid that could be dwelt upon.

Printed on fine white paper, handsomely bound in black cloth, 468 pp. octavo.

Price..... $1.50

THE BETTER COVENANT.

BY THE LATE

REV. FRANCIS GOODE, M.A.,

LECTURER AT CLAPHAM.

WITH A PREFACE BY THE LATE

REV. JAMES H. FOWLES,

RECTOR OF THE CHURCH OF THE EPIPHANY, PHILADELPHIA.

The author has made a thorough examination of the Covenant of Grace, as contained in the thirty-first chapter of the prophecy of Jeremiah, and quoted from thence into the eighth chapter of Paul's Epistle to the Hebrews.

"This Covenant of Grace, in other words, the GOSPEL COVENANT, is that dispensation of God under which we live, and by which alone God will deal with men in a way of favor, or bestow eternal life. It is the only ground of hope for a sinner, in his sight; and as such, we are called upon, in Scripture, to renounce every other dependence, to give up all hope of life from that legal dispensation, or covenant of works, under which we are by nature, and heartily to close with this BETTER COVENANT, that we may be saved according to the gracious tenor of it. It is, therefore, a matter of indispensable necessity to every man, that he be intimately acquainted with its proper character and provisions. A misapprehension of these, through willful neglect, or prejudice of a carnal and self-righteous spirit, must inevitably issue in the most tremendous consequences. And yet, it is to be feared, very many who live under the sound of the gospel are in gross darkness as to its real nature and value."

Printed on fine white paper, 312 pp., octavo.

Bound in black cloth, at the low price of..... $1.50.

REV. FREDERICK WHITFIELD.

This series of expositions of passages of Scripture, from the Old and New Testaments, form a valuable collection for use by the lay reader, the cottage visitor, or the child of God debarred by afflictive dispensation from participation in the service of the Sanctuary. They are comprehensive, learned and very pleasing in style; and uniform in size and type, neatly bound in cloth, with handsome gilt side stamp, and embellished with a steel portrait of the author. They are as follows:—

VOICES FROM THE VALLEY, TESTIFYING OF JESUS. 12mo, 256 pp. . . $1.00

TRUTH IN CHRIST. 12mo, 280 pp. . . 1.00

GLEANINGS FROM SCRIPTURE. 12mo, 242 pp. 1.00

COUNSELS AND KNOWLEDGE FROM THE WORDS OF TRUTH. 12mo, 208 pp. . 1.00

THE WORD UNVEILED. 12mo, 220 pp. . 1.00

SPIRITUAL UNFOLDINGS FROM THE WORD OF LIFE (in course of preparation).

Popular Juveniles.

ALLERTON HOMES.

A BOOK FOR BOYS.

By the Author of the "Silversmith of Jerusalem."

Illustrated. 16mo..... $1.00

The author inculcates the sacred duty of obedience to parents, showing, in the ease with which resolutions are formed and broken, the fruits of disobedience. She exhibits to us the current of human action flowing in both directions, to good and evil, and teaches us to realize the safety, pleasure, and blessedness of a Christian home.

AUTUMN LEAF STORIES.

By E. M. J.

Nine Illustrations. 18mo..... .60

This little work is handsomely illustrated, and contains nine interesting and instructive stories for children, each of which inculcates some important moral lesson. They are written in a very chaste and simple style, and well adapted to the purpose for which they are intended.—Reformed Church Messenger.

These autumn leaves are nine simple, touching, beautiful stories, teaching lessons of trust and duty. They will be prized by the young. The book will make an excellent addition to Sunday-school libraries.—Pittsburgh Christian Advocate.

BARBY'S SHUTTLE,

AND

WHAT IT WROUGHT.

BY

Mrs. MARY D. D. BOYD,

Author of "Stepping Stones over the Brook."

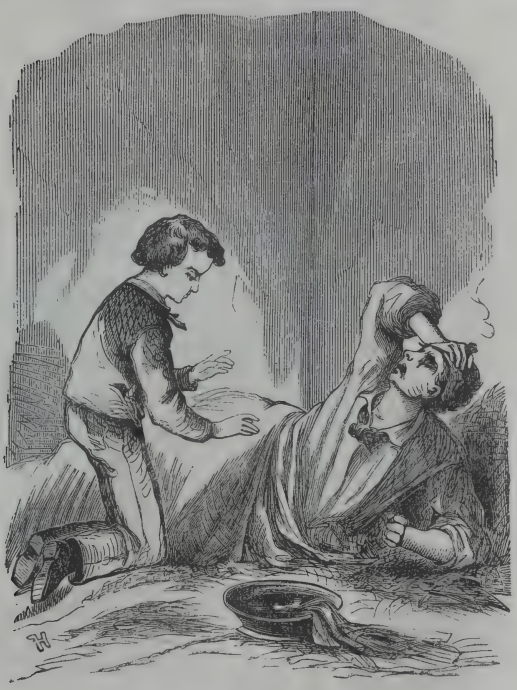
Illustrated. 18mo..... .75

A story of a brave girl, who, being left an orphan, took up her father's occupation, that of weaver, and by resolute industry maintained herself and three younger children. The story is well told, and teaches important lessons to the young. We recommend it as a good book for the Sunday-school and the family library.

BEGINNING.

By Miss L. BATES,

Author of "Two Ways."



Illustrated. 16mo..... $1.00

With what spirit a young man, gifted, ambitious, and self-reliant, should make a beginning in life, is a question whose solution is furnished in this book. The writer handles, with remarkable ability and beauty of expression, the subject of affliction and its uses, and though the name of her book is suggested by the character and circumstances of Clark Earle, her work will commend itself to female readers. The entertainment to which she invites us is a rare one.

BERTIE AND HIS FRIENDS;

OR,

PILGRIM LIFE ON THE BATTERY.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .90

"Bertie and his Friends" is a touching story, beautifully told. The opening character is a prose poem of no mean rank. The spirit of the book, throughout, is commendable. The author (a lady) has concealed her name. She need not be ashamed to let it appear.

Bertie is one of the trophies of the Mission School effort. The book is written expressly for Sunday-school libraries, and is well adapted to the purpose.—Presbyterian.

BREAKERS AHEAD;

OR,

LARRY DALTON.

By HARRIET B. McKEEVER,

Author of "Edith's Ministry," "Woodcliff Children," etc.

Illustrated. 16mo..... $1.00

An excellent book for boys, especially at the critical period when they begin to feel themselves their own masters, and need a steady hand at the helm. The popular author, whose books have enriched so many families and Sabbath-school libraries, has given us an interesting story of a young man, at first pure and virtuous, but whose city associates became to him the "Breakers Ahead," amid which his craft nearly suffered shipwreck.

CHOLULA;

OR,

THE YOUNG MEXICAN.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .80

The material for this work is gathered from the period which witnessed the conquest of Mexico, by the Spaniards under Cortez, over three centuries ago. It details some of the first fruits of Christianity amongst the natives, as brought about through the instrumentality of some of the followers of Cortez, who faithfully acted out the principles of Christianity. The work is full of interest, and incorporates a number of important facts connected with the history of that eventful period.

DAINTY MAURICE;

OR,

LOST IN THE WOODS.

By RENA RAY,

Author of "Little Jackie," etc.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .45

The evils of the form of self-indulgence suggested by the title are here set forth in a strong light. Maurice is a boy brought up delicately, but cured through the adventures of a visit to his Aunt Poor. The style is simple, and homely characters are introduced; yet the story is told with such heartiness and natural power, that children, having once commenced its perusal, will not be satisfied till they have finished it.

ELEANOR'S LESSONS.

BY

Miss SARAH G. CONNELL,

Author of "Hidden Treasure of Elenwood," etc.

Illustrated. 16mo..... $1.00

The main purpose of this interesting story is to teach the lesson of charitable judgment of the motives and actions of others. By erring in this respect Eleanor covers herself with confusion, and brings herself and others into serious troubles. "Judge not, that ye be not judged," is the text of the story.—Sunday-school Times.

FARMER BURT'S SEED.

A TRUE STORY.

BY

Mrs. E. E. BOYD.

Author of "Jack Bryson," etc.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .80

This book is written for the young folks, and in a style that shows that the authoress knows how to interest them, and how to benefit them. She weaves in her story a beauty of practical life, and adorns it with the lesson of virtuous living, so that no boy or girl can read it without receiving impressions that must do good.

FLOSSY LEE.

BY

FAITH WYNNE.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .80

This book is a gleam of sunshine from beginning to end. It recounts, in language adapted to the minds of the youngest readers, the varied experiences of children in a visit to their western cousins. The charms of life in the country, and the novel yet natural incidents as here portrayed, will leave a very pleasant impression upon the mind of the reader.

This work will take rank among the few juveniles whose merit consists in their meeting exactly the tastes of the young.—Toledo Blade.

FLOSSY LEE AT THE MOUNTAINS.

BY

FAITH WYNNE.

Author of "Flossy Lee," etc.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .80

All who have read "Flossy Lee" will wish to become acquainted with "Flossy Lee at the Mountains." This work is written in the same happy vein as the former, depicting the fun, adventures, mistakes and experiences of real children, every chapter presenting something new and interesting, if not unexpected.

HELEN FREEMAN;

OR,

THE RIGHT PATH.

BY

By L. A. F.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .80

This is a highly interesting narrative, inculcating very important lessons. It illustrates the great power for good exerted by a consistent life of piety in the midst of all circumstances. The work well deserves a place in every well-selected Sunday-school library.—Reformed Church Messenger.

IN EARNEST;

OR,

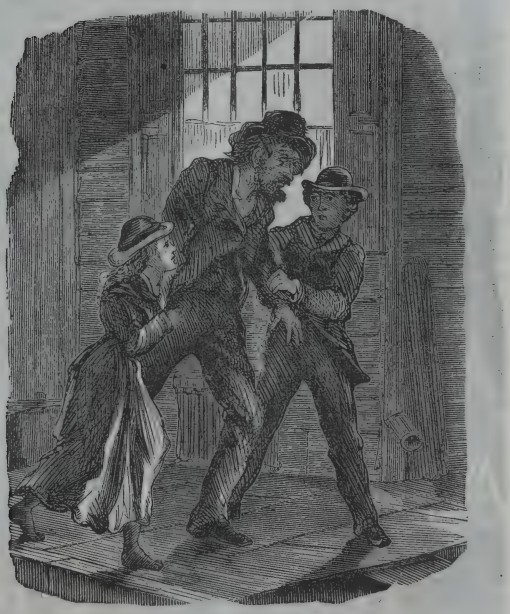
EDITH PALMER'S MOTTO.

BY

FAYE HUNTINGTON,

Author of "Through Patience," etc.

Illustrated. 16mo..... 90



Many counsels and life-lessons are condensed in this entertaining narrative. The writer thoroughly understands girl nature, and without moralizing, has produced a book that will have a good moral effect, showing beautifully and naturally the work of grace in the heart.

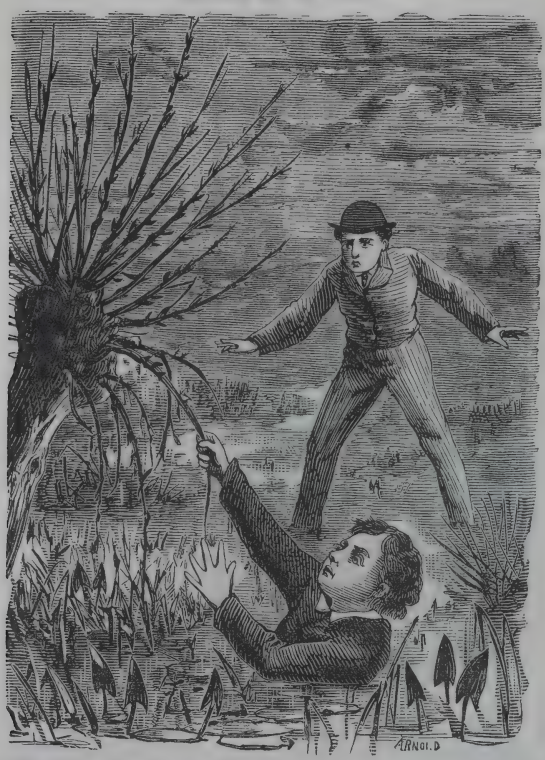
JACK BRYSON.

BY

Mrs. E. E. BOYD,

Author of "Paul Loring," etc.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .80



This is what may be called a temperance story. It illustrates the evils which result from the use of intoxicating liquors as a common beverage; and, at the same time, sets forth the importance of early adopting correct principles for the government of our conduct, and especially the inseparable connection of a personal interest in Christ with our true welfare, both for time and eternity. The book will both interest and profitably instruct the young.—Reformed Church Messenger.

JOHN HARTMAN.

BY

Mrs. MARGARET HOSMER,

Author of "Juliet the Heiress," etc.

Illustrated. 16mo..... $1.00

A most safe and instructive book for the family library. The situations in which John Hartman is placed are novel, yet natural. Gentle, frank, faithful and industrious, an orphan, with few friends, surrounded by people of all classes and descriptions, he holds fast to his integrity; living in the fear of God, and aiming to do good, he not only reaches a position of comfort, but has the pleasure of seeing, in the effect of his influence, some happy results.

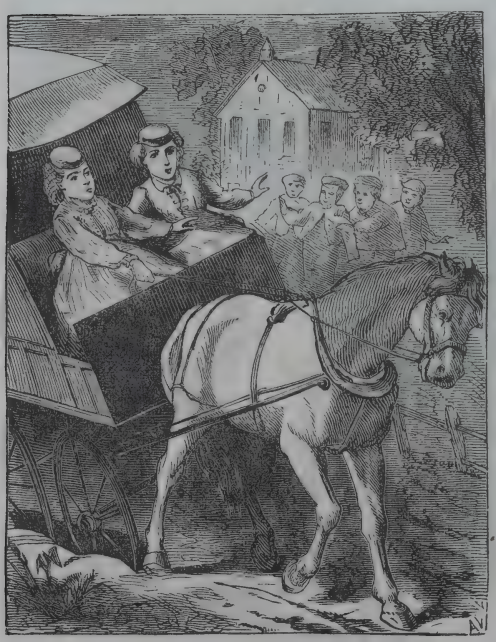
JULIET THE HEIRESS.

BY

Mrs. MARGARET HOSMER.

Author of "Three Times Lost," etc.

Illustrated. 18mo..... 80



The story of a young girl, who, in tracing out the home of a beggar, to whom she had given alms, is led into scenes of poverty and suffering. Administering aid and comfort, she receives in return some lessons of love and piety, which reclaim her from the aimless and irreligious life she was leading, and she becomes a true Christian. The story is naturally told, and displays considerable incident.

KITTY FARNHAM'S LETTERS.

BY

FAYE HUNTINGTON,

Author of "In Earnest," etc.

Illustrated ..... .75

This is one of the best books lately issued. Faye Huntington is an author who seeks no napkin in which to fold her talent for writing a truly religious juvenile; and what is more, Kitty Farnham's correspondence has the lustre of the pure gold that pleases while it enriches.

These are a series of letters, not merely to a child, but from a child. This is a happy thought, and it enables the writer to put much good instruction in a simple, natural and attractive form.

LILY'S LOOKING GLASSES.

BY

Mrs. E. E. BOYD,

Author of "The Little Slate Picker," etc.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .45

This is an excellent story for girls, teaching especially the folly and evil of being vain.

The experience of Lily on two occasions, proved that she won more happiness by charity and consideration for others than from selfishness. The story is good, and carries its lessons with it.—Religious Herald.

LITTLE JACKIE;

OR,

THE ROSE TREE.

BY

RENA RAY,

Author of "Dainty Maurice," etc.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .45

This is just such a story as young children like; its pathetic descriptions and moral tone being adapted to render it popular. The orphan Jackie, true to the counsels and memory of his deceased parents, comes forth at last, from his great privations and hardships, through the intervention of a kind Providence.

MARY MORNE AND HER FRIEND,

OR,

THE TWO PATHS.

BY

Mrs. E. E. BOYD,

Author of "Lily's Looking Glasses," etc.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .75

It is the story of two girls, showing many of the unhappy peculiarities of nature, and the moulding and controlling power of the Bible, in its influence upon the health and the life.

NOTHING BUT LEAVES.

BY

HARRIET B. McKEEVER,

Author of "Edith's Ministry," "Woodcliff," etc.

Illustrated. 16mo..... 1.00

"Nothing but Leaves" is a book strictly religious in character, pointing out the difference between a mistaken zeal in religion, which, burning brightly at first, dies away to nothing but ashes, and the true spirit of piety which is content to walk humbly in the path of duty, and which remains constant through all temptation and trials.

PATTY BAILEY;

OR,

WHO KNOWS BEST.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .80

Patty Bailey, is instructive and interesting. Every parent may gladly welcome to his home the little volume, and no Sunday-school should be without it.

The story is well told, has excellent religious and moral teaching, and deserves a place in the Sunday-school library.—Sunday-school Times.

PAUL LORING;

OR,

MOUNTING THE LADDER.

BY

Mrs. E. E. BOYD,

Author of "Mary Morne," etc.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .80

The story which follows the fortunes of Paul's associates as well as his own, is well designed to illustrate the maxims, "Godliness is profitable for all things," and "Honesty is the best policy." Advanced from post to post in usefulness and honor, Paul is seen mounting the ladder step by step; despising whatever is low, and holding to the scriptures as his guide, his course is

"Onward and upward, and true to the line."

PHIL. GRANGER'S TRIUMPH.

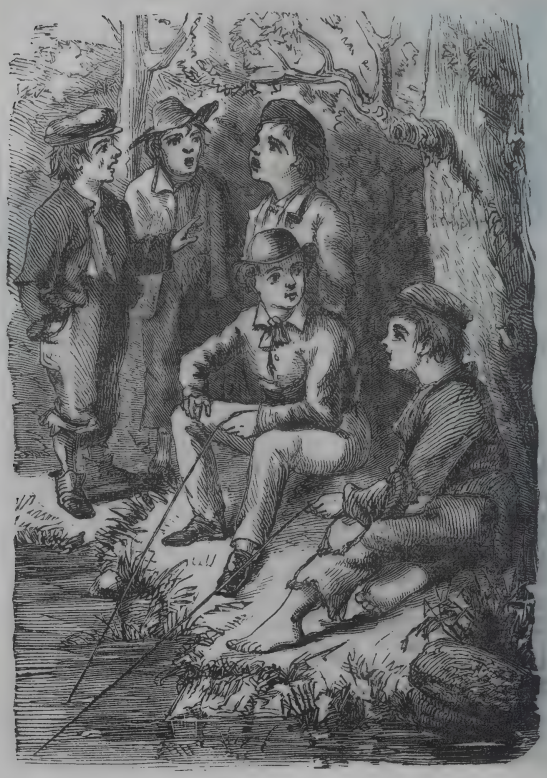
BY

GEORGE S. KAINE.

Illustrated. 16mo..... $1.00

This is an excellent book, containing lessons of instruction presented in a form which cannot fail to interest, and being drawn from scenes in real should make a deep and salutary impression on every reader.

RUPERT LAWRENCE,



OR,

A BOY IN EARNEST.

BY

HARRIET B. McKEEVER,

Author of "Breakers Ahead," etc.

Illustrated. 16mo..... $1.25

In this book the story is so cheerfully told that its chapters form a series of life pictures which well sustain the reputation of the author, who is an artist in her line.

STEPPING STONES OVER THE BROOK.

BY

Mrs. MARY D. R. BOYD.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .80

This is an exceedingly good book. The stepping stones are faith, charity, patience, and love, and by placing her foot firmly on these as the Everlasting Rock, in the midst of troubled waters, the heroine of this good story was made the means of saving her family when they were plunged in the mire of intemperance and degradation.

Another book for girls. Effie was an orphan, and had many of the sad experiences of orphans. But she early learned to love her Heavenly Father, and to put her trust in him. The book shows the tenderness of that Friend in providing "stepping stones" over the many difficulties she encountered in her upward struggles. The lesson of the book should be, "Have faith in God."—National Baptist.

SUNSHINE;

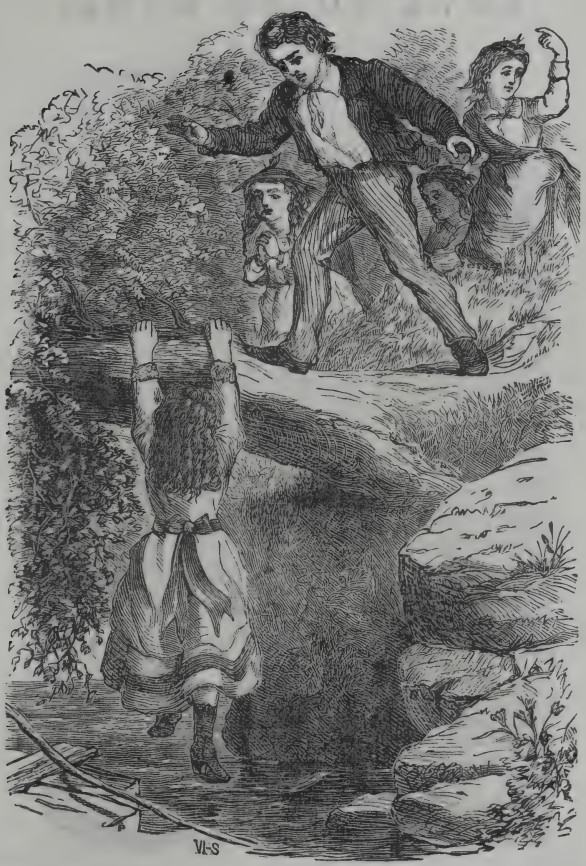
OR,

KATE VINTON.

BY

HARRIET B. McKEEVER,

Author of "Woodcliffe," etc.



Illustrated. 16mo..... $1.25

The design of this volume is to illustrate, by the peculiarly happy and joyous character of the heroine of the story, who is constantly surrounded by a bright and cheerful atmosphere, the superiority of true religion as a means of happiness, over the selfishness and glitter of worldly pleasure.

SWORDS AND SHIELDS.

By Miss Emily Connell.

Illustrated. 16mo..... $1.00

This excellent book is from the pen of one who knows how to write for children, and at the same time how to interest older readers. Though the plot of the story turns upon a quarrel of long standing between two branches of a family, there is no dark shadow upon the course of the narrative; on the contrary, every chapter bears a most cheerful complexion, with abundant and sparkling incidents.

TABITHA TODD;

OR,

LOVE TO DO GOOD.

BY

RENA RAY,

Author of "Dainty Maurice," etc.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .45

Tabitha is likely to be a favorite with children, for whom it is especially written. And the interest of this touching story will never wear out. Tabitha is a deformed and homely little girl, who, amid her sorrows, finds true happiness in learning to be useful

THE BUILDERS.

BY

Miss L. BATES,

Author of "Beginning," etc.

Illustrated. 16mo..... $1.25

In a narrative such as may be met with in every-day life, the author has grouped together individuals and families, about whom an affectionate interest is speedily elicited in the minds of the readers. In the sacrifices and labors of love of such characters as Mrs. Fairfax, Dennis, Pearl and Carl Steadman, we are led not only to see, but to feel, that "life is earnest," and that in unwearied efforts in well doing we reap abundantly. The book shows how the good are "builders," and how they are themselves built up, holy and beautiful temples for the Master's use.

The Cabin in the Brush.

BY

Mrs. J. McNAIR WRIGHT.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .80

The scene of this story is laid in Southwestern Missouri, and the neighboring part of Arkansas, during the late war. It tells of wrong, and suffering, and ignorance, and degradation, such as may well awaken the shame and the alarm of every American patriot. It recounts the story of a woman and her children, whose husband joined the army, and who at home was exposed to the terrible cruelty of desperadoes, but whose sufferings opened the way for her to learn of Christ, and to find greater comforts than her own hut contained. —National Baptist.

THE

LITTLE SLATE PICKER,

AND OTHER STORIES.

By Mrs. E. E. BOYD,

Author of "Mary Morne," etc.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .50

This admirably written work contains three lively, pleasant, and interesting stories, founded on fact, that will entertain and enlighten the young folks.

Three good stories, teaching various practical lessons in simple and interesting narratives. The author has a talent for useful writing to children.—Sunday-school Times.

THE THREE RULES.

BY

Mrs. MARY D. R. BOYD,

Author of "Stepping Stones Over the Brook," etc.

IRON RULE. RULE OF SELF. GOLDEN RULE.

Illustrated. 16mo..... $1.00

This is a perfect gem of a book, showing the characters and the writings of the three most influential and common rules of living in the world, and concludes with a most beautiful picture, in all its bearings, of the best of all rules, the GOLDEN RULE:—"All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them." Words that might well be written in gold, and that direct to the very sum and substance of all happiness in the intercourse of life.

THE Village School Choir.

From the German.

By ANNA B. COOK.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .50 cents

A lively description of truthful scenes and incidents in Germany, which, for their novelty and moral effect, are not often surpassed in books of this class. The religious lessons, especially at the close, where the hand of Providence is strikingly seen in the punishment of a wicked man, will prove salutary to the young.

This is a charming story of village life in Germany, presenting characters of social life and of religious thought, which make it fresh to American readers, and distinguish it from the mass of Sunday-school books.—Albany Argus.

THE Washerwoman's Daughter.

From the German.

By ANNA B. COOKE.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .50

German home life, and particularly German low life, is full of beautiful pictures of filial affection and maternal devotion. This little volume portrays in a graphic style the characteristics of German low life, in a story full of touching incidents and exquisite thought.

By this little story youth are shown the value and importance of natural love for their parents. Nothing can replace it, nothing can equal it. The want of it is a sure cause of present misery and future punishment. The youngest is made to understand that love is the charm that makes every yoke easy and every burden of requirement light. The publishers deserve praise for bringing out this good book.—Episcopalian.

THREE TIMES LOST;

OR

PATTY NORRIS.

BY

Mrs. MARGARET HOSMER,

Author of "John Hartman," etc

Illustrated. 18mo..... .80 cents.

Patty Norris is a little girl, whose infirmity is a seemingly incurable tendency to lose her way. Living in the city of New York, she is twice lost amid the thoroughfares of the great metropolis; and after her removal to California, she is lost once or twice. With these incidents other events are skillfully and profitably interwoven; and the Christian reader sees, with satisfaction, how Patty, having discovered that she is as one lost spiritually, is found again, in being born to a new and holy life, and gathered by the Good Shepherd into his own fold.

Through Patience.

BY

FAYE HUNTINGTON,

Author of "In Earnest," etc.

Illustrated. 18mo..... .80

"Through Patience," is a story sermon, from the text, "Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience," and the authoress sticks to her text through troubles, trials, failures, changes, conflicts, shadows, night. She leads the young, in thought, to the perfect day of the precious Christian grace, lifting the soul towards God.

TWO WAYS OF DOING IT.

BY

MISS L. BATES,

Author of "The Builders," etc.

Illustrated. 16mo..... $1.00

This work bears upon what has been called the question of the age, woman's work in society and the Church. With much tact and beauty of illustration, it deals with such questions as: What may woman do for her sex and for humanity? Is further legislation needed to qualify her for her position? Where does her path lie as a reformer and a benefactor? Every lady should read it

WOODCLIFF CHILDREN.

BY

HARRIET B. McKEEVER,

Author of "Sunshine," etc

Illustrated. 16mo..... $1.00

There is a freshness and vigor in the style of "The Woodcliff Children," and an originality in the characters, which must commend it to all classes of readers.

EDITH'S MINISTRY.

BY

HARRIET B. McKEEVER,

Author of "Sunshine," etc.

12mo, cloth..... $1.50

Miss McKeever is one of the best, as well as one of the most approved writers in this department of literature. This volume contains many thoughts and suggestions which may be turned to good account in the early culture of children. It is a good book for the family—for the old and young. It depicts, in truthful colors, a character purified and elevated by such trials as are witnessed in many families, illustrated in the self-denying and useful labors of a single woman, and corrects the weak and unworthy prejudice which regards her position in life as less honorable or useful than that of the wife and mother. It also teaches that such a life has a rich reward in the approval of an enlightened conscience, and in the favor of God.—Christian Observer.

Much of the unhappiness that mars the features, and leaves its impress upon the character, thus perpetuating the fallacy that this is a "world of care and sorrow," is due to the misapprehension of the mission God has appointed us to fulfill. The heroine of this story, though denied the enjoyment of those natural ties which sweeten the stream of life, realized that she had a "ministry" to perform, in seeking the happiness, soothing the sorrow, and guiding the wayward footsteps of those with whom she mingled in the daily walks of life. The lesson of "Edith's Ministry" is a much needed one, in these days of neglected opportunities, and it is so pleasantly clothed in the incidents of the story that it must prove agreeable and profitable to readers of all ages. In no department will it be more useful than in the Sunday-school library.

WOODCLIFF.

BY

HARRIET B. McKEEVER,

Author of "Edith's Ministry," etc.

12mo, cloth..... $1.50

"Woodcliff" represents the transition stage from adult to juvenile literature. It is a well-drawn story of the adventures of a Scottish boy in New England. It is deeply moral and religious in its tone, and almost equally well adapted to old and young readers. Its simplicity brings it within the reach of the latter, while its beautiful spirit will commend it to the favor of the former. Miss McKeever is one of our best female authors and deserves to be more widely known.

The hero, a Scotch boy, taken from the humbler walks of life, is a type of that struggling class that thrive best in our country. By his moral and intellectual worth, sustained by an unfaltering trust in God, he rises, step by step, triumphing over every difficulty, until he attains a commanding position among his fellow men.

The power of personal influence is illustrated by the acts of his daily life, moulding a peculiarly untutored child, of noble impulses, and guiding her aspirations after the good and true.

Roland Bruce and Madeline, or Madcap Hamilton, as she is sometimes familiarly called, the hero and heroine of the story, give a freshness and vigor to it, which, with the high moral inculcated, commend it to the favorable attention of all classes of readers.

THE CHILDREN'S SPEAKER

AND

ANNIVERSARY GEM.

BY

Mrs. E. E. BOYD and Miss EMMA M. JOHNSTON.

Price..... .60

It is pure in its tone and spirit, and yet sparkling and racy. We can warmly commend it to those interested in getting up exhibitions, as worthy of their attention.—Christian Intelligencer.

Sunday-school superintendents and teachers have here a long felt and frequently expressed want fully met. A considerable variety is furnished, from which something can be selected, adapted to almost any existing occasion.—Ref. Church Messenger.

OF PHILADELPHIA.

594 pages, square 12mo, beautifully bound in cloth, with gilt side stamp.

With gilt edges..... 2.50

It is impossible to say too much in praise of this valuable work. The well-known character of the authors drawn upon needs no commendation. The language is such that the youngest child (capable of reading) can readily understand, and the Bible characters are portrayed in such a manner as to rivet the attention of every one fortunate enough to have a copy of the "Bible for the Young."

"A useful, attractive, well-written book, true to the spirit of the Divine Word, and so interesting that the young take to reading it of their own choice.—Rev. DANIEL MARCH, D.D., Author of Night Scenes in the Bible," etc.

"After careful examination, it gives me pleasure to commend this work. It is a book which cannot be too largely circulated.—Rev. J. WHEATON SMITH, D.D., Beth Eden Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

"The plan is unique, and has been carried out with so much care and pains-taking accuracy, that not only the young, but parents and teachers will find it a help in Bible study.—Chicago Advance.

PRAYER AT HOME;

OR,

SHORT FAMILY PRAYERS

FOR EVERY

MORNING AND EVENING

IN THE WEEK.

To which is added a collection of Hymns suitable for all occasions of worship in the family.

With a Preface by REV. DANIEL S. MILLER.

12mo, cloth $1.00

This brief Manual of Prayer at Home, now offered to those among us who love to serve the God of the family around the family hearth at morning and evening, has been long valued and used among those of the like spirit, in the distant land where, under a different title and with a somewhat different aspect, it originated.

BURGOYNE'S CAMPAIGN,

AND THE

EXPEDITION OF LIEUTENANT COLONEL BARRY ST. LEGER,

By WILLIAM L. STONE.

12mo, portraits and engravings, cloth, $2.25.

It is only within a comparatively short period that the historian has been enabled to write of this event with clearness and accuracy. While authentic materials on the American side are abundant, loose and hurried reports of prisoners taken at the time, and the biased testimony of interested parties have formed, in a large measure, the basis for a narration of the strategic movements of the English and German Troops. Fortunately, these impediments are now removed. Works made up of some sixty manuscripts, journals, and orderly books, written during the Revolution by Brunswick and Hessian officers, who served here during that time, throw a flood of light upon the period of our national history to which they refer, and especially upon the campaign of General Burgoyne; and while the evidence there presented dissipates in a great measure, the halo which remoteness has thrown around the great generals of that period — blinding us to their deficiencies — yet the errors that have hiterto obtained concerning that campaign are of such a serious nature, as to justify an attempt to place before American readers the plain truth in relation to an event, which in its results was the most important of any in our Revolutionary annals. Sent by mail on receipt of $2.25. Ready 10th August.

ARNOLD'S CAMPAIGN AGAINST QUEBEC,

ACCOUNT OF THE HARDSHIPS AND SUFFERINGS OF THE BAND OF HEROES THAT ACCOMPANIED ARNOLD THROUGH THE WILDERNESS OF MAINE AND CANADA, IN THE AUTUMN OF 1775, FOR THE REDUCTION OF THE CITY OF QUEBEC.

By JOHN JOSEPH HENRY.

New edition, 12mo, xiv, 198 pages, cloth, $2.

Of the numerous Journals of this remarkable enterprise that of Judge Henry is the most interesting and circumstantial, detailing the events of the March from Cambridge, Mass., up the Kennebec and through the wilderness to the border of Canada; thence down the Chaudière, to the St. Lawrence; the endurance by hunger and fatigue at an inclement season; the siege and disaster before Quebec; and the imprisonment and sufferings of the captives during seven months, to the time of their liberation and return to their homes; one of the most noticeable episodes of the revolution, which has excited wonder and admiration, by the fortitude of the adventurers, demanding, as Judge Henry remarks, the pen of a Xenophon to do it justice. Enlarged with notes, and new memoir of Judge Henry. Sent by mail postage prepaid, on receipt of price, $2.

THE SEXAGENARY,

OR REMINISCENCES OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

By S. DE WITT BLOODGOOD.

8vo, p. 234, portraits, cloth, $3,

Relating to events which occurred in the vicinity of Albany and on the Mohawk, and to the First New York or Van Schaick's regiment, a very entertaining book of the escapes and vicissitudes of that period of strife and danger.

MEMOIR OF

LIEUT. COL. TENCH TILGHMAN,

SECRETARY AND AID TO WASHINGTON, TOGETHER WITH AN APPENDIX CONTAINING REVOLUTIONARY JOURNALS AND LETTERS, HITHERTO UNPUBLISHED.

Sup. Royal 8vo. p. 176, portrait, paper uncut, $2.

"Memoirs of the most worthy citizens are the best wealth of the state. That people is poor indeed, that has never possessed such treasures; but poorer still that having had, has lost them." Col. Tilghman was the confidential aid and Secretary of Washington throughout the war, and after its close became the partner of Robert Morris. Col. Tilghman was also Secretary of the Indian Commissioners appointed by Congress to treat with the six Nations at German Flats, in 1775, and his Journals of the treaty, as well as his Journals of the Siege of Yorktown, in which he participated, are published as an appendix to the memoir.

Mr. Marshall, whose printed diary was called a Remembrancer, was by birthright a member of the Society of Friends, being of an old Pennsylvania family. His sympathy with the cause of America led to his exclusion from that religious body. These pages exhibit his zeal and activity among the Whigs of his native state, and his prominence among them. They extend throughout the period of the revolutionary contest, embracing all public occurrences. Full confidence may be placed on all that Mr. Marshall mentions as coming within his own knowledge, his truth and honor having come down to us unsullied. As an important adjunct to any historical work, it is mentioned that a good index accompanies the book. It will be sent by mail, carefully wrapped and post-paid, on the receipt of $2.

JOURNAL OF CLAUDE BLANCHARD,

COMMISSARY OF THE FRENCH AUXILIARY ARMY, SENT TO THE UNITED STATES IN THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, 1780–1783.

Edited by WILLIAM DUANE.

Small 4to, p. xvi, 207, paper, uncut, $2.

The author of this Journal was employed as Chief Commissary with the troops which M. de Rochambeau led to the assistance of the Americans in the Revolutionary Contest, and kept a daily record of the events which came under his own observation. His diary, which has so long remained unpublished, is found to add materially to our previous knowledge of the movements and affairs of our allies in that war.

LIFE OF JOSEPH BRANT,

(THAYENDANEGEA) INCLUDING THE BORDER WARS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

BY WM. L. STONE.

2 vols. 8vo, portraits, cloth, $5.

This was the most noted work of the elder Stone, containing also sketches of the Indian Campaigns of Harmer, St. Clair, and Wayne; and other matters connected with the Indian Relations of the United States and Great Britian, from the Peace of 1783, to the Indian Peace of 1795, and is the last and only edition of the work having an index; also has three portraits of the Brants, a portrait of Gen. Ganse-voort, and a plan of Fort Schuyler.

THE SIEGE OF SAVANNAH,

BY THE COMBINED AMERICAN AND FRENCH FORCES, UNDER THE COMMAND OF GEN. LINCOLN AND THE COUNT D'ESTAING, IN THE AUTUMN OF 1779; WITH INTRODUCTION, NOTES AND INDEX.

By Dr. FRANKLIN B. HOUGH.

Square 8vo, p. 187, portrait, cloth, $3.

This work embraces the accounts that were published in Rivington's Royal Gazette upon the subject of the unsuccessful attempt of the American and French Forces to capture the city of Savannah, with such other Documents as more fully present the undertaking in all its bearings and under every point of view. The unfortunate issue of that effort to recover possession of the Capital of Georgia, has left a gloomy page in our Revolutionary History, not only from its failure as a Military Movement, but from the melancholy casualty that deprived our army of one of its most talented leaders, the Polish general, Count Pulaski.

THE SIEGE OF CHARLESTON

Also from the same source, and uniform with it in every respect. 224 p., 2 portraits, $3.

SIEGE OF SAVANNAH,

IN 1779, AS DESCRIBED IN TWO CONTEMPORANEOUS JOURNALS OF FRENCH OFFICERS IN THE FLEET OF COUNT D'ESTAING.

Folio, p. 77, folding map, cloth, $4.

Edited with historical and explanatory notes by Col. Charles C. Jones Jr., from a manuscript in the library of Hon. J. Carson Brevoort, 25 copies furnished with an index.

REVOLUTIONARY OPERATIONS

IN EASTERN MAINE AND NOVA SCOTIA.

By FREDERIC KIDDER.

8 vo, p. 336, map, cloth, $2,

A volume of hitherto unpublished papers, consisting partly of the Journal and Letters of Col. John Allan, who had command of the Indian Department of Eastern Maine. Although his services were of the highest value to the government, and the Indians were, through his activity and influence secured to the American cause, yet little or nothing seems to have been known of the operator in that quarter, his papers having escaped the knowledge of previous historians. The writers on the history of Maine have had but a feeble apprehension of the stirring events enacted at Michias, and in the region between the Penobscot and the St. Johns during the war, now here first developed.

LIFE AND TIMES OF GENERAL JOHN LAMB,

AN OFFICER OF THE REVOLUTION, AND HIS CORRESPONDENCE.

By ISAAC Q. LEAKE.

8vo. p. x, 431, portrait and maps, cloth, $2.

A valuable contribution to the history of the Revolution, derived principally from the papers of Gen. Lamb, and other sources not before investigated, illustrated by plans of battle fields. Gen Lamb commanded the post at West Point at the time of Arnold's defection, and this work consists largely of correspondence with Washington, Clinton, and other distinguished men of the time.

MEMOIRS OF MADAME RIEDESEL,

RELATING TO THE WAR OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE AND THE CAPTURE OF THE GERMAN TROOPS AT SARATOGA, 1777.

Translated By WILLIAM L. STONE,

8vo, p. 235, portrait, cloth, $3.

The translation of the Letters and Journals of Madame Riedesel made 1827, being unsatisfactory and incomplete, a new and corrected edition is here given. A portrait of the authoress taken at the time of her marriage, together with additional notes and comments, give fresh interest to this interesting and attractive work.

LIFE AND JOURNALS OF MAJ. GEN. RIEDESEL,

DURING THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, RELATING PRINCIPALLY TO THE CAMPAIGN IN NORTHERN NEW YORK.

Translated By WM. L. STONE.

2 vols. 8vo, portrait, cloth, $5.

This work is made up chiefly of Riedesel's military and personal journals during his residence in America, and of numerous letters from Washington, Gates, Heath, Burgoyne, members of the Continental congress, and other Revolutionary characters, which are now for the first time published in English. The work relates principally to the Campaign in Northern New York, and the captivity of the German troops in New England and Virginia. It throws new light on many points of Revolutionary history, and is replete with original and curious descriptions of the character, manners, etc., of the American Colonies at that time, which being the observations of so distinguished an individual are of great interest.

HISTORY OF THE

FIRST NEW HAMPSHIRE REGIMENT,

IN THE WAR OF THE REVOLUTION.

By FREDERIC KIDDER.

8vo. p. viii, 184, cloth, $1.50.

This regiment was commanded at different times, by Stark, Cilley, Scammell, and Dearborn, and was in service throughout the war. A roll of officers and privates is given, with lists of enlistments and discharges, a journal of its marches and events, and other important facts, constituting it a valuable regimental record—the only one that has been undertaken of New Hampshire forces. It mentions more than a thousand persons, whose descendants are now widely scattered over the whole country.

County and Town History.

HISTORY OF ESSEX COUNTY,

NEW YORK, AND MILITARY ANNALS OF TICONDEROGA AND CROWN POINT; AN ACCOUNT OF THE SERVICES OF THE TROOPS IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION, A GENERAL SURVEY OF ITS PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY, ITS MINES AND MINERALS, AND INDUSTRIAL PURSUITS.

By WINSLOW C. WATSON.

8vo, 504 pages, plates, cloth, $3.

This work presents a full and connected history of the Military Events which illustrated Ticonderoga and Crown Point, and the operations of which these fortresses formed the base, in the Indian, Colonial and Revolutionary Wars, and the partisan exploits of Rogers, Putnam and Marin; a Civil History of the County; a description of the Mountains, Forests, Waters, Natural Curiosities: a Natural History of the County, especially of the discovery, development and present condition of its Mines and Minerals, and of its Manufacturing Interests, and an account of the Northern Wilderness.

HISTORY

OF THE

TOWNS OF BRISTOL AND BREMEN,

IN THE STATE OF MAINE, INCLUDING THE ANCIENT ENGLISH SETTLEMENT OF PEMAQUID.

By Prof. JOHN JOHNSTON.

8vo, p. viii, 524, maps, portraits, &c., $3.50.

The work embraces the History of Monhegan, and some of the other Islands in that region. No place on the coast of New England, excepting old Plymouth itself, possesses so much historic interest as attaches to the territory of these towns, because of the important events which early occurred there, and because also of certain questions which have been raised in regard to its relations, at certain points, with the Plymouth settlement. No suggestions are needed in regard to the important topics discussed in the work, on the very early appearance there of the white people, and their early friendly intercourse with the natives, and subsequent wars: the building, capture and destruction of several forts erected there on the same spot; the history of the place under the Duke of York; a history of the conflicting land titles, and their final settlement after the beginning of the present century. Brief biographical sketches of very many of the early settlers are also given.

ANNALS OF ALBANY,

By J. MUNSELL,

10 vols. 12mo, portraits and plates, cloth, $20.

Embraces the ancient and modern history of the City, 1609—1859, biographical, statistical and chronological; with numerous maps, portraits and plates.

COLLECTIONS ON THE HISTORY OF ALBANY,

FROM ITS DISCOVERY, WITH NOTICES OF ITS PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS, AND BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES OF CITIZENS DECEASED.

By J. MUNSELL,

4 vols, sup, roy. 8vo, illustrated, cloth, $30.

These are a continuation of the Annals of Albany, to 1871. The 4th vol. contains besides an extension of the Records, Statistics and Chronology of Events, the Baptisms and Marriages recorded in the Dutch church, arranged alphabetically by families, and embraces nearly every family from 1639 to 1800, also a street directory, showing the location of first settlers and transfers of lots from about 1650, onward, compiled by Prof. J. PEARSON; a work of great labor and research.

RANDOM RECOLLECTIONS OF ALBANY,

1800 TO 1808.

By GORHAM A. WORTH.

8vo, p. 144, portraits and plates, cloth, $3.

Amusing Reminiscences of the characters and manners of the time, with notes and illustrations, historical and biographical.

MEMOIRS OF AN AMERICAN LADY,

WITH SKETCHES OF MANNERS AND SCENERY IN AMERICA, AS THEY EXISTED PREVIOUS TO THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION; ALSO A MEMOIR OF THE AUTHOR, MRS. ANNE GRANT, BY GEN. JAMES GRANT WILSON, AND BIOGRAPHICAL AND ILLUSTRATIVE NOTES.

8vo, 376 pages, portraits, &c., cloth, $3.

A charming picture of New York colonial life more than a century ago. It is not a romance nor a tale partly founded on reality, but an authentic record of facts — a record greatly admired by Francis Jeffrey, Robert Southey, Sir Walter Scott, and other great heirs of fame, one of whom praised the description of the breaking up of the ice in the upper Hudson "as quite Homeric." A genuine picture of our ancestors prior to the changes made by the Revolution, and which suggested The Dutchman's Fireside. The scene is laid in Albany, in the time of the last French and Indian war, and the conquest of Canada by the English, the operations for which were so immediately carried on from that city.

EARLY RECORDS

OF THE

CITY AND COUNTY OF ALBANY,

AND COLONY OF RENSSELAERSWYCK, TRANSLATED FROM THE ORIGINAL DUTCH, WITH NOTES.

By JONATHAN PEARSON,

sup. roy. 8vo, 528 p., $8.

These papers relate to all sorts of transactions in the city and vicinity of Albany; sales and transfers of property, real and personal; showing the prices of commodities, and exhibiting the manners and customs of the times; enumerating the names of the officers and citizens during the period embraced in this portion of the records, in many cases mentioning the places they emigrated from in Holland; to which notes are appended relating to the personal history of such citizens, and the streets in which they resided; and other facts of interest from 1656 to 1675.

HISTORY OF COHOES, N. Y,

FROM ITS EARLIEST SETTLEMENT TO THE PRESENT TIME.

By A. H. MASTEN.

8vo, p. viii, 327, plate, cloth, $3.

The Cohoes Falls have been an object of interest to tourists for more than two hundred years, but it is only within fifty years that its extensive water power began to attract the attention of manufacturers. Its history as a manufacturing town is of recent date. yet it now has a population of about 10,000. This is a very complete history of its progress from a hamlet to a city.

REMINISCENCES OF TROY, N. Y.

FROM ITS SETTLEMENT IN 1790 TO 1807; WITH REMARKS ON ITS COMMERCE, ENTERPRISE, IMPROVEMENTS, STATE OF POLITICAL PARTIES, AND SKETCHES OF INDIVIDUAL CHARACTER.

By JOHN WOODWORTH.

Square 8vo, p. iv, 112, cloth, $2.

Has a map of the plot of the 497 acres purchased in 1720, now the city of Troy, and a genealogy of the descendants of Derrick Vanderheyden, the original purchaser; also notes, explanatory, historical and biographical.

HISTORY OF THE CITY OF BROOKLYN.

INCLUDING THE OLD TOWN AND VILLAGE OF BROOKLYN; THE TOWN OF BUSHWICK; AND THE VILLAGE AND CITY OF WILLIAMSBURGH.

By HENRY R. STILES.

3 vols., royal 8vo, portraits, &c., cloth, gilt, $10.

This is the most complete of all the American town or city histories. The first volume comprises the history of the town and village of Brooklyn, from 1636 to 1816; the second and third volumes continue the history to the time of publication, together with the town of Bushwick and city of Williamsburgh, all now comprising the present consolidated city of Brooklyn, It is illustrated with views, plans, maps, and portraits.

HISTORY OF THE

TOWN OF NORTHFIELD, MASS.,

FOR 150 YEARS, WITH AN ACCOUNT OF THE INDIAN OCCUPATION, AND WITH FAMILY GENEALOGIES.

By TEMPLE & SHELDON.

636 pages, 8vo, cloth, $8.

The field of these researches is to a great extent new ground. No full and connected account has been published of the events which transpired in this part of the Connecticut Valley during King Philip's War, or the subsequent struggles with the savages up to the close of the War of 1722-26. The histories of the two subsequent French and Indian Wars, are more full, but are defective in dates and details of local skirmishes. Scarcely nothing has been known of the antecedent Indian Occupation; nor of the first attempts made by the whites to gain a foot-hold here. The work will soon be unattainable.

HISTORY OF VERMONT,

FROM ITS DISCOVERY TO ITS ADMISSION INTO THE UNION IN 1791.

By HON. HILAND HALL.

8vo, pp. xii, 552, with map, cloth, $4.

An exhaustive work on that interesting portion of the history of Vermont, relating to the severe struggle which it carried on with the government of New York for the maintenance of its title; a controversy which raised the Allens, the Warrens, the Bakers, and others to distinction, by the determined resistance which they interposed to the machinations of speculators who sought to rob the early settlers of their homesteads. The purpose of the author is to treat more fully than has yet been done by any writer, of the discovery, exploration and settlement of Vermont; of the obstacles encountered in organizing a new state government, and in establishing and maintaining its independence.

HISTORY

OF THE

TOWN OF QUEENSBURY, N. Y.

By A. W. HOLDEN, M. D.

8vo, 519 pages, cloth, portraits and plates, $5.

This is an elaborate and carefully prepared history of one of the earliest settlements between Albany and Montreal, to which the author devoted many years of investigation. The introduction consists of a resumé of the Indian Tribes and Aboriginal occupancy of the region about Lake George and the Upper Hudson, together with a very complete Indian Vocabulary of localities in Northern New York, The Historic Narrative comprises a minute detail of the affairs connected with the French War, so far as they relate to the vicinity in question. An account is given of the early settlement of the town, and the noteworthy events connected therewith. Also, a detailed sketch of the Dellius, Kayaderosseras and Queensbury patents, and some account of other land grants in the neighborhood. A complete Civil List constitutes a prominent feature of the book. Biographical Sketches of its leading citizens, clergy, lawyers and business men, and a full history of four of its principal Religious Bodies. These subjects are richly illustrated with steel portraits and other engravings, mostly executed specially for the work.

THE FOUNDERS OF MARYLAND.

AS PORTRAYED IN MANUSCRIPTS, PROVINCIAL RECORDS, AND EARLY DOCUMENTS.

By REV. EDWARD D. NEILL, A. B.

8vo, 193 pages, cloth, $2.

The object of this work is to record facts gleaned from the Manuscript Provincial Records at the Capital of Maryland, and other Documents, of the Provincial Period; to revive a memory of events, which had become obscured or forgotten concerning the first European Settlers on the shores of the Potomac River and Chesapeake Bay; consisting of an account of Henry Fleet; his Journals; William Clayborne; Embarcation of Lord Baltimore's Colony; Leonard Calvert, Governor; Thomas Cornwallis, Commissioner; Jerome Hawley, Commissioner; Early Religious History; Condition of Religion during the Cromwellian Era; Religious Parties from the Accession of Charles II, A. D. 1700.

American Genealogy.

THE AMERICAN GENEALOGIST,

BEING A CATALOGUE OF FAMILY HISTORIES AND PUBLICATIONS CONTAINING GENEALOGICAL INFORMATION ISSUED IN THE UNITED STATES, ARRANGED CHRONOLOGICALLY.

By WILLIAM H. WHITMORE, A. M.

Third edition, 8vo, p. 339, portrait, cloth, $3.

Every title noticed in former editions has been examined anew, and revised, and the work continued down to 1875; forming an indispensable guide to all persons engaged in genealogical pursuits. The notices of the books whose titles are given have been prepared with special reference to the wants of persons interested only in individual works. A synopsis of the contents of each genealogy is given so that the reader may judge of the extent of the book and its value to him. The additions have been numerous and important.

BIBLIOGRAPHIA GENEALOGICA AMERICANA.

AN ALPHABETICAL INDEX TO AMERICAN GENEALOGIES AND PEDIGREES, CONTAINED IN STATE, COUNTY AND TOWN HISTORIES, PRINTED GENEALOGIES, AND KINDRED WORKS, TO 1868 [COMPANION VOLUME OF THE ABOVE].

By D. S. DURRIE.

8vo, p. xii, 296, cloth, $3.

From these two books the reader is enabled to learn what has been printed in relation to families therein named in the United States prior to the date of this publication.

GENEALOGY OF THE JANES FAMILY.

By Rev. FREDERIC JANES.

1 vol. 8vo, p. 400, cloth, $3.

The progenitor of this family was William Janes, who came over with Davenport, and was one of the original settlers of New Haven; afterwards of Northampton and Northfield. There is an extended notice of Bishop Edmund S. Janes, and briefer notices of others of the family. Interwoven with the genealogical facts, are many historical sketches of the Connecticut river valley, and particularly of Northfield. It will be found an exceedingly curious and interesting work, fully indexed.

GENEALOGIES OF THE FIRST SETTLERS

OF THE

ANCIENT COUNTY OF ALBANY,

From 1630 to 1800.

By Prof. JONATHAN PEARSON.

1 vol., 4to, cloth, top gilt, 182 pages, $5.

This work is the result of many years research, and contains the names and short biographical sketches, grouped by families, of all the Early Settlers and their Descendants, of the ancient County of Albany, which embraced the territory on both sides of Hudson's river, from Katskill to Schaghticoke, including Kinderhook and Schenectady. The facts are gathered from the Records of the cities of Albany and Schenectady, and of the Dutch Churches, also of Wills, Deeds, Family Pedigrees, and various other Authentic Documents; and being made entirely from original sources never before published, mainly translated out of the ancient Dutch of the first hundred years of the province, are quite full and reliable. The great familiarity of the author with the names and history of the early settlers, derived from long and patient research among the records, has enabled him to produce a remarkably full account of the generations of people that have fulfilled their destinies in this region during the two hundred and fifty years since its settlement

THE

WETMORE FAMILY OF AMERICA,

AND COLLATERAL BRANCHES, WITH HISTORICAL, BIOGRAPHICAL AND GENEALOGICAL NOTICES.

By JAMES CARNAHAN WETMORE.

Royal 8vo, 680 pages, cloth, $4.

A memorial of Thomas Wetmore, the founder of the family in America, 1635 — settled at Wethersfield, Conn., 1639 -- one of the founders of Middletown, in 1649-50, the whole a genealogical record of more than six hundred families, or three thousand individuals either descendants of his, or intimately connected with his by marriage.

It contains also, biographical and genealogical notices of collateral branches of Backus, Badger, Barber, Benton, Bigelow, Binney, Bliss, Boerum, Booth, Brewster (Elder Wm.), Butler, Chetwood, Cheesbrough, Christopher, Cotton, (Rev. John), Craft, Dibblee, Edwards (Rev. Timothy and Pres. Jonathan), Ehle, Ellsworth, Goodrich, Flewelling, Haight, Hobbs, Hopkins, Hunt, Hunter, Huntington, Johnson, Jervis, Kirkland (Rev. Samuel), Lamson, Lee, Livingston, Metcalf, Merrit, Peters, Prime, Phillips, Puddington, Rainsford, Rathbone, Shepard (Gen. Wm.), Sherwood, Spooner, Standish, (Capt. Miles), Stoddard, Story (Judge Joseph), Stoughton, Treadwell (Governor), Waldo (Gen.) Warner, Walker, Willard, Williams, White, Whittlesey, Whitmore (John of Stamford 1649), &c,, &c., &c., and indexes over 5,000 names.

THE FAIRFAXES OF ENGLAND AND AMERICA

IN THE 17TH AND 18TH CENTURIES,

INCLUDING LETTERS FROM OR TO HON. WILLIAM FAIRFAX, PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL OF VIRGINIA; AND HIS SONS COL. GEORGE WILLIAM FAIRFAX AND REV. BRYAN EIGHTH LORD FAIRFAX, THE NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS OF GEORGE WASHINGTON.

By Rev. EDWARD D. NEILL,

8vo, 234 p., cloth, $3.

This correspondence now for the first time published, and forming an additional contribution to Virginia Colonial History, of unusual interest, accompanied by illustrative and explanatory notes by the editor.

THE HISTORY OF THE

DESCENDANTS OF ELDER JOHN STRONG,

OF NORTHAMPTON, MASS.,

By BENJAMIN WOODBRIDGE DWIGHT,

2 vols, 8vo, 1648 pages, cloth, portraits, $12.

Elder John Strong, the founder of the Strong Family in this country, had 18 children, and all but two of them by Joanna Ford, his second wife. Of these 18 children, 15 had families, and several of them nearly as large as his own. The ground traversed is therefore immense. The results obtained are of the most satisfactory kind. The edition is very nearly out of print.

DAWSON FAMILY RECORDS,

AND OTHER MEMORANDA OF FAMILIES AND INDIVIDUALS BEARING THE NAME DAWSON, OR ALLIED TO FAMILIES OF THAT NAME.

By CHARLES C. DAWSON.

8vo. p. viii, 572, portraits, $6.

The work contains an original essay on the origin, signification and history of the family name; copious notes in regard to the earliest representatives of the name in the various colonies and states; and the records of a large number of families, descendants of different American ancestors, settled in various parts of New England, New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, North and South Carolina, Georgia and elsewhere in the United States, and now represented in all parts of the Union. There are, throughout the work, many interesting contributions to local history. Numerous branches of the families in female lines, and very considerable records of familes of other names are to be found in this work.

Indian History.

DODDRIDGE'S NOTES

ON THE

Indian Wars of Western Pennsylvania and Virginia.

Edited By ALFRED WILLIAMS.

12mo, p., 331, cloth, $2.

Doddridge's Notes on the Settlement and Indian Wars of Western Virginia and Pennsylvania; together with a View of the State of Society and Manners of the First Settlers of the Western Country, with a Memoir of the Author by his Daughter. The Original edition, published in 1824, has long been out of print. The work is one of rare value as an original authority for many historical facts, and as containing graphic and truthful representations of pioneer life. The author, the late Rev. Dr. Doddridge, of West Virginia, was reared up to manhood among the early settlers of the west, was a strict observer of their manners and customs, and took much interest in gathering up incidents illustrative of the character of the people, and in recording many historical facts which he heard from the lips of the actors in the trying scenes of pioneer life. These circumstances, taken in connection with the facts that Dr. Doddridge was a man of learning and sound judgment, render his notes a historical work of great value. The book will be sent by mail, postpaid, immediately on the receipt of $2.

THE INDIAN MISCELLANY.

Edited by W. W. BEACH.

8vo, 490 pages, cloth, $4.

This volume is printed in a broad octavo in good style, and contains interesting papers on the History, Antiquities, Arts, Languages, Religions, Traditions and Superstitions of the American Indians; with Descriptions of their Domestic Life, Manners, Customs, Usages, Traits, Amusements, Exploits, Governments, Institutions, Wars, Councils, Treaties, Manufactures, Inventions and Fabrics; also Sketches of Travel and Exploration, in the Indian country; Notes on the Early Settlements; Incidents of Border Warfare; Journals of Military Expeditions; Narratives of Captivity; Ancedotes of Pioneer Adventure; Missionary Relations; Vocabularies, etc. The object of this work is to preserve, in convenient form, valuable fugitive articles concerning the aborigines of America, which have appeared from time to time in reviews, magazines, newspapers, pamphlets, and other ephemera, liable to be lost, or so remotely dispersed as to be difficult of access to the student of this branch of American history.

THE

INDIAN TRIBES OF HUDSON'S RIVER,

EMBRACING ANALYTICALLY AND GENERALLY THE CHIEFTAINCIES IN OCCUPATION OF LONG ISLAND, ROCKLAND, ORANGE, ULSTER, GREENE, MANHATTAN ISLAND, WESTCHESTER, PUTNAM, DUTCHESS, COLUMBIA, AND ALBANY COUNTIES, ETC., THEIR ORIGIN, MANNERS AND CUSTOMS: TRADITIONS; TRIBAL AND SUB-TRIBAL ORGANIZATIONS; POLITICAL RELATIONS; WARS; AND FINAL DISPLACEMENT.

By E. M. RUTTENBER.

1 vol., 8vo, 412 pages, cloth, $3.

The author has treated the subject both analytically and generally; embracing the national, tribal and local divisions of the Mahicans, the Delawares, and the Iroquois; their condition and the political position at the time of the discovery, and consequently, their Wars and Treaties with the Dutch, their Wars and Treaties under the English; their actions in the War of the Revolution; the whole based on the hypotheses that their history has never been written correctly; that historians have based their theories and facts upon the condition of the tribes as they were found a century and a half after the discovery. The work also contains Biographical Sketches, Remarks upon Language, Geographical Nomenclature, Traditions, &c. — forming a complete treatise upon the Indians that inhabited the vicinity of Hudson's River at the time of its discovery in 1609, and until they were supplanted.

LIFE AND TIMES OF

SIR WILLIAM JOHNSON, BART.

SUPERINTENDENT OF INDIAN AFFAIRS, RESIDING AMONG THE IROQUOIS DURING THE MIDDLE OF THE LAST CENTURY.

By WILLIAM L. STONE.

2 vols. 8vo, portraits, cloth, $5.

This work, which fills an important link in American History, and which was delayed by the death of the late William L. Stone, has been completed by his son; and with the lives of BRANT, and RED JACKET, by the same author, brings down the history of the Six Nations, and their relations with the British Government and its Colonies, from 1534 to 1824. The materials from which the work has been derived, are principally the original papers furnished by the family of Sir William, among which is his very extensive manuscript diary, that has never before been consulted.

FIVE YEARS FRENCH AND INDIAN WAR

IN NEW ENGLAND AND PARTS ADJACENT, FROM ITS DECLARATION BY THE KING OF FRANCE, 1744, TO THE TREATY WITH THE EASTERN INDIANS, 1749, SOMETIMES CALLED GOV. SHIRLEY'S WAR, WITH A MEMOIR OF SHIRLEY.

By SAMUEL G. DRAKE.

Sq. 8vo, 312 p., portrait, cloth, $4.

"Undertaken specially to place upon its pages as many of the names of those who participated in the war, as well as those who suffered by its ravages, as those who bore arms in it."—Preface.

LOGAN AND CRESAP,

AN HISTORICAL ESSAY,

By BRANTZ MAYER.

8vo, 204 p., cloth, $2.

A vindication of Capt. Michael Cresap against the charge by Thomas Jefferson, of murdering the family of Logan, which though refuted in the last century is still often repeated, in order to introduce the maudlin speech of Logan, which not only was never uttered, but had no truth in its charge against Cresap.

Indians of Connecticut, History of, from the Earliest known Period to 1850 [map of Indian localities, portrait of Samson Occum, and plates.] By JOHN W. DE FOREST. 8vo, pp. xxv, 500, cloth, $2.50.

Red Jacket. The Life and Times of Sagoyewatha, or Red Jacket, by WM. L. STONE, with portrait, and Memoir of the Author by his son, [2 steel portraits and other engravings.] 8vo, pp. 508, cl., $3.

THE POETRY AND HISTORY OF WYOMING,

CONTAINING CAMPBELL'S GERTRUDE, AND THE HISTORY OF WYOMING FROM ITS DISCOVERY TO 1800 A. D.

By WILLIAM L. STONE.

12mo, p. 406, cloth, $2.

The author had devoted much labor to its production, in order to present to the public a true and full account of an interesting but little known portion of American territory, which had been the theatre of more historical action, and was invested with more historical interest, than any other inland district of equal extent in the United States. The massacre of Wyoming forms but a single incident in a course of fifty years of various and arduous conflict between belligerent parties of the same race and nation, each contending for the exclusive possession of that fair valley.

Miscellaneous.

TRAPPERS OF NEW YORK,

OR A BIOGRAPHY OF NICHOLAS STONER AND NATHANIEL FOSTER TOGETHER WITH ANECDOTES OF OTHER CELEBRATED HUNTERS, AND ACCOUNT OF SIR WILLIAM JOHNSON AND HIS STYLE OF LIVING.

By J. R. SIMMS.

12mo, p. 287, engravings, ½ sheep, $2.

The same, new edition of 50 copies, on tinted paper, with index and extra portraits and plates. 8vo, cloth, $3.

MEMOIR OF MRS. SUSANNAH ROWSON,

WITH ELEGANT AND ILLUSTRATIVE EXTRACTS FROM HER WRITINGS IN PROSE AND POETRY.

By Rev ELIAS NASON.

8vo, p. 212, cloth, $2.50.

Mrs. Rowson was one of the most remarkable women of her day, and her life was as romantic as any creation of her own gifted pen, and is a beautiful illustration of the potency of a large, glowing heart, and a determined will to rise superior to circumstances and achieve success. She excelled in romance, in poetry, and in the drama; wrote geography, history and biblical dialogues. Though more widely known as the authoress of Charlotte Temple, some of her pieces keep the stage, and there are still living witnesses to her eminent success as an educator. The narrative of her life is thought to deserve a place in our biographical collections, a want which this work is intended to supply.

THE LIFE OF

JOHN HOWARD PAYNE,

THE AUTHOR OF HOME, SWEET HOME, THE TRAGEDY OF BRUTUS, AND OTHER DRAMATIC WORKS.

By GABRIEL HARRISON.

sup. royal 8vo. p. 410, portrait, cloth, $4.

Hitherto there has been but one or two short sketches of Mr. Payne's life written. The material used for this biography is principally from manuscript journals, papers and letters of Mr. Payne.

The contents embrace Mr. Payne's life from his boyhood to his death — his career as the Young American Roscius, as a Dramatist, and as Consul for the United States — his opinion of the relative merits of the celebrated actors, Kean, Cook, Kemble, Cooper, Booth, and Mrs. Siddons. A detailed account of his singular adventures among the Cherokee Indians, with his own graphic description of the Creek Indian annual Festival.

Also a highly interesting account of Tunis, the manners and customs of the people, from his own pen, while representing the United States government at the Tunisian Court. A collection of his Juvenile poems, chiefly written before he was sixteen years of age, and a number of poems written at a later period of his life, never before published. Also, the five act Tragedy of Brutus, and a full list of Mr. Payne's dramatic productions. The volume is neatly bound in cloth, and has a steel portrait of exquisite workmanship, engraved expressly for the work.

Early Jesuit Missions in North America; compiled and translated from the Letters of the French Jesuits, with notes. By Rt. Rev. WM. INGRAHAM KIP. 12mo, pp. 325, map, cloth, $1.50.

THE

VIRGINIA COMPANY OF LONDON;

CHRONOLOGY OF THE ORIGIN AND PROGRESS OF

PAPER AND PAPER MAKING,

From 670 B. C. to 1877 A. D.

By J. MUNSELL.

Fifth Edition, 12mo, 263 p. cloth, $2.

The object of this work is to trace the progress of the manufacture of paper not only, but of all substances used to record events from the earliest times in all Countries. To this end the Babylonians impressed characters upon Bricks, specimens of which have escaped the wreck of empires and the tooth of time; the less durable papyrus of the Egyptians furnished Europe for many years with a more convenient but perishable substance until superseded by the discovery of paper. The progress of invention and use for more than two thousand years is given in these pages; embracing the gradual spreading of the manufacture throughout the world; the dates of successive improvements and interesting incidents attending its growth; statistics of all matters pertaining to the trade; the fluctuation of prices; vicissitudes by fire and flood; deaths of eminent manufacturers; in short a store-house of facts important to be known to the trade; but no where else gathered and made accessible; the whole rendered convenient of reference by an index.

HISTORY OF THE BOSTON MASSACRE,

MARCH 5, 1870; CONSISTING OF NARRATIVE OF THE TOWN; TRIAL OF THE SOLDIERS; A HISTORICAL INTRODUCTION, CONTAINING UNPUBLISHED DOCUMENTS OF JOHN ADAMS, AND EXPLANATORY NOTES.

By FREDERIC KIDDER.

8vo, p. 291, map, &c., cloth, $2.

This is the first complete collection of all the facts relating to this affair, stated in an impartial manner, with a map of the city showing the scene where it took place, and a plate of the fight.

HISTORICAL SKETCHES OF HYMNS,

THEIR WRITERS, AND THEIR INFLUENCES.

By JOSEPH BELCHER.

12mo, p. 415, cloth, $2.

Music is said to be one of the best arts. About 1720 singing by note was introduced into Boston, and singing schools came into use. In 1745 the first organ was built in this country, and though greatly opposed, soon made its way, and choirs then followed. Writers of hymns were inspired from time to time to supply suitable subjects, and sketches of nearly two hundred of the most eminent writers of hymns in common use are here given.

SONGS BY THE WAY.

By Bishop GEO. WASHINGTON DOANE.

The poetical Writings of the late Bishop of New Jersey, arranged and edited by his son, Wm. Croswell Doane, Bishop of Albany, were published by request of the graduates of St. Mary's Hall, with a portrait of the author, engraved for the work.

"Bishop Doane's Songs always represent the very best style of religious poetry."—Churchman.

PUBLICATIONS

OF THE

National Temperance Society & Publication House,

No. 58 Reade St., New York.

Hon. WM. E. DODGE. President. | T. T. SHEFFIELD, Treasurer. | J. N. STEARNS, Corresponding Sec'y & Publishing Agent

THE NATIONAL TEMPERANCE SOCIETY, organized in 1866 for the purpose of supplying a sound and able Temperance Literature, have already stereotyped and published over five hundred publications of all sorts and sizes, from the one-page tract up to the bound volume of 1,000 pages. This list comprises Books, Tracts, and Pamphlets, containing Essays, Stories, Sermons, Arguments, Statistics, History, etc., upon every phase of the question. Special attention has been given to the department

FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOL LIBRARIES.

Seventy-nine volumes have already been issued, written by some of the best authors in the land. These have been carefully examined and unanimously approved by the Publication Committee of the Society, representing the various religious denominations and temperance organizations of the country, which consists of the following members:

PETER CARTER,
REV. W. T. SABINE,
A. A. ROBBINS,
REV. HALSEY MOORE,
T. A. BROUWER,
REV. R. S. MACARTHUR,
REV. J. B. DUNN,
REV. ALBERT G. LAWSON,
REV. ALFRED TAYLOR,
R. R. SINCLAIR,
J. N. STEARNS,
JAMES BLACK

These volumes have been cordially commended by leading clergymen of all denominations, and by various National and State bodies, all over the land.

The following is the list, which can be procured through the regular Sunday-school trade, or by sending direct to the rooms of the Society:

At Lion's Mouth. 12mo, 410 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis, author of "Temperance Doctor," "Out of the Fire," etc., - - $1 25

This is one of the best books ever issued, written in a simple yet thrilling and interesting style. It speaks boldly for the entire suppression of the liquor traffic, depicting vividly the misery and wrongs resulting from it. The Christian tone is most excellent, showing the necessity of God's grace in the heart to overcome temptation and the power of appetite, and the influence which one zealous Christian can exert upon his companions and the community.

Adopted. 18mo, 236 pp. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond, author of "The McAllisters," - 60

This book is written in an easy, pleasant style, seems o be true to nature, true to itself, and withal is full of he Gospel and Temperance.

Andrew Douglass. 18mo, 232 pp., - 75

A new temperance story for Sunday-schools, written in a lively, energetic, and popular style, adapted to the Sabbath-school and the family circle.

Aunt Dinah's Pledge. 12mo, 318 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis, - - - - 1 25

Aunt Dinah was an eminent Christian woman. Her pledge included swearing and smoking, as well as drinking. It saved her boys, who lived useful lives, and died happy; and by quiet, yet loving and persistent work, names of many others were added who seemed almost beyond hope of salvation.

Alice Grant; or, Faith and Temperance. 12mo, 352 pages. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond, 1 25

The religious tone of this volume is most excellent, as well as the temperance lessons it conveys. The story relates more especially to woman's work in this great reform, showing that faith in God is essential to success in any great work, and that God's grace in the heart can keep even the weakest and most sorely tempted from falling.

All for Money. 12mo, 340 pages., By Mary Dwinell Chellis, - - - - - - 1 25

One of the best books ever written; its style vigorous and impressive, showing the deceptions practised in the liquor business—the unhappiness and ruin it produces—and that many will engage in it simply because its profits are large, and wealth gained easily. It warns the reader against engaging in anything that takes away peace of conscience, bartering soul and body "all for money."

Barford Mills. 12mo, 246 pages. By Miss M. E. Winslow, - - - - - - $1 00

A narrative of facts simply told and full of interest, dealing with a settlement of Swedes in Mill Village, prosperous and thrifty until the opening of a liquor saloon in their midst, which was finally banished in answer to the prayers of a few faithful ones.

Best Fellow in the World, The. 12mo, 352 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright, author of "Jug-or-Not," "How Could he Escape?" 1 25

"The Best Fellow," whose course is here portrayed, is one of a very large class who are led astray and ruined, simply because they are such "good fellows." To all such the volume speaks in thrilling tones of warning; shows the inevitable consequences of indulging in strong drink, and the necessity of divine grace in the heart to interpose and save from ruin.

Broken Rock, The. 18mo, 139 pp. By Kruna, author of "Lift a Little," etc., - - 50

It beautifully illustrates the silent and holy influence of a meek and lowly spirit upon the heartless rumseller until the rocky heart was broken.

Brook, and the Tide Turning, The. 12mo, 220 pp., - - - - - - - - - 1 00

These are two stories in one volume. The first, "The Brook," by Sarah K. Hunt, is charming in its simplicity, its tender pathos moving one to tears. Above all, it is deeply spiritual, and must lead the tempted reader to rest in God alone for victory over his besetting sin. "The Tide Turning," by Miss L. Bates, is full of the Gospel, showing the wonderful power of God's grace in the heart, and the results of a temperance and religious revival in a Western city, by which the most hardened were reclaimed.

Brewer's Fortune, The. 12mo, 425 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis, - - - - 1 50

This is the latest and one of the best volumes ever written by this popular author, and shows that wealth cannot compensate for evil-doing, and that the sins of the fathers are often visited upon the children.

Come Home, Mother. 18mo, 143 pp. By Nelsie Brook. Illustrated with six choice engravings, - - - - - - - - 50

A most effective and interesting book, describing the downward course of the mother, and giving an account of the sad scenes, but effectual endeavors, of the little one in bringing her mother back to friends, and leading her to God. It should be read by everybody.

Drinking Fountain Stories, The. 12mo, 192 pp., - - - - - - - - - - $1 00

This book of illustrated stories for children contains articles from some of the best writers for children in America, and is beautifully illustrated with forty choice wood engravings.

Dumb Traitor, The. 12mo, 336 pp. By Margaret E. Wilmer, - - - - - - - 1 25

Intensely interesting, showing how the prospects of a well-to-do New England family were blighted through the introduction of a box of wine, given in friendship, used as a medicine, but proving a dumb traitor in the end.

Eva's Engagement Ring. 12mo, 189 pp. By Margaret E. Wilmer, author of "The Little Girl in Black," - - - - - 90

In this interesting volume is traced the career of the moderate drinker, who takes a glass in the name of friendship or courtesy.

Echo Bank. 18mo, 269 pp. By Ervie, 85

This is a well-written and deeply interesting narrative, in which is clearly shown the suffering and sorrow that too often follow, and the danger that attend, boys and young men at school and at college who suppose they can easily take a glass or two occasionally without fear of ever being aught more than a moderate drinker.

Esther Maxwell's Mistake. 18mo, 236 pp. By Mrs. E. N. Janvier, - - - - 1 00

This book is full of Gospel truth, and written in a simple but earnest style, showing the utter absurdity of endeavoring to forget trouble by the use of strong drink, which Esther, like many others, found soon formed habits not easily broken.

Fanny Percy's Knight Errant. 12mo, 267 pp. By Mary Graham, - - - - - 1 00

An admirably written story, illustrating the power of individual effort and the importance of early enlisting the young in Christian work and the cause of total abstinence.

Fatal Dower, The. 18mo, 220 pp. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond, - - - - - - 60

It is truthful and convincing as well as interesting, showing the fatal effects of administering alcoholic poisons as medicines, and pointing out the snares and pitfalls which are so thickly strewn along the paths of the young and innocent.

Fire Fighters, The. 12mo, 294 pp. By Mrs. J. E. McConaughy, author of "The Hard Master," - - - - - - - 1 25

An admirable story, showing how a number of young lads banded themselves into a society to fight against Alcohol, and the good they did in the community.

Fred's Hard Fight. 12mo, 334 pp. By Miss Marion Howard, - - - - - - - 1 25

While it shows the trials which a young lad endured through the temptations and enticements offered him by those opposed to his firm temperance and religious principles, and warns the reader against the use of every kind of alcoholic stimulant, it points also to Jesus, the only true source of strength, urging all to accept the promises of strength and salvation offered to every one who will seek it.

Frank Spencer's Rule of Life. 18mo, 180 pp. By John W. Kirton, author of "Buy Your Own Cherries," "Four Pillars of Temperance," etc., - - - - - - - 50

This is written in the author's best style, making an interesting and attractive story for children.

Frank Oldfield; or, Lost and Found. 12mo, 408 pp., - - - - - - - 1 50

This excellent story received the prize of £100 in England, out of eighty-three manuscripts submitted; and by an arrangement with the publishers we publish it in this country with all the original illustrations. It is admirably adapted to Sunday-school libraries.

Gertie's Sacrifice; or, Glimpses at Two Lives. 18mo, 189 pp. By Mrs. F. D. Gage, - - - - - - - - - 50

A story of great interest and power, giving a "glimpse at two lives," and showing how Gertie sacrificed herself as a victim of fashion, custom, and law.

Glass Cable, The. 12mo, 288 pp. By Margaret E. Wilmer, author of "The Little Girl in Black," etc., - - - - - - - 1 25

The style of this book is good, the characters well selected, and its temperance and religious truths most excellent. The moral of the story shows those who sneer at a child's pledge, comparing its strength to a glass cable, that it is in many cases strong enough to brave the storms and temptations of a whole lifetime.

Hard Master, The. 18mo, 278 pp. By Mrs. J. E. McConaughy, - - - - - - 85

This interesting narrative of the temptations, trials, hardships, and fortunes of a poor orphan boy, illustrates in a most striking manner the value of "right principles," especially of honesty, truthfulness, and Temperance.

Harker Family, The. 12mo, 336 pp. By Emily Thompson, - - - - - - $1 25

A simple, spirited, and interesting narrative, written in a style especially attractive, depicting the evils that arise from intemperance, and the blessings that followed the earnest efforts of those who sought to win others to the paths of total abstinence. Illustrated with three engravings. The book will please all.

History of a Threepenny Bit. 18mo, 216 pp., - - - - - - - - - - 75

This is a thrilling story, beautifully illustrated with five choice wood engravings. The story of little Peggy, the drunkard's daughter, is told in such a simple yet interesting manner that no one can read it without realizing more than ever before the nature and extent of intemperance, and sympathizing more than ever with the patient, suffering victim. It should be in every Sunday-school library.

History of Two Lives, The. By Mrs. Lucy E. Sandford. 18mo, 132 pp. A Tale of actual fact, with an able introduction by Rev. S. I. Prime, D.D., - - - - - - - - 50

The incidents are presented in dramatic and impressive terms which cannot fail to make a deep impression on the reader.

Hopedale Tavern, and What it Wrought. 12mo, 252 pp. By J. Wm. Van Namee, 1 00

It shows the sad results which followed the introduction of a Tavern and Bar in a beautiful and quiet country town, whose inhabitants had hitherto lived in peace and enjoyment The contrast is too plainly presented to fail to produce an impression on the reader, making all more desirous to abolish the sale of intoxicants.

Hole in the Bag, and Other Stories, The. By Mrs. J. P. Ballard, author of "The Broken Rock," etc., 12mo, - - - - - - 1 00

A collection of well-written stories by this most popular author on the subject of Temperance, inculcating many valuable lessons in the minds of its readers.

How Could He Escape? 12mo, 324 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright. Illustrated with ten engravings, designed by the author, - 1 25

This is a true tale, and one of the writer's best productions. It shows the terrible effects of even one glass of intoxicating liquor upon the system of one unable to resist its influences, and the necessity of grace in the heart to resist temptation and overcome the appetite for strong drink.

Humpy Dumpy. 12mo, 316 pp. By Rev. J. J. Dana, - - - - - - - - 1 25

In this book, a corner-grocery, where liquor is freely sold, becoming the resort of all the loungers and drinkers, is the source of much evil, and a mission-school, by its Christian teachings, the means of rescuing many from the downward road.

Jewelled Serpent, The. 12mo, 271 pp. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond, author of "Adopted," "The McAllisters," etc., - - - - 1 00

The story is written earnestly. The characters are well delineated, and taken from the wealthy and fashionable portion of a large city. The evils which flow from fashionable drinking are well portrayed, and also the danger arising from the use of intoxicants when used as medicine, forming an appetite which fastens itself with a deadly hold upon its victim.

John Bentley's Mistake. 18mo, 177 pp. By Mrs. M. A. Holt, - - - - - 50

It takes an important place among our temperance books, taking an earnest, bold stand against the use of cider as a beverage, proving that it is often the first step toward stronger drinks, forming an appetite for the more fiery liquids which cannot easily be quenched.

Job Tufton's Rest. 12mo, 332 pp., - 1 25

A story of life's struggles, written by the gifted author, CLARA LUCAS BALFOUR, depicting most skilfully and truthfully many a life-struggle with the demon of intemperance occurring all along life's pathway. It is a finely written story, and full of interest from the beginning to the end.

Jug-or-Not. 12mo, 346 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright, - - - - - - - 1 25

It is one of her best books, and treats of the physical and hereditary effects of drinking in a clear, plain, and familiar style, adapted to popular reading, and which should be read by all classes in the community, and find a place in every Sunday-school library.

Life Cruise of Captain Bess Adams, The. 12mo, 413 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright, 1 50

A sea-story, filled with thrilling adventures on the deep, and intensely interesting scenes on land in the midst of a quaint old sea-coast town, proving effectually that alcoholic drinks are not needed on shipboard or on land, and should be absolutely banished. The brave Christian character of Captain Adams and the heroism of his daughter Bess, together with the pure religious tone pervading every page, make this one of the most interesting books ever written.

Little Girl in Black. 12mo, 212 pp. By Margaret E. Wilmer, - - - - $0 90
Her faith in God, who she believes will reclaim an erring father, is a lesson to the reader, old as well as young.

McAllisters, The. 18mo, 211 pp. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond, - - - - - - - - 50
It shows the ruin brought on a family by the father's intemperate habits, and the strong faith and trust of the wife in that Friend above, who alone gives strength to bear our earthly trials.

Model Landlord, The. 18mo, 202 pp. By Mrs. M. A. Holt, author of "John Bentley's Mistake," "Work and Reward," etc., 60
It shows how a "model landlord" who keeps a gilded saloon for fashionable wine-drinkers, though he may attend church, give money to the poor, and circulate in the "first society," may be the greatest instrument in leading the young down to destruction.

More Excellent Way, A, and Other Stories. By M. E. Winslow. 12mo, 217 pages, 1 00
The stories are full of interest, penetrated throughout by a thoroughly Christian spirit. The author is well known as a pleasing, vivacious writer, whose characters are well drawn and true to life. The incidents given here are real and well known to the author.

Mr. Mackenzie's Answer. 12mo, 352 pp. By Faye Huntington, - - - - - 1 25
This is one of this popular author's best books, and the influence for good or evil which a woman may exert is vividly pictured, and the lesson of temperance it teaches is one that every woman should heed. It should be read by every one, and have a place in every Sabbath-School and family library.

National Temperance Orator, The. 12mo, 288 pp. By Miss L. Penney, - - 1 00
This is issued in response to the many urgent calls for a book similar to the "New Temperance Speaker," used widely throughout the country. It contains articles by the best temperance writers of the day, poems, recitations, readings, dialogues, and choice extracts from speeches of some of the ablest temperance speakers in the country, for the use of all temperance workers, Lodges, Divisions, Bands of Hope, etc., etc.

Nettie Loring. 12mo, 352 pp. By Mrs. Geo. S. Downs, - - - - - - - 1 25
It graphically describes the doings of several young ladies, who resolved to use their influence on the side of Temperance, and banish wine from their entertainments, the scorn they excited, and the good results which followed.

Norman Brill's Life Work. By Abby Eldridge. 12mo, 218 pp., - - - 1 00
A book of rare merit and unexceptionable religious tone, showing the power of little things, and the value of a word rightly spoken. The simple words of a text, "Every man to his work," changed the thoughts and life of Norman Brill, who had hitherto lived only for his own pleasure, making him an earnest, sincere Christian and effectual temperance worker, doing much to reform the society in which he moved of its wine-drinking habits, and persuading others to start on the better life.

Nothing to Drink. 12mo, 400 pp. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright, author of "The Best Fellow in the World," "Jug-or-Not," etc., 1 50
The story is of a light-house keeper and thrilling adventures at sea, being nautical, scientific, and partly statistical; written in a charming, thrilling, and convincing manner. It goes out of the ordinary line entirely, most of the characters being portraits; its scenery all from absolute facts; every scientific and natural-history statement a verity; the sea incidents from actual experiences from marine disasters for the last ten years.

Old Brown Pitcher, The. 12mo, 222 pp. By the author of "Susie's Six Birth-days," "The Flower of the Family," etc., - 1 00
Beautifully illustrated. This admirable volume for boys and girls, containing original stories by some of the most gifted writers for the young, will be eagerly welcomed by the children. It is adapted alike for the family circle and the Sabbath-school library.

Old Times. 12mo, 351 pp. By Miss M. D. Chellis, author of "The Temperance Doctor," "Out of the Fire," "Aunt Dinah's Pledge," etc., 1 25
It discusses the whole subject of moderate drinking in the history of a New England village. The incidents, various and amusing, are all facts, and the characters nearly all drawn from real life. The five deacons which figure so conspicuously actually lived and acted as represented.

Out of the Fire. 12mo, 420 pp. By Miss Mary Dwinell Chellis, - - - - 1 25
It is one of the most effective and impressive Temperance books ever published. The evils of the drinking customs of society, and the blessings of sobriety and total abstinence, are strikingly developed in the history of various families in the community.

Our Coffee-Room. By Elizabeth Cotton. 12mo, 278 pages, - - - - $1 00
This is a striking narrative of successful Christian work among the workingmen and poorer classes. The wonderful results accomplished through the instrumentality of a "coffee-room," and one devoted, consecrated Christian woman working with God and in his strength, are charmingly told, and the record cannot fail to do great good. Drunkards are reclaimed to the cause of Christ, the cross is exalted, and God glorified.

Our Parish. 18mo, 252 pp. By Mrs. Emily Pearson, - - - - - - - - 75
The manifold evils resulting from the "still" to the owner's family, as well as to the families of his customers, are truthfully presented. The characters introduced, such as are found in almost every good-sized village, are well portrayed. We can unhesitatingly commend it, and bespeak for it a wide circulation.

Packington Parish, and The Diver's Daughter. 12mo, 327 pp. By M. A. Paull, 1 25
In this volume we see the ravages which the liquor traffic caused when introduced in a hitherto quiet village, and how a minister's eyes were at length opened to its evils, though he had always declared wine to be a "good creature of God," meant to be used in moderation.

Paul Brewster and Son. By Helen A. Chapman. 12mo, 238 pp., - - - - - 1 00
A book of intense interest. Paul Brewster and Son were extensive liquor dealers and manufacturers, whose gains were large, and their business productive of evil in the community. A noble example is given in the character of the son, who, his conscience being awakened, diligently studied his mother's Bible, and, becoming convinced that his business was not lawful in the sight of God, voluntarily abandoned it. It is a book which strongly holds up the Bible as the rule of life, and a sure guide in all cases of perplexity and doubt.

Philip Eckert's Struggles and Triumphs. 18mo, 216 pp. By the author of "Margaret Clair," - - - - - - - - 60
This interesting narrative of a noble, manly boy, in an intemperate home, fighting with the wrong and battling for the right, should be read by every child in the land.

Piece of Silver, A. 18mo, 180 pp. By Josephine Pollard, - - - - - - - 50
The story is especially pleasing, sprightly, and attractive, and will be interesting to all.

Pitcher of Cool Water, The. 18mo, 180 pp. By T. S. Arthur, - - - - - - 50
This little book consists of a series of Temperance stories, handsomely illustrated, written in Mr. ARTHUR'S best style, and is altogether one of the best books which can be placed in the hands of children. Every Sunday-school library should possess it.

Rachel Noble's Experience. 18mo, 325 pp. By Bruce Edwards, - - - - - 90
This is a story of thrilling interest, ably and eloquently told, and is an excellent book for Sunday-school libraries. It is just the book for the home circle, and cannot be read without benefiting the reader and advancing the cause of Temperance.

Red Bridge, The. 18mo, 321 pp. By Thrace Talman, - - - - - - - - 90
We have met with few Temperance stories containing so many evidences of decided ability and high literary excellence as this.

Rev. Dr. Willoughby and his Wine. 12mo, 458 pages. By Mrs. Mary Spring Walker, - - - - - - - - 1 50
This thrillingly interesting book depicts in a vivid manner the terrible influence exerted by those who stand as the servants of God, and who sanction the social custom of wine-drinking. It is fair and faithful to the truth. It is not a bitter tirade against the church or the ministry. On the contrary, it plainly and earnestly acknowledges that the ministry is the friend of morality, and the great bulwark of practical virtue.

(In Press—Will be ready in Sept.)

Ripley Parsonage, with more about the Mackenzies. By Faye Huntington. 12mo, about 350 pages, - - - - - - - 1 25

Roy's Search; or, Lost in the Cars. 12mo, 364 pp. By Helen C. Pearson, - - - 1 25
This book is one of the most interesting ever published—written in a fresh, sparkling style, especially adapted to please the boys, and contains so much that will benefit as well as amuse and interest, that we wish all the boys in the land might read it.

(In Press—Will be ready in Sept.)

Saved. By Miss M. E. Winslow, author of "Barford Mills," "A More Excellent Way," etc. 12mo, about 300 pages, - - 1 25

Seymours, The. 12mo, 231 pp. By Miss L. Bates, - - - - - - - - - $1 00
A simple story, showing how a refined and cultivated family are brought low through the drinking habits of the father; their joy and sorrow as he reforms only to fall again, and his final happy release in a distant city.

Silver Castle. By Margaret E. Wilmer. 12mo, 340 pages, - - - - - - - 1 25
This is a sequel to "The Dumb Traitor," published not long since by this Society, following out the lives of the characters introduced therein, and introducing others equally interesting. It is full of interest from beginning to end, showing the happiness arising from a life consecrated to God's service, and proving conclusively that total abstinence is the only safe rule, and should be adopted early in life.

Strange Sea Story, A. 12mo, 427 pages. By Mrs. J. McNair Wright, author of "Nothing to Drink," etc. - - - - - - 1 50
This is one of the strangest yet thrilling and interesting stories from the pen of this gifted author. The strangest thing, possibly, about it is that it is true—so entirely true that even the names of the ship and the abandoned sailor have been retained. The story is taken from an accurate narrative of events, and is one of those protests of ungarnished fact against the use of intoxicating drinks, showing more plainly than any romance the terrible evils that follow in its train, destroying the innocent with the guilty. It is a capital book for the young, and should be in every Sabbath-school library.

Temperance Doctor, The. 12mo, 370 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis, - - - - 1 25
This is a true story, replete with interest, and adapted to Sunday-school and family reading. In it we have graphically depicted the sad ravages that are caused by the use of intoxicating beverages; also, the blessings of Temperance, and what may be accomplished by one earnest soul for that reform. It ought to find readers in every household.

Temperance Speaker, The. By J. N. Stearns, - - - - - - - - - 75
This book contains 288 pages of Declamations and Dialogues suitable for Sunday and Day-schools, Bands of Hope, and Temperance Organizations. It consists of choice selections of prose and poetry, from the Temperance orators and writers of the country.

Temperance Anecdotes. 12mo, 288 pp., 1 00
This new book of Temperance anecdotes, edited by George W. Bungay, contains nearly four hundred anecdotes, witticisms, jokes, conundrums, etc., original and selected, and will meet a want long felt and often expressed by a very large number of the numerous friends of the cause in the land. The book is handsomely illustrated with twelve choice wood engravings.

Ten Cents. By Mary Dwinell Chellis. 12mo, 334 pp., - - - - - - - - - 1 25
It is a remarkably well sustained story in freshness and variety of interest, and is of a high order of literary merit. Its lessons of sobriety, economy, and thrift, and of Christian unselfishness and devotion, are of the utmost importance and most impressively taught. The religious tone of the book is excellent, and it will make a most welcome addition to all Sabbath-school libraries.

Tom Blinn's Temperance Society, and other Stories. 12mo, 316 pp., - $1 25
This is the title of a new book written by T. S. ARTHUR, the well-known author of "Ten Nights in a Bar-room," and whose fame as an author should bespeak for it a wide circulation. It is written in Mr. ARTHUR'S best style, composed of a series of tales adapted to every family and library in the land.

Time Will Tell. 12mo, 307 pp. By Mrs. Wilson, - - - - - - - - - 1 00
A Temperance tale of thrilling interest and unexceptionable moral and religious tone. It is full of incidents and characters of every-day life, while its lessons are plainly and forcibly set before the reader. The pernicious results of the drinking usages in the family and social circle are plainly set forth.

Tim's Troubles. 12mo, 350 pp. By M. A. Paull, - - - - - - - - - 1 50
This is a second Prize Book of the United Kingdom Band of Hope Union, reprinted in this country with all the original illustrations. It is the companion of "Frank Oldfield," written in a high tone, and will be found a valuable addition to our Temperance literature.

Vow at the Bars. 18mo, 108 pp., - - 40
It contains four short tales, illustrating four important principles connected with the Temperance movement, and is well adapted for the family circle and Sabbath-school libraries.

Wealth and Wine. 12mo, 320 pp. By Mary Dwinell Chellis, author of "Temperance Doctor," "At Lion's Mouth," - - - 1 25
This book is written in her best style, showing the deception of the winecup and the power of woman's influence, together with the evil influence of social and moderate drinking. The immense power for good of a human soul when inspired to work for the good of others is graphically portrayed. Its moral and Christian tone is excellent, and none can fail to be profited by its teaching.

White Rose, The. By Mary J. Hedges. 12mo, 320 pp., - - - - - - - - 1 25
The gift of a simple white rose was the means of leading those who cared for it to the Saviour. How it was done is very pleasantly told, and also the wrongs resulting in the use of strong drink forcibly shown.

Wife's Engagement-Ring, The. 12mo, 278 pp. By T. S. Arthur, author of "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room," etc. - - - 1 25
This story is of a high order of excellence in its literary quality, and presents in a strong light, and with great power, the peril involved in moderate drinking. Its characters are intensely real and lifelike, and it is impossible for the reader not to become deeply interested in them. It should have a wide circulation, especially among those who think there is no harm in a "social glass" now and then.

Work and Reward. 18mo, 183 pp. By Mrs. M. A. Holt, - - - - - - - - 50
It shows that not the smallest effort to do good is lost sight of by the all-knowing Father, and that faith and prayer must accompany all temperance efforts.

Zoa Rodman. 12mo, 262 pp. By Mrs. E. J. Richmond, - - - - - - - - 1 00
Adapted more especially to young girls' reading, showing the influence they wield in society, and their responsibility for much of its drinking usages.

MOODY'S TALKS ON TEMPERANCE,

WITH

Anecdotes, Illustrations & Incidents

COMPILED AND EDITED BY REV. JAMES B. DUNN.

12mo, 250 pp., bound in cloth, $1; paper cover, 50c.

This book has just been issued by The National Temperance Society, and contains the Sermons and Talks by D. L. Moody, together with deeply interesting incidents and anecdotes in connection with the wonderful work in Boston.

The following is the Table of Contents:—Chapter I. Moody's Sermons.—II. Moody's Talks.—III. Anecdotes and Illustrations.—IV. Living Witnesses.—V. Gospel Temperance Convention.—VI. Tabernacle Incidents.—VII. Meetings for Women, with an account of Miss Frances E. Willard's work in Boston. It contains the proceedings of the New England Gospel Temperance Convention in full, including the thrilling and inimitable Lecture by John B. Gough, entitled "How do Men become Drunkards?" This lecture is of itself worth the price of the book; also, Addresses by Rev. T. L. Cuyler, Hon. Wm. E. Dodge, Rev. S. H. Tyng, Jr., John Wanamaker, George H. Stuart, Miss F. E. Willard, and others.

It is illustrated with a fine Steel Engraving of Mr. Moody, together with a Wood Engraving of the Moody and Sankey Tabernacle. Every one interested in the Cause should aid in the circulation of this important and interesting book.

MISCELLANEOUS PUBLICATIONS.

Bases of the Temperance Reform, The. 12mo, 224 pp. By Rev. Dawson Burns, 1 00

A very able and thorough exposition of the foundations on which the temperance cause is founded and upbuilt. The author establishes in a clear and satisfactory manner the proposition that the drinking system is the greatest social evil in the land, and that intoxicating liquors are useless and injurious as articles of diet; that intemperance is a true plague which can only be effectually suppressed by the exclusion of intoxicating drinks; that violence is done to the will of God and the welfare of man by appropriating the fruits of the earth to the production of intoxicating drinks; that the sacred Scriptures do not afford sanction to the use of intoxicating liquors.

Bible Rule of Temperance. By Rev. Geo. Duffield, D.D., - - - - - - 60

This is the ablest and most reliable work which has been issued on the subject. The immorality of the use, sale, and manufacture of intoxicating liquors as a beverage is considered in the light of the Scriptures, and the will and law of God clearly presented.

Bible Wines; or, The Laws of Fermentation and Wines of the Ancients. 12mo, 139 pp. By Rev. Wm. Patton, D.D. Paper, 30 cts.; cloth, - - - - - - - 60

It presents the whole matter of Bible Temperance and the wines of ancient times in a new, clear, and satisfactory manner, developing the laws of fermentation, and giving a large number of references and statistics never before collected, showing conclusively the existence of unfermented wine in the olden time.

Our Wasted Resources; or, The Missing Link in the Temperance Reform. By Wm. Hargreaves, M.D. 12mo, 202 pp., - 1 25

This book presents in a new and striking light the economic aspect of the temperance question. It includes a series of fourteen elaborate and carefully prepared tables, the result of many months of painstaking labor, which give from official sources an exhibit of our immense agricultural, manufacturing, and mining resources; the yield of our fisheries; the extent, value, and receipts of our railways; the growth of our exports and imports during the last fifty years; the number of persons employed and the wages paid in connection with our varied industries, etc. The book also presents, in a more complete form than they have ever before been given to the public, well-authenticated statistics of the liquor-traffic, showing the quantity and cost of intoxicating drinks; the number of persons employed in the manufacture and sale of liquors; the expenditures for crime and pauperism caused by the drink-traffic; and the material benefit which would accrue, especially to the laboring classes, to the cause of education and religion, and the ease with which our national debt could be paid, if the great drink-waste were stopped. It is a book of profound interest and importance, not only to all friends of temperance, but to the intelligent public generally. It should be in the hands of every voter, of all legislators, journalists, clergymen, and temperance speakers, and find a place in every public library.

THE YOUTH'S TEMPERANCE BANNER.

THE National Temperance Society and Publication House publish a beautifully-illustrated four-page Monthly Paper for Children and Youths, Sabbath-schools, and Juvenile Temperance Organizations. Each number contains several choice engravings, a piece of music, and a great variety of articles from the pens of the best writers for children in America.

Its object is to make the temperance work and education a part of the religious culture and training of the Sabbath-school and family circle, that the children may be early taught to shun the intoxicating cup, and walk in the path of truth, soberness, and righteousness.

The following are some of the writers for THE BANNER: Mrs. J. P. Ballard (Kruna), Miss M. D. Chellis, Mrs. Nellie H. Bradley, Rev. Wm. M. Thayer, Edward Carswell, Geo. W. Bungay, J. H. Kellogg, Mrs. J. E. McConaughy, Mrs. M. A. Dennison, Mrs. E. J. Richmond, Rev. S. B. S. Bissell, Rev. Alfred Taylor, Mrs. M. A. Kidder, etc., etc.

THE BANNER has already been welcomed into thousands of Sabbath-schools of all denominations as the only Youth's Temperance Paper published for Sabbath-schools.

Terms, cash in advance, including postage :

Single copy, one year.....	$0 35	Fifteen copies, to one address....	$2 03	Forty copies, to one address.....	$5 40
Eight copies, to one address.....	1 08	Twenty copies, " "	2 70	Fifty copies, " "	6 75
Ten copies, " "	1 35	Thirty copies, " "	4 05	One Hundred, " "	13 00

We trust the friends of Temperance and Sunday-schools will make the effort to introduce THE BANNER into every Sunday-school in their midst.

THE NATIONAL TEMPERANCE ADVOCATE.

THE National Temperance Society and Publication House publish a monthly paper devoted to the interests of the Temperance Reform, which contains articles upon every phase of the movement from the pens of some of the ablest writers in America, among whom are : Rev. T. L. Cuyler, D.D., Dr. Charles Jewett, Rev. Wm. Goodell, A. M. Powell, Rev. Peter Stryker, Rev. J. B. Dunn, Rev. Wm. M. Thayer, Rev. Wm. Patton, D.D., Geo. W. Bungay, Mrs. F. M. Bradley, Miss M. D. Chellis, Kruna, etc., etc.

It also contains a history of the progress of the movement from month to month in all of the States, which is of great value to every worker in the cause and to those who are in any way interested in the work, and no pains will be spared to make this full of the most valuable information to all classes in the community.

Terms (cash in advance), including postage : One dollar and ten cents per year for single copies ; ten copies to one address, $10 ; twenty copies to one address, $18 ; all over twenty copies at 90 cents per copy.

SEWALL'S STOMACH PLATES.

The National Temperance Society and Publication House have just republished the celebrated lithographic Drawings of the Human Stomach, showing the effects of intoxicating liquors, from the first inception of disease occasioned thereby, to death by delirium tremens. The Drawings are eight in number. Size, 27 by 34 inches.

No. 1 represents the internal coat of the stomach in a healthy state, drawn from an individual who had lived an entirely temperate life.

No. 2 shows a portion of the internal coat of the stomach of the "Temperate Drinker," who drinks moderately daily, and sips wine at dinner.

No. 3 represents the stomach of the habitual drunkard, with greatly enlarged and distended blood-vessels.

No. 4 shows the inner coat of the stomach of a "hard drinker," corroded with small ulcers, and otherwise much inflamed.

No. 5 represents the stomach after a debauch of several days—appearing as though it were "on fire of hell."

Nos. 6 and 7 represent the stomach of a sea-captain, an habitual drinker of spirits, often in an undiluted state—the stomach thickened and scirrhous, with a corroding cancer of frightful aspect.

No. 8 represents the internal coat of the stomach of a drunkard who had died in a state of delirium tremens. It shows the stomach to have been in a state of extreme inflammation before death—in some points dark, as if in an incipient stage of mortification. A more striking contrast, compared with the healthy stomach, it would be impossible to imagine.

They are invaluable to every student, scientific and medical man, and especially to those who are lecturing upon physiology or temperance. They should be in the possession of every College, School, Temperance Society, and Reading-room, in the land. Price, $12 per set, plain paper ; $15, mounted and on rollers.

The Handy Pamphlet Case,

WITH INDEX OF CONTENTS

Useful to librarians and literary men for classifying pamphlets; useful to physicians for preserving periodicals previous to binding; useful to clergymen to keep their sermons in; useful to business men to keep price lists and catalogues in; useful to all who take magazines; neat, cheap and handy to preserve all kinds of paper-covered literature, that would otherwise be impaired and destroyed.

Large 8vo. Price 35 cts. each; $3.50 per doz. Liberal discount to the trade.

Put up two in a nest. The outside case 10x8x3. The inside case ¼ inch smaller.

The Franklin and Joslin Globes.

Please note a reduction in price on nearly every line of globes.

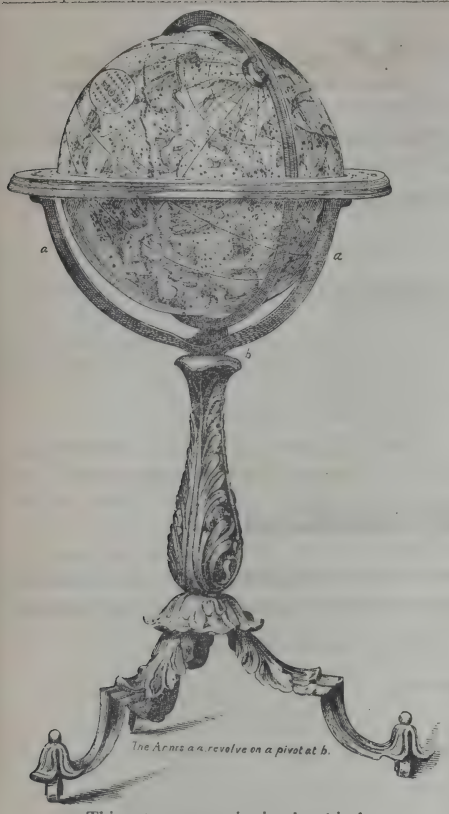
Also the several new styles added to our list.

And improved stands of the semi-frames.

No charge for packing will be made hereafter.

The 30 inch, (4 feet 3 inch high,) including Quadrant, Compass and nickel plated meridian and hour circles 275 00

The 30 inch Globe (Terrestrial only) is very plainly engraved, and handsomely mounted on a solid Black Walnut frame. It is the largest ever made in this country, it presents quite an imposing appearance; and is appropriate for public rooms, literary institutions, hotels, saloons of steamers, as well as the large schools and colleges.



New Library Style.

We have just added to our list, a new style of mounting for our 16 inch globe. The design is unique and elegant. The arms are of solid brass, and the pedestal is of metal handsomely bronzed and tastefully ornamented, the meridian and hour circles are nickel plated. No globes have heretofore been put up in so attractive mounting. It supplies a want long felt for a Library Globe, handsome enough to be an addition to an elegantly appointed library.

16 inch Library style, meridian and hour circles nickel plated, 45 inches high 80 00

Terrestrial or Celestial at the same price

This cut represents in size the 16 inch.

High Bronze
ROTARY FRAME.

IRON WITH A GREEN AND BRONZE FINISH.

This is a popular style of frame for use in High Schools and Academies of the higher grades.

The illustration does not do credit to globes with this mounting.

No charge for packing.

16 inch High Bronze Rotary Frame, meridian and hour circle nickel plated, 43 inches high, 65 00

12 inch High Bronze Rotary Frame, 40 in. high, 40 00

Terrestrial or Celestial at the same price.

BRONZE
Rotary Frame,

Iron with a Green and Bronze Frame.

The Arms a a revolve on a pivot at b.

This cut represents in size the 10 inch.

This is a very convenient as well as attractive way of mounting. Complete with horizon, brass meridian, graduated into half degrees, and brass hour circles. No charge for packing.

New Books for Boys and Girls.

By EDWARD ABBOTT.

THE LONG LOOK SERIES.

Illustrated with Original Silhouettes, by Helen Maria Hinds.

NOW READY:

Long Look House. With six full-page Silhouettes, by Miss Hinds, and several outline Sketches by the Author. 1 vol. 16mo, tinted paper $1.25

Out Doors at Long Look. The second volume of the series contains four full-page Silhouettes designed by Miss Hinds, and three full-page wood cuts. Also eighteen emblematic Silhouettes at the head of the chapters. This volume introduces many new and exciting scenes, and is intensely interesting. 1 vol. 16mo $1.25

The Third Volume of the Series is in active preparation, and will appear about November 1.

From Rev. A. P. Peabody, D. D.

"I have read 'Long Look House' and a better book of its kind I have never read. . . . . A series of books written in the same style and with kindred purpose would be of great and enduring value."

From the New England Journal of Education.

"'Long Look House' will have a great sale, because it deserves it. It is thoroughly good from first to last. The boy or girl who reads it will be a wiser and a better child for its perusal, and it will awaken a deal of pleasant talk. The silhouette illustrations, by Miss Hinds, are beautiful and remarkable. They are studies for old heads as well as young ones."

From Rev. Howard Crosby, D. D.

"The Rev. Edward Abbott's Long Look Series promise much from the first specimen 'Long Look House.' Mr. Abbott's ability to interest and instruct the young he gets by inheritance and uses effectively. This book proves how the young can be charmed by something more wholesome and developing than mere plays of fancy."

From S. R. Crocker, Esq., late editor of The Literary World.

"A delightful story it is,—a model of perspicuity and graphic effect. The action of the story is breezy and lively, and its tone is healthy as a gust of mountain air. We can commend the book without reserve. We must not forget the pretty and pertinent Silhouettes, which are the delightful handiwork of Miss Helen Maria Hinds."

From Rev. Austin Phelps, D. D.

"It is quite obvious to even a cursory glance at Mr. Abbott's 'Long Look House,' that the author inherits much of his father's skill and versatility in the construction of books for the young. . . . . We may reasonably look for a worthy succession of the Rollo Books of other days."

From the New York Tribune.

Coronation. A Tale of the Forest and the Sea. By Rev. E. P. Tenney, President of Colorado College. 1 vol. square 16mo $1.50

This is a work of remarkable power and interest. The Boston Daily Advertiser says of it: "It is an original strong strange book. . . . . We despair of being able to convey any adequate impression of the book in the short space at our command. It is a work sui generis, which must be read to be appreciated, and which we feel sure will be read again and again by many."

NATIONAL SUBSCRIPTION AGENCY.

NEWSPAPER AND MAGAZINE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Messrs. NOYES, SNOW, & CO. respectfully call attention to the fact that they have succeeded to the business of the NATIONAL SUBSCRIPTION AGENCY, and are prepared to receive subscriptions for all American and Foreign Periodicals, at club rates. For the convenience of our patrons we have established a REFERENCE FILE, in which will be kept specimen numbers of all the leading periodicals, both American and Foreign, which can be consulted at any time by those desiring to become subscribers.

☞ Letters of inquiry will be promptly answered, and our complete list can be had on application.

NOYES, SNOW, & CO., Boston.

Devotional Books, Tracts, etc., for Popular Use.

THESE little books embody plain and concise applications of Christian truth, on numerous important subjects of faith and duty. They are fresh, pointed, and earnest; and are, in the best sense, up to the times. From the pens, for the most part, of American authors, they are especially adapted to American use in revivals, and all the methods of Christian work among our own people. They are particularly recommended to churches, missionary societies, Y. M. C. Associations, &c.; to which they may be furnished, when desired, at largely reduced rates.

☞ Packages amounting to twenty-five cents or over will be sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of the price. For less than that sum, a two-cent postage-stamp should be inclosed in the order.

1877. SUNDAY-SCHOOL PAPERS 1877.

OF THE

AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY,

BOSTON.

☞ The American Tract Society asks the attention of the Christian public to its three Sunday-School papers, which form a complete set for ADULTS, BIBLE CLASSES, CHILDREN, AND THE YOUNGEST READERS.

THE CHRISTIAN BANNER

Is probably the cheapest publication of its class. It is a sixteen page, illustrated monthly magazine, and among its attractions for 1877 will be —

I. A Monthly Sketch by Mrs. JANE DUNBAR CHAPLIN, who is well known as one of the most skillful and entertaining writers now contributing to the religious press.

II. A Regular Letter from Europe, giving in a condensed and interesting style an outline of religious news abroad.

III. A Monthly Survey of the Missions of all denominations, intended to help those who wish to interest themselves in the MONTHLY CONCERT.

IV. The Banner Pulpit will contain a report of a sermon adapted to home reading.

V. The Children's Department will be continued by able hands.

VI. The Spirit of Evangelical Religion will pervade the whole of each number.

VII. The Series of Biographical Sketches, by the Editor, will be continued.

Terms: —
Single copy, postage prepaid..... $ .50
Five copies, to one address, postage prepaid... 1.50
Thirty copies, or more, when sent by express at the expense of the subscriber, or when called for at our office, at the rate of twenty-five cents each, per year.

THE CHILD AT HOME

Is a profusely Illustrated four-page monthly paper for the Sunday-School. Its illustrations during the past year have been equal to THE FINEST CUTS in the best books of the day.

The contributors to THE CHILD AT HOME rank second to none.

Aunt May's Portfolio will give our young readers all the puzzles they will find time to solve. We promise a peculiarly attractive feature in this department during 1877.

The Chicago Advance says, —

"Of all Sunday-School papers, THE CHILD AT HOME seems to us the best. Its articles are usually well written and pithy, and take good aim at the average child as he is."

The New York Independent pronounced THE CHILD AT HOME and our other papers "better than ever before," in 1876, and we shall strive to keep up this high reputation.

Terms: —
Single copy, per annum, postage prepaid..... $ .50
Ten copies, per annum, to one address, postage prepaid 1.50
Forty copies, per annum, to one address, postage prepaid 6.00
One hundred copies, per annum, to one address, postage prepaid.....15.00

APPLES OF GOLD,

Heretofore pronounced "BY ALL ODDS THE PRETTIEST AND BEST PAPER TO BE FOUND FOR THE USE OF INFANT CLASSES," will in 1877 surpass itself, for instead of the former colored illustrations we have arranged to present every subscriber, in the quarterly numbers, of a quality superior to any ever offered with such a publication in England or America!

FOUR SUPERB CHROMATIC LITHOGRAPHS,

☞ This will largely increase the cost of producing the paper, but no advance will be made in the price to subscribers. We shall look for a large increase in our subscription list to repay this extra cost.

The topics of the International S. S. Lessons are presented every week.

APPLES OF GOLD is furnished at the following rates: —
Single copy, per annum, postage prepaid..... $ .65

Any Sunday-School can now be accommodated, as we can supply a monthly, semi-monthly, or weekly edition of APPLES OF GOLD.

☞ There will be the extra picture in every number of APPLES OF GOLD in 1877.

Of APPLES OF GOLD the New York Methodist says: —

"It is an elegant weekly paper for youngest readers. Four times each year it is printed in brilliant colors. There is always a paragraph on the subject of the International Sunday-School Lesson. Its many pictures and large type are very attractive to the little ones. Its circulation is steadily increasing."

☞ Our friends are urgently asked to renew their subscriptions promptly, and everybody is requested to send for specimens and for descriptive circulars.

Remittances for subscriptions (payable in advance) should be made by money-order, registered letter, or draft, to any Agents of the Society, or to

NOYES, SNOW, AND COMPANY,

The Harlequin Circle. An original, very entertaining, and instructive pastime, with a book giving 64 colored illustrations of the "Harlequin Circle." Put up in handsome box . . . . $ .50

Donnybrook Fair. A very amusing game, with more than thirty comic illustrations. Published in handsome style 50

Game of Proverbs. First Series 25

Game of Proverbs. Second Series 25

Chronicles of Uncle Sam's Family for One Hundred Years. This is an Historical Game covering a period of 100 years, and intended to make familiar to the players the principal events and prominent persons in the history of our country for the century just passed. The time is divided into ten decades. Each decade is covered by five cards, and the method of play is so arranged as to force upon the player a knowledge of the century's history, while it keeps him interested in the game. Among the cards is a "Brother Jonathan," and also a "John Bull," which add interest to the game and make a great deal of fun 50

The Game of '76; or, The Lion and the Eagle. A complete historical record of the prominent characters of the Revolution, arranged into a very attractive and exciting home amusement, in which the Lion and the Crown (the British emblems) contend against the Eagle and the Bell (the American). It is a game calculated to instruct the participants in the early history of the country, while it holds them interested in the fortunes of their respective sides. It is published in handsome style, illuminated cards, and put up in a very fine box, with lithographed label. One of the best games ever issued 50

Bible Questions. An original and instructive game. An appropriate pastime for every day in the week 50

The Royal Comedy. One of the best and most beautiful board games published. Issued in elegant style 1.75

Ivory Card Dominoes. A perfect gem, made on heavy ivory board, in an elegant box, $1\frac{3}{4}$ by $5\frac{1}{4}$ inches. 25

Game of Letters. A very instructive and interesting game for old and young 25

NEW EDITIONS.

The following NEW EDITIONS of our most popular games are put up in very handsome shape in box $4\frac{1}{4}$ by 6 inches, with elegant chromoed labels of original designs, making by far the most attractive line of games ever offered.

Avilude, or Game of Birds. The most popular and instructive game ever published. 78,000 copies sold in three months, and the demand unabated . $ .50

Ferrilude, or Game of Beasts. Published in same style as Avilude, and as popular 50

Portrait Authors. Thirty-two fine engravings of prominent and popular Authors, and thirty-two autobiographical sketches of the same. In its present improved form, without question the BEST edition of this renowned game. Always popular and standard 50

Lost Heir. An elegantly gotten-up game, and one that will have a large sale. Original in conception and method of playing 50

Society. No Christian family should be without this amusement. It shows the value of virtue, and the evil effects of vice and intemperance 50

Royalty. An elegant and most absorbing game, none better. Elegant engravings taken from life in the Middle Ages 50

Snap. Immensely popular, and as now put up by us, the CHEAPEST GAME IN THE COUNTRY. Contains 54 cards, handsomely printed, and packed in box $4\frac{1}{4}$ by 6 inches, with elegant chromo-lithographed label of VERY ORIGINAL AND STRIKING DESIGN 25

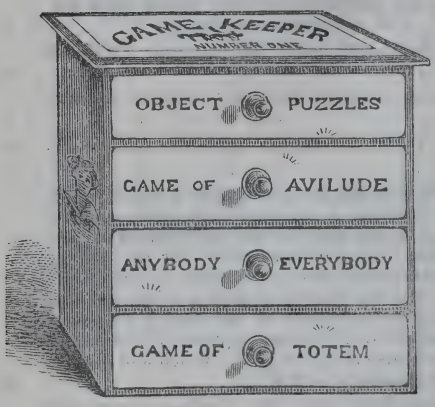
Totem. A beautiful game. Pictures of Birds and Animals 25

Two Hundred Object Puzzles. Just the game to amuse the little ones 25

Anybody and Everybody 25

Spella. A tablet game for a number of players, very interesting and instructive . . . . . $ .50

Trio. A three-handed game; large folding board, six dice, three cups, and eighteen men. An admirable game 1.75



Lucky Traveller. Easy to learn and entertaining to young and old. No. 1 50

Lucky Traveller. Fine folding edition. No. 2 . . . . . 1.00

Great Republic. A geographical game and full of interest 1.00

NOVELTIES.

UNIQUE, BEAUTIFUL, CHEAP.

Nos. 1 and 2.

To meet the demand for assorted packages of our popular games, at a low price, we have prepared four different packages, which for novelty of design and beauty of form and finish have never been equaled. They are something ENTIRELY NEW, and wholly different from anything ever before in the market, and their novelty, combined with the REMARKABLY LOW PRICES at which we have decided to furnish them, render them the cheapest and most desirable form of home amusements that can be devised. In this we not only supply three or four of our most interesting games at a large reduction from the regular price, but the purchaser also receives a beautiful set of drawers, which are useful not only for keeping the games, but for numerous other purposes in the household. The illustration here shows the shape of one of the packages, but affords no idea of the artistic manner in which they are finished. The packages will be known as

THE GAME KEEPERS,

AND ARE PUT UP AS FOLLOWS.

The Game Keeper, No. 1, is a beautifully ornamented miniature Chest of Drawers, containing four of our popular games (regular price of games alone $1.25). Price, ... $1.00

The Game Keeper, No. 2. Same form as No. 1, and contains three popular games (regular price of games alone $1.25), all different from those in No. 1. Price, ... 1.00

The Game Keeper, No. 5. A very unique package with cottage roof, and beautifully ornamented. A most attractive package. Contains three or four popular games (regular price of games alone $1.50). Price, ... 1.25

IMPROVED TABLE CROQUET,

ADAPTED FOR USE UPON ANY TABLE, OR UPON THE FLOOR.

Those persons who take pleasure in this very delightful and entertaining game can now convert their sitting-room or dining-room table into a "Croquet Board" in a twinkling, with little or no expense.

The game is applied to the table in the following manner: A clamp is placed at each corner, and a webbing belt buckled round. By this means a fender is formed, which also acts as an elastic cushion, — the balls rebounding as from a rubber cushion. The wickets are heavily loaded, so as to stand firmly, and at the same time not interfere with the rolling of the balls. The stakes are also weighted or balanced. A common woolen spread or table-cloth answers to cover the table.

Each set is neatly packed in a wooden box, with slide cover, and can be safely sent by mail or express to any distance.

No. 1. A fine polished set, handsomely finished, containing eight balls, eight mallets, and stakes, wickets, clamps, and webbing complete $1.50

No. 2. Same as above, except that it is not so highly finished 1.25

No. 3. Same as No. 2, but containing only six balls and six mallets, with other articles complete . 1.00

☞ Either set sent by mail for twenty-five cents additional. In sending No. 1 by mail, we repack it in pasteboard boxes, as it is too heavy to send in a single package.

Field Croquet. We manufacture a full line of superior quality. Special styles made to order for the trade or others. Correspondence solicited. Price lists free.

T. B. PETERSON & BROTHERS take pleasure in calling the attention of the entire Reading Community, as well as of all their Customers, and every Bookseller, News Agent, and Book Buyer, as well as of the entire Book Trade everywhere, to the fact that they are now publishing a large number of cloth and paper-covered Books, in very attractive style, including a series of 25 cent, 50 cent, 75 cent, $1.00, $1.50, $1.75, and $2.00 Books, in new style covers and bindings, making them large books for the money, and bringing them before the Reading Public by liberal advertising. They are new books, and are cheap editions of the most popular and most salable books published, are written by the best American and English authors, and are presented in a very attractive style, printed from legible type, on good paper, especially adapted to suit all who love to read good books, as well as for all General Reading, and for sale at Hotel Stands, Railroad Stations and in the Cars. They are furnished by us to all Booksellers and News Agents at such a low price that they pay the seller a large profit, and will meet with a ready sale wherever they are properly introduced. They are in fact the most popular series of works of fiction ever published, retailing at 25 cents, 50 cents, 75 cents, $1.00, $1.50, $1.75, and $2.00 each, and they comprise the writings of the best and most popular authors in the world, all of which will be sold by us to the trade at very low prices, and also at retail to everybody.

☞ New books are issued by us every week, comprising the best and most entertaining works published, suitable for the Parlor, Library, Sitting-Room, Railroad or Steamboat reading, and are written by the most popular as well as by the best writers in the world.

☞ Any bookseller, or any person wanting any books at all, from a single book, to a dozen, a hundred, a thousand, or larger quantity of books, had better send a letter to us at once, asking for a copy of Petersons' New Illustrated Catalogue, then look carefully over it, marking what books you may want, and then send on the order at once to T. B. PETERSON & BROTHERS, Philadelphia, Pa., to fill, who publish over One Thousand Books, and have the largest and most salable list of popular books to select from in the country.

☞ Enclose a draft for five, ten, twenty, fifty, or one hundred dollars, or more, to us in a letter, and write for what books you wish, and on receipt of the money, or a satisfactory reference, the books will be packed and sent to you at once, in any way you may direct, with circulars, show-bills, etc., to post up.

☞ We want every Bookseller, and every News Agent, everywhere, to sell our books, and to keep an assortment of them on hand, and to send at once for a copy of our New and Complete Descriptive Catalogue, which contains a list of all books published by us, all or any of which will be sold to everybody in the Book Trade, to Booksellers, or to News Agents, at very low rates. There are no books published you can sell as many of, or make as much money on, as Petersons'. Send us on a trial order. All orders, large or small, will be sent the day the order is received, and small orders will receive the same promptness and care as large orders.

☞ All Books named in Petersons' Catalogue will be found for sale by all Booksellers and News Agents, or copies of any one book, or more, or all of them, will be sent to any one, at once, to any place, per mail, post-paid, or free of freight, on remitting the retail price of the books wanted to the Publishers, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

☞ WANTED.—A News Agent, Bookseller, or Canvasser, in every city, town or village on this Continent, to engage in the sale of Petersons' New and Popular Fast Selling Books, on which large sales, and large profits can be made.

☞ Booksellers, Librarians, News Agents, Canvassers, Pedlers, and all other persons whatever, who may want any of Petersons' Fast Selling and Popular Books, will please address their orders and letters, to meet with immediate attention, to LANGUAGES WITHOUT A MASTER.

Whereby any person can learn the French, German, Spanish, Latin, and Italian Languages, without the aid of a Teacher.

The Robertsonian Method of Learning the French, German, Spanish, Latin, and Italian Languages without the aid of a teacher, has, for the last twenty years, been successfully tested throughout the whole European Continent; and is, without a single exception, now used in teaching the modern languages in all the educational institutions of England, France and Germany. In London, Mr. A. H. Monteith, the most celebrated teacher of Languages in the world, arranged and perfected this system; and his works on the Study of French, German, Spanish, Latin and Italian without a Master, contained in this volume, immediately obtained a sudden and extraordinary popularity. Any person unacquainted with these languages, can, with the aid of this volume, be enabled to read, write and speak the language of either, without the aid of a teacher, or any oral instruction whatever, provided they pay strick attention to the instructions laid down in the work

ESPECIAL ATTENTION IS INVITED TO OUR LINES OF REFERENCE BIBLES FOR BIBLE TEACHERS.

These have been prepared to meet the wants of Bible students and teachers of every class, and commend themselves alike on the scores of completeness and low price. They are elegantly printed books, and are offered in the superior bindings of Messrs. Eyre & Spottiswoode, at prices which place them within the reach of all. We ask a comparison of these books with others of similar scope, and claim that in fulness and accuracy they will be found unsurpassed. They are furnished in Pearl 24mo, Nonpareil 16mo, Minion 8vo, and Brevier 8vo ; the third named comparing more especially with the Bagster Reference Bibles of like size ; while the last is intended for the study table, or use in the family.

The Contents are :

1. Copious Scripture References, Emendations, and Corrected Readings in marginal columns.

2. A complete Concordance, with context of 32,000 Scripture words and references.

3. A Scripture Atlas of Colored Maps, corrected to the latest surveys.

4. An Index of 16,000 Names of Persons, Places, and Subjects occurring in Scripture, arranged alphabetically.

5. An Index to the Bible, giving all the principal events in the World's History mentioned in Scripture, with the date at which they occurred, and the passages of Scripture which refer to them.

6. Tables of Scripture Coins, Weights, Measures, Times and Distances, with their equivalents in American and English values.

7. Table of Gospel Parallels, showing the complete harmony of the four Gospels.

8. The Parables of our Lord, arranged in chronological order.

9. The Miracles of our Lord, arranged in chronological order.

10. The Discourses of our Lord, arranged in chronological order.

11. A list of the Parables recorded in the Old Testament, arranged in chronological order.

12. A List of the Miracles recorded in the Old Testament, arranged in chronological order.

13. A Geographical sketch of the Holy Land, with an epitomized account of its Geological Structure, Climate, River and Lake systems, and principal Cities, Towns, and Inhabitants.

14. The Physical Features of the Holy Land, showing the progress of the seasons, and the prevailing weather for each month in the year.

15. Complete Chronological Tables from the Creation to the year A. D. 96.

16. Alphabetical Index of the Proper Names in Scripture, with their meanings and pronunciation, taken from E. & S.'s Accented School Bible.

17. The Origin of the Nations mentioned in Scripture.

18. The Remarkable Hills mentioned in the Bible, a table giving their geographical position and historical interest, and the Scripture references to them.

19. Remarkable Lakes and Rivers of the Bible, with Scripture References to events of interest connected with them.

20. The Names, Titles, and Characters of Christ, arranged alphabetically, with the verses in the Bible where they may be found.

21. The Prophecies relating to Christ, and Passages of Holy Scripture relating to the Nature, Office, and Work of our Saviour, grouped under their appropriate heads.

22. A List of Special Prayers occurring in Scripture.

23. A Summary of the books of the Old and New Testaments; their Authenticity, Authorship, and Contents. By Rev. Stanley Leathes, Bampton Lecturer.

24. Alphabetical Index to the Psalms.

25. References in the New Testament to passages in the Old Testament.

Special Editions of the Bible.

Bibles with the Revised Version of the Psalms, published under a special license from the United Presbyterian Board of Publication, of Pittsburg, Pa. These may be had in 24mo and 16mo, with or without references.

The Invalid's Bible. 16mo and large 8vo, printed in large type, bound in several volumes, and put up in a neat case (of leather to match the books): a valuable present for the aged, sick, or infirm, being easy to read and handle.

A New Royal 4to Pulpit Bible, without references. Cheaper and better than any other English-made Pulpit or Reading-desk Bible of the same size. This book is also specially adapted for Lodge and Society purposes.

An Entirely new Translation of the Bible, to be published about August: of real interest to Bible students.

The Bible, with Various Readings and Renderings, enabling the reader to form an opinion of the meaning of the text from the original tongues.

The notes are designed not merely to correct some of the more important mistranslations, but to supply the means of estimating the authority by which the proposed corrections are supported. They are of value, alike, to the Bible reader and to the special or professional student.

A Most Important Edition of the Scriptures.

The Accented or Pronouncing Bible, for the use of Sunday Schools.

The Thin Pocket Bible—the smallest Bible published—a marvel of the printer's art.

NOVELTIES FOR 1877.

Among the many new features of our stock for this season, special attention is called to the following:

Combination Sets of Prayers and Hymnals, so arranged that the two books can be used as though they were one volume, yet not destroying the identity of either, as they are bound in two distinct volumes; furnished in Imitation Russia, Turkey, and Russia.

New Porte-Folio Cases for Prayers and Hymnals, so arranged that while the books are movable, yet it is not necessary to take them out of the case while using.

New Folding (book-shaped) Case, for Prayers and Hymnals, in Morocco, a very attractive yet low-priced set.

A large variety of new styles of Prayers and Hymnals in cases, at prices to suit the demand.

The New Testament, in the now extremely popular Levant Divinity Circuit, calf-lined bindings.

GENERAL LITERATURE.

ACADEMY SKETCHES; Comprising Reproductions, in fac-simile, from Drawings by the Artists, of 110 of the Pictures in the Annual Exhibition for 1877, of the National Academy of Design, with Descriptive Notes. Large octavo, sewed..... $0 75

ARMITAGE, (ELLA S.) The Childhood of the English Nation; or The Beginnings of English History. 16mo, cloth..... 1 25

"The story of the early days of the great nation is told with refreshing judgment, and is made excellently entertaining and impressive by the details being so well presented."—Boston Traveller.

"The clearness with which the scenes described are present in the author's mind is reflected in her style, which is a model of lucid expression."—N. Y. Tribune.

ACADEMY (THE). G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS have taken charge of the agency of "The Academy," the well-known English literary newspaper. It is published weekly, and contains seventy-five columns of carefully prepared critical material on topics in Literature, Art and Science. All the articles are signed, and their writers are among the leading critics and scholars of Great Britain. No student or reader interested in the standard literature of the time can afford not to read "The Academy." Subscription, per year, $6; per number, 12 cents.

"You should read 'The Academy.' It is the best thing of the kind."—Cornhill Magazine.

"Represents in its own field the best thought of the time * * * If we cannot have such a journal as 'The Academy' of our own make, and we cannot, it seems, or we have not, then we must welcome the foreign one—or, no, not foreign; the day has long gone by when anything English could be reckoned foreign—the journal from over-seas, and try to make its circle of American friends as wide as hospitality knows how."—Scribner's Magazine.

BACON, (Rev. L. W.) Church Papers; or Sundry Essays on Subjects Relating to the Church and Christian Society. Octavo, paper..... 1 00

BASCOM, (JOHN) Pres't of the University of Wisconsin, author of "Philosophy of English Literature," "Principles of Psychology," etc. The Philosophy of Religion; or the Rational Grounds of Religious Belief. 12mo, cloth..... 2 00

"A work such as we should expect from its distinguished author—clear, forcible and comprehensive, earnest yet liberal and fair in its statements and conclusions."—Boston Globe.

"The whole work is marked by that excellent style and clear reasoning which have brought this author's previous works into such high esteem."—New Haven Palladium.

BLACKWELL, (ANTOINETTE BROWN) Author of "Studies of General Science." The Physical Basis of Immortality. 12mo, cloth extra..... 1 50

"It is a bold and patient effort to show that nature teaches us that each individual consciousness is a persisting unity, established and sustained by immutable law."—Christian Guardian.

"The work is certainly a valuable contribution to literature, and will rank with efforts of like kind which have been produced by the ablest students and thinkers."—Chicago Times.

"It shows great research and no mediocre skill in marshalling facts into a strong and convincing argument."—Troy Times.

BRACKETT, (A. C.) Poetry for Home and School. A Selection of short pieces selected from the best standard English and American authors. Edited by ANNA C. BRACKETT and IDA M. ELIOT. Square 16mo. Cloth, pp. 320..... $1 25

The arrangement is based upon the practical wants of the school-room, being such that the selections may be learned in the order in which they stand. The book is divided into two parts; the first containing poems designed for children from six to ten years of age; in the second are more serious and thoughtful poems for older children.

"Miss Brackett and Miss Eliot have combined Mr. Palgrave's slightly ideal method with one much more practical."—Liberal Christian.

"An idea carried out with discrimination and intelligence."—Nation.

"It is as fresh and bright as a beautiful spring morning."—Wilmington Review.

"An easier or more readable book could hardly be placed upon the centre table."—Yale Lit.

"For its purpose * * unqualifiedly the best collection that has been made."—Eclectic Magazine.

"No more charming and refining collection of poetry can be put in the hands of children."—New Bedford Mercury.

"The best collection we have seen."—Binghamton Republican.

"The first part, designed for children from six to ten years of age, is especially charming."—Michigan Argus.

"This book deserves the attention of every school committee, and parents will search long without finding so good a collection for fireside reading."—Christian Union.

BEST READING (THE.) A Classified Bibliography for Easy Reference. With Hints on the Selection of Books, the Formation of Libraries, on Courses of Reading, etc. Fifteenth Edition, entirely re-written, and brought down to August, 1876, with the addition of priced lists of the best books in French, German, Spanish, and Italian Literature. Edited by F. B. PERKINS. 8vo, paper, $1.25; cloth extra..... 1 75

"By far the best work of the kind."—College Courant.

"We know of no manual that can take its place."—N. Y. Independent.

"Invaluable alike for readers, buyers, and sellers of books.—Fort Wayne Gazette.

PUTNAM'S LIBRARY COMPANION. A Quarterly Summary, giving Priced and Classified Lists of the English and American Publications of the past three months, with the addition of Brief Analyses or characterizations of the more important Books; being a Quarterly Continuation of "THE BEST READING." Edited by F. B. Perkins. Price 50 cents a year, in advance.

CHADBOURNE, (P. A., President of Williams College.) The Hope of the Righteous. Discourses delivered in memory of Prof. Albert Hopkins, Rev. Dr. Nahum Gale, and Rev. N. H. Griffin. 16mo, paper 50 cents, cloth..... 75

DAY, (Prof. HENRY N.) The Principles of Æsthetics. Large 12mo, illustrated..... 2 00

—— The Elements of Psychology. 12mo, cloth..... 1 50

"Although a volume of but 248 pages, it covers, in an elementary manner, the entire field of Psychological Literature."—Albany Journal.

"Mr. Day has produced a work that is clear and impressive both in style and matter, and one that will tend greatly to the elevation of the study of mind."—Chicago Times.

—— Logical Praxis. 12mo, cloth..... 1 00

—— The Science of Ethics. An Elementary System of Theoretical and Practical Morality. 12mo..... 1 50

In use in Yale College, Indiana University, and other Colleges.

"A valuable treatise."—Portland Press.

"Admirably adapted to beginners in metaphysical study."—Evening Mail.

ELMENDORF, (Prof. J. J.) Outlines of the History of Philosophy, for the Use of Students and Classes. 12mo, cloth..... 1 50

"A book superior to any of its kind."—Christian Union.

"So much valuable material has rarely been put into so small a compass."—Albany Journal.

DODGE, (RICHARD IRVING, Lieut.-Col., U.S.A.) The Plains of the Great West, and their Inhabitants. One volume, large octavo, very fully illustrated..... 4 00

A vivid and picturesque description of the Western plains of the American continent, including accounts of the game, a careful topographical record, notes on emigration, etc., etc., and an exhaustive account of the life and habits of the Indians (both the "reserved" and the "unreserved"), their customs in fighting, hunting, marriage, death, religious beliefs and rites, etc., etc., with some suggestions for the treatment of the Indian question.

"Since Catlin no such valuable book has appeared as this."—Edinburgh Review.

"His descriptions evince an alert and vigilant mind with no ordinary powers of perception."—N. Y. Tribune.

"Col. Dodge does not depend for his facts on the second-hand information that comes from experts with the long bow. From the swamps of the Mississippi to the cañons of the Rocky Mountains he has been almost everywhere, seen almost everything, and killed every variety of game. He is a practical geologist and naturalist, and something of an anthropologist as well."—Pall Mall Gazette.

ERSKINE. Letters of Thomas Erskine of Linlathen. From 1800 till 1840. Edited by WILLIAM HANNA, D.D., Author of "Memoirs of Dr. Chalmers," etc., etc. Octavo, cloth extra..... $2 50

"For twenty years I have known and admired the writings of Thomas Erskine."—President Porter, of Yale.

FROTHINGHAM, (REV. O. B.) The Cradle of the Christ. A Study in Primitive Christianity. 8vo, cloth extra..... 1 75

"Manfully and gracefully written . . . Full of force."—Boston Traveller.
"Scholarly, acute, and vigorous."—N. Y. Tribune.

——— The Spirit of the New Faith. A Series of Sermons. 12mo, cloth..... 1 00

Speaking of Mr. Frothingham's Sermons, the Springfield Republican says: "No one of serious intellectual character can fail to be interested and taught by these most thoughtful discourses."

——— The Safest Creed, and other Discourses. 12mo, cloth..... 1 50

——— Knowledge and Faith, and other Discourses. 12mo, cloth..... 1 00

——— Transcendentalism in New England. Large octavo, cloth extra, with portrait on steel, of the author..... 2 50

"The style is masterly in its crystalline clearness, its combination of fullness of meaning with compactness of expression, and its bright felicities of epithet and phrase."—N. Y. Tribune.
"It is, in a word, an inestimable contribution to the history of transcendentalism in New England."—Hartford Post.
"It is a work that was needed; a history that waited to be written; a task which sooner or later some one must have attempted. To say that it has been performed at last by Mr. Frothingham is to say that it has been well performed. It is a book that should be in every library."—Portland Press.
"The book is masterly and satisfying, and we think it is not too much to say that it will prove of lasting value to the student of history, of philosophy, of theology, and of sociology, for in all these fields transcendentalism showed itself capable of exercising an influence profound, if apparently transient."—Appleton's Journal.

——— Life of Gerrit Smith. Octavo, cloth extra, with portrait [In Press.]

HAMMOND, (WM. A., M.D.) Spiritualism, and Allied Causes and Conditions of Nervous Derangement. Author of "Diseases of the Nervous System," etc. Octavo, cloth..... 2 25

"There has been long needed a treatise of this sort from the pen of some one who, like Dr. Hammond, brings to his task special and unquestioned abilities. * * * The bulk of the volume is devoted to the exposure of jugglers who claim spiritual inspiration, and to the explanation of honest hallucinations, which have deceived and mystified clear-headed people."—Christian Union.
"This volume is written in a frank and fearless spirit, and aims to overthrow prejudice by mere force of fact."—Independent.
"The amount of research necessary to produce this book must have been very great, and it is an invaluable contribution to the literature of the subject."—Quincy Whig.

HILL, (REV. THOMAS, D.D., formerly President of Harvard College.) The True Order of Studies. 12mo, cloth..... 1 25

"The work of one of the most logical thinkers and practical educators in the country."—N. E. Journal of Education.
"Upon the merit of the work we have but a single opinion, which is, that it is by far the most valuable book ever published on the same subject."—Christian Union.
"We commend the whole volume, which is full of thought of the highest value."—Boston Transcript.

HOPE, (ARTHUR.) A Manual of Sorrento and Inlaid Work, for Amateurs. With Original Designs. Octavo, cloth extra, illustrated..... 1 25

"Admirably fitted to teach the art from the very beginning, through all its intricacies."—Chicago Tribune.
"An invaluable manual to all interested in this beautiful study."—Chicago Religious Journal.
"Altogether the best book that can be placed in the hands of the amateur beginner in scroll-sawing."—N. Y. Graphic.

MARTINEAU, (James, LL.D.) Modern Materialism in its Relations to Religion and Theology. New Edition, two volumes in one. 16mo, cloth extra..... 1 25

"The ablest analysis of Tyndall and his school of thought that has yet appeared."—London Spectator.
"He is full of his theme, rich in his own sonorous and weighty eloquence, brimful of suppressed pathos, and on fire with aggressive conviction."—Methodist.

McADAM, (Graham.) An Alphabet in Finance. With Introduction by R. R. BOWKER. 12mo, cloth (in series of Popular Manuals)..... 1 25

"This volume has been planned to present in clear and readable shape, the first principles or A. B. C. of Financial Science."
"It is the kind of book that should be heartily welcomed, as it presents facts and unfailing laws relating to the principles of money, without dictating harsh means to carry out personal views."—Pittsburgh Commercial.
"If any people of the whole world need to be versed in the science of money, it is the people of the United States."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

PARKER, (Theodore.) A Discourse on Matters Pertaining to Religion. New Edition, with Introduction by O. B. FROTHINGHAM, and Biographical Sketch by HANNAH E. STEVENSON. Large 12mo, 550 pages, paper $1.00, cloth..... $1 50

"Elevating and Catholic. * * * It came from a heart full of love and reverence, guided by reason and observation. * * * An admirable statement of the author's philosophy of religion."—The Commonwealth.

BASCOM (John), President of University of Wisconsin. The Philosophy of English Literature. Lectures delivered before the Lowell Institute, Boston. 12mo, cloth 1 75

"The student and reader of English Literature will find this volume a choice contribution to his library of text books and manuals. One may be thoroughly familiar with the multitude of successive authors whose productions form the vast treasury of English literature, and wholly lack an understanding of the conditions which surround them, the influences which directed them, and the relations which they hold to one another. BRIEF BIOGRAPHIES. First Series. Contemporary Statesmen of Europe. Edited by Thomas Wentworth Higginson.

These volumes are planned to meet the desire which exists for accurate and graphic information in regard to the leaders of political action in other countries. They will give portraitures of the men and analysis of their lives and work, that will be vivid and picturesque, as well as accurate and faithful, and that will combine the authority of careful historic narration with the interest attaching to anecdote and personal delineation.

They are handsomely printed in square 16mo, and attractively bound in cloth extra. Price per vol..... 1 50

Cloth..... 90

The "Student's Own Book," by Paul Reeves, which forms the first of the Handy-Book Series, is notable among other points in giving "a good deal for the money." The amount of matter in this book, which is in clear and neat, though small type, fully equals that in other books of twice the size and cost. It contains many new pieces not to be found in any of the school text-books. It aims to meet the wants of a large number outside of the school-room, while it is also well adapted for school use.

The Philadelphia Inquirer says of it: "The general rules laid down, and the suggestions thrown out, are excellent, while the pieces furnished for declamation are well chosen. The book is one deserving a wide circulation."

Another good authority says: "We have never before seen a collection so admirably adapted for its purpose. Prose and verse, humor, eloquence, description, alteration, burlesque discourse of every kind. . . . For schools, clubs, and fireside amusement, it will be found an almost inexhaustible source of entertainment. . . . The instruction . . . is sensible and practical."

This little volume gives in the compass of 150 pages, concise yet comprehensive answers to the most important questions of Social Economy. The relations of men to each other, the nature of property, the meaning of capital, the position of the laborer, the definition of money, the work of government, the character of business, are all set forth with clearness and scientific thoroughness. The book, from its simplicity and the excellence of its instruction, is especially adapted for use in schools, while the information it contains is of value and interest to all classes of readers.

"It is this sort of knowledge that is contained in Prof. Rogers' book, which we cannot too highly recommend to the use of teachers, students, and the general public."—American Athenæum.

—— John Godfrey's Fortunes, Related by Himself. A Story of American Life. By Bayard Taylor. In one volume, 12mo..... 2 00
Household edition..... 1 50

"'John Godfrey's Fortunes,' without being melodramatic or morbid, is one of the most fascinating novels which we have ever read. Its portraiture of American social life, though not flattering, is eminently truthful; its delineation of character delicate and natural; its English, though sometimes careless, is singularly graceful and pleasant."—Cleveland Leader.

—— Joseph and His Friend. A Story of Pennsylvania. 12mo, cloth..... 2 00

A Series of American Clinical Lectures.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS have the pleasure of announcing to the Medical profession that they have commenced the publication of a series of Clinical Lectures by representative American Medical Teachers, upon topics of practical interest.

It is intended to select for publication in the series only lectures by recognized Medical instructors; either Professors in Colleges or Hospital Physicians, in the large cities of the United States. These lectures to be upon medical, surgical, and a few special topics.

They will express not only the personal views of the lecturers upon the subjects treated of, but also the latest pathological and therapeutical opinions connected with these topics, and will therefore be trustworthy guides to practice. It is expected that these lectures, presenting in compact and economical shape the most advanced thought, combined with practical instruction, will be found equally valuable by advanced medical students and by practitioners.

They will be carefully and handsomely printed in pamphlet form; each number to contain from twenty to forty octavo pages, which will be so proportioned as to leave ample margin for binding.

The lectures will be sold separately at 25 cents each. Subscription for 12 Nos., $3.00.

Below will be found the Contents of the first volume, just completed. Price, in cloth, with portrait of Dr. Flint, $3.00.

No. I.—On Disease of the Hip-Joint.—By LEWIS A. SAYRE, M. D., Professor of Orthopedic Surgery in Bellevue Hospital Medical College, N. Y.

"The series of CLINICAL LECTURES, edited by E. C. Seguin, M.D., are all that could be desired in that direction."—Cincinnati Lancet and Observer, Sept., 1875.

"This brochure (No. IV.) constitutes one of the series of AMERICAN CLINICAL LECTURES now being published under the editorial management of Dr. Seguin. We have read it with very great satisfaction; and when we say that it is one of the best contributions which Dr. Mitchell has made to practical medicine, we award it, in our opinion, the highest praise."—Phila. Medical Times, April 14, 1875.

"We commend the undertaking with all our heart, and shall look forward to its further progress with a lively interest in its success."—New Orleans Medical and Surgical Journal.

"The series is heartily commended. Their special value is that they are practical in their teaching."—Virginia Medical Monthly, April, 1875.

"The lecture to which we have referred in this notice is of special interest and importance."—Am. Journal of Medical Sciences, Oct., 1875.

"The first number already received, fully sustains the announcement."—Detroit Review of Pharmacy and Medicine, March, 1875.

"If Dr. Seguin's success in procuring lectures is as good in other departments of medicine as this of Dr. Mitchell's is in the one in which he labors, he will confer a benefit on the profession in issuing them."—Chicago Journal of Nervous and Mental Disease, July, 1875.

THE

Journal of Nervous and Mental Disease:

PUBLISHED QUARTERLY.

Terms: Five Dollars per annum, in Advance.

CHICAGO: 57 E. Washington St. NEW YORK: { G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS, 308 Fourth Ave.

The Editors of the CHICAGO JOURNAL OF NERVOUS AND MENTAL DISEASE would respectfully invite the attention of members of the profession to certain changes in its management, which will enable it to present higher claims than ever to their consideration. They take great pleasure in announcing that arrangements have been made for its simultaneous publication in New York and Chicago. In the former city the publishing interests of the JOURNAL have been confided to the widely-known house of G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS. We have also secured the editorial co-operation of the following eminent Neurologists: DR. WM. A. HAMMOND, of New York; DR. S. WEIR MITCHELL, of Philadelphia, and DR. E. H. CLARKE, of Boston.

The name of the JOURNAL will also be changed by omitting Chicago from its title, thus rendering it cosmopolitan in name as well as in circulation. It will accordingly be known hereafter as the "JOURNAL OF NERVOUS AND MENTAL DISEASE." It will also be increased in size, as compared with the former volumes, each number containing from 160 to 200 pages of closely printed matter. Corresponding to its increase in size, the subscription price will be increased to Five Dollars per annum, or One Dollar and Fifty Cents a number.* A number of minor changes will be made in its arrangement, that will not be noticed in this place, but which will all contribute to render it more attractive and useful than before.

The arrangement of matter in the JOURNAL will continue to be as in the former volumes, viz:

I. A Department for Original Articles, which may also contain selections and translations of articles of merit, from a wide range of Foreign Periodicals, on subjects relating to the Nervous System and Mind.

II. A Department for Reviews, in which an attempt will be made to give full and critical surveys of all new and important works and papers which may appear, in regard to the Nervous system or mind, whether in this country or abroad. Our readers will thus be enabled to obtain the substance of all new works of importance falling within our Department.

III. An Editorial Department. This will be maintained to give place for the discussion of such topics as may appear to call for special notice, and which may not belong to the other departments of the JOURNAL.

IV. A Periscope Department. This will comprise from thirty to forty pages of small type, and in it will be found condensations, made for this JOURNAL, of a large number of articles from English, German, French, Italian, and other periodicals, the whole arranged under three heads:

1. Anatomy and Physiology of the Nervous System.
2. Pathology of the Nervous System, and Pathological Anatomy.
3. Therapeutics of the Nervous System and Mind.

It is our purpose to give this latter drpartment of the Periscope great attention, publishing in it everything that is new in regard to the treatment of nervous and mental diseases. Each number of the JOURNAL will contain, besides the matter mentioned, a list of all important new works in the department of Neurological medicine that may appear either at home or abroad.

In every departmeut of the JOURNAL no pains will be spared to make it all that could reasonably be desired. But in respect to the first department or that for ORIGINAL COMMUNICATIONS, we are gratified in being able to announce to our readers, that we shall henceforth be able to present them with articles from a large number of the most eminent members of the profession in this country. This department of the JOURNAL is to be enlarged, and promises to be not inferior to that of any other JOURNAL in the country, in point of freshness and excellence. The department for REVIEWS is to receive increased attention, while the PERISCOPE will fairly and fully reflect the progress of Neurological Science in all parts of the world.

With the greatly increased publishing and editorial facilities which we hereby make known, we entertain the hope of seeing the JOURNAL, under its new auspices, become worthy of the fullest support of the profession, and an honor to the periodical medical literature of the country. Thus far the success of the JOURNAL has greatly surpassed the expectations of its editors. Under the new arrangement we have no hesitation in asking and expecting the support of the profession.

Subscriptions and all business connected with the JOURNAL may be addressed either to the editors, at 57 Washington Street, Chicago, or to the Eastern Publishers, G. P. Putnam's Sons, 308 Fourth Avenue, New York. Respectfully,

J. S. JEWELL, M.D.
H. M. BANNISTER, M.D. } Editors.

For a short time Specimen Copies will be furnished, free of postage, for seventy-five cents.

ARCHIVES OF DERMATOLOGY:

A QUARTERLY JOURNAL OF Skin and Venereal Diseases.

EDITED BY

L. DUNCAN BULKLEY, A.M., M.D.,

PHYSICIAN TO THE SKIN DEPARTMENT, DEMILT DISPENSARY, NEW YORK, ETC.

Although devoted to the study of a special branch, and containing much scientific matter of a special character, the Archives of Dermatology is by no means of interest alone to the specialist.

With the aim of furnishing to the general practitioner, in each issue, matter readily understood and of immediate practical advantage, the Editor has, during the past year, supplied, in the form of Clinical Conversations on Diseases of the Skin, reports of cases of the more commonly met with cutaneous affections, with remarks upon their diagnosis, treatment, etc., as given to private classes at the Demilt Dispensary, New York: he has also given articles on "The Local Treatment of Certain Diseases of the Skin," which present, in simple form, prescriptions in common use, with directions for their safe and successful employment. The very favorable reception which both these have met with warrants their continuance, and it is hoped and believed that they will be of service to the general practitioner, for whom they are intended.

The department of Digest of Literature will aim, as in the past, to give reference to every article published relating to Skin or Venereal Diseases, with a synopsis or criticism of such as contain new or interesting and practical facts.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"We have here the first volume of a quarterly devoted to skin and venereal diseases, which is in every sense a credit to American literature and deserving of extensive circulation."—New York Medical Record.

"If the conductors can secure a succession of numbers in the future as good in character and material as this first specimen one, they will not fail, we think, to meet with success."—London Lancet.

"The numbers of this new dermatological journal that have appeared, and which constitute the first volume, sustain well the promise of being a complete repertory of all current work in its own department."—London Practitioner.

"This volume is extremely creditable to its originators. * * * * * the reviews are independent, deservedly severe on certain recent publications.—British Medical Journal.

"It is, in my humble opinion, by far the best Journal of Dermatology which has appeared in any language. The articles are not tedious and lengthy * * * * they are, for the most part, practical."—McCall Anderson.

Subscription $3.00 a year, in advance. Single Numbers, $1.00.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT TO TEACHERS, STUDENTS AND READERS OF GERMAN LITERATURE.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS have the pleasure of announcing that they have commenced the publication of a series entitled

GERMAN CLASSICS

FOR AMERICAN STUDENTS.

EDITED BY

JAMES MORGAN HART, LL. D.

AUTHOR OF "GERMAN UNIVERSITIES," GRADUATE OF THE COLLEGE OF NEW JERSEY, AND THE UNIVERSITY OF GÖTTINGEN, AND FORMERLY ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF GERMAN IN CORNELL UNIVERSITY, &c., &c.

The series will be issued in neat 16mo volumes, carefully printed and handsomely bound, and will form not only a set of text-books for the student of German, but an attractive collection for the Library of the Masterpieces of German Literature. It will present the following important features:

The utmost pains will be taken to ensure textual accuracy, a point hitherto neglected in the preparation of text-books in the modern languages.

Each volume will contain:

I. An Introduction, setting forth the circumstances and influences under which the work—(or in the case of selections, each part)—was composed, the materials used by the author or the sources from which he derived his inspiration, and the relative standing of the work in German literature.

II. A Running Commentary, explaining peculiarities in the use of words and difficulties in the grammatical structure of the sentence (with such reference to grammatical authorities as may be found necessary), and discussing allusions to the personages and events of history, to the author's contemporaries, to national or provincial peculiarities of manner, customs and opinion.
